OFF THE TOP OF MY HEAD...

Welcome to Fr. Joseph Albert Saleth, who is celebrating three of our six Pastorate Masses and asking support for his missionary diocese, the ancient Archdiocese of Madras-Mylapore, India. We are conducting a special collection for his Archdiocese at all six Masses. Please be generous!

Every few months, some parishioners in our Pastorate receive a text message or an email claiming to be from me, asking for help or a favor. An urgent situation is described: Someone is stranded in an airport somewhere or someone's car has broken down. One recent message even referred to a dying parishioner.

No matter what urgent situation is described, the sender then asks that the recipient purchase hundreds of dollars of online gift cards and forward them to the sender.

IN CASE YOU CAN'T TELL, I AM NOT THE SENDER OF THESE MESSAGES. NEVER. EVER!

Here's what happens: Someone goes to our parish website and looks for email addresses and phone numbers. They usually find them in the online bulletin. So, if there is a bulletin announcement from eight months ago encouraging people to contact you at a certain cell number or email address, you may become a target.

This "someone" (let's just use the word "scammer") then looks up the Pastor's name. Then the scammer sends an email or text message claiming to be me, asking for this favor. (The message NEVER comes from my actual cell phone or email account!)

So, this scam takes place without anyone's cell phone or email being hacked, through the industriousness of the scammer who spends his or her days surfing the web looking at the websites of churches and other organizations.

The best way to avoid this scam is to check on the sender's phone number or email address. If it is not mine, it's a scam! If you are not sure, you can be absolutely certain that I will never send a message asking you to purchase online gift cards for me!

So do not respond to the message. Just delete it and block the address. You don't need to contact the parish office.

I share this information not just to reduce unnecessary calls to parish offices, but to keep people from purchasing those online gift cards. Rarely, but still too often, someone falls victim to this scam. I hate for that to happen.

If you ever get a message asking you to help clean out my car, THAT message is probably from me!

PENSAMIENTOS DEL PADRE TOM...

Bienvenido al P. Joseph Albert Saleth, quien celebra tres de nuestras seis Misas del Pastorado I y pide apoyo para su diócesis misionera, la antigua Arquidiócesis de Madras-Mylapore, India. Realizaremos una colecta especial para su Arquidiócesis en las seis Misas. ¡Por favor sea generoso!

Cada pocos meses, algunos feligreses de nuestro Pastorado reciben un mensaje de texto o un correo electrónico que dice ser mío, pidiendo ayuda o un favor. Se describe una situación urgente: alguien está atrapado en un aeropuerto o su coche se ha averiado. Un mensaje reciente incluso se refería a un feligrés moribundo.

Independientemente de la situación urgente que se describa, el remitente solicita al destinatario que compre cientos de dólares en tarjetas de regalo en línea y se las envíe al remitente.

En caso de que no lo sepa, NO soy el remitente de estos mensajes. Nunca. ¡Jamás!

Esto es lo que sucede: alguien visita el sitio web de nuestra parroquia y busca direcciones de correo electrónico y números de teléfono. Generalmente los encuentran en el boletín online. Es decir, si hubiera un anuncio en un boletín de hace ocho meses que anima a las personas a comunicarse con usted a un determinado número de celular o dirección de correo electrónico, usted puede convertirse en blanco.

Este "alguien" (usemos la palabra "estafador") luego busca el nombre del pastor. Luego, el estafador envía un correo electrónico o un mensaje de texto haciéndose pasar por mí y pidiendo este favor. (¡El mensaje NUNCA proviene de mi teléfono celular o cuenta de correo electrónico real!)

Entonces, esta estafa se lleva a cabo sin que el teléfono celular o el correo electrónico de nadie sea pirateado, gracias a la laboriosidad del estafador que pasa sus días navegando la web mirando los sitios web de iglesias y otras organizaciones.

La mejor manera de evitar esta estafa es comprobar el número de teléfono o la dirección de correo electrónico del remitente. ¡Si no es mío, es una estafa! Si no está seguro, puede estar absolutamente seguro de que nunca le enviaré un mensaje pidiéndole que compre tarjetas de regalo en línea para mí.

Así que no responda al mensaje. Simplemente elimínelo y bloquee la dirección. No es necesario que se comunique con la oficina parroquial.

Comparto esta información no sólo para reducir las llamadas innecesarias a las oficinas parroquiales, sino también para evitar que la gente compre esas tarjetas de regalo en línea. En raras ocasiones, aunque con demasiada frecuencia, alguien cae víctima a esta estafa. Me duele que eso suceda.

Si alguna vez recibiera usted un mensaje pidiéndole que me ayude a limpiar mi auto, ¡ESE mensaje probablemente sea mío!

Padre Tom Metzger

Each October, the Daughters of Mary sponsor a Respect for Life "baby shower" to collect much-needed baby items for charity. This year, Daughters of Mary will share your donations to First Choice for Women and St. Elizabeth Coleman Pregnancy and Adoption Services. Some St. Mary parishioners were adopted as infants from St. Elizabeth Coleman's or know someone who adopted a child with their help.

Check out the display in the Narthex for a list of some requested items, but all donations are appreciated. For more information about materials needs, check out their websites at St. Elizabeth Coleman Pregnancy and Adoption Services and First Choice for Women \(Anderson & Muncie\). Monetary donations to each organization is also greatly appreciated!
