PASTORATE VISION PLAN UPDATES: BAPTISM PREPARATION

Normally, the final Sunday of the Christmas season is called the Baptism of the Lord. However, because of the way the calendar falls this year, this feast is moved to tomorrow (Monday, January 8). As we conclude the Christmas season, though, it is still good to reflect on the importance of Baptism.

The sacrament of Baptism, which Jesus Christ left to the Church before he ascended into Heaven, is the gateway to all of the other sacraments. Through the pouring of water and the invocation of the Trinity, we truly believe that God washes away all sins for the individual who is baptized. We believe that this person is now brought into deeper union with Christ, that they become an adopted son or daughter of God, and that they become a member of the Church.

Because this sacrament is so important, it is equally important that we, as a pastorate, prepare individuals and families as much as possible so they can receive the great gifts the Lord wishes to give through Baptism. This is why our Pastorate Vision Plan, which we began implementing in the summer, has a specific strategy dedicated to forming ministries of mentoring and accompaniment for parents and families as they prepare for Baptism.

Our Director of Evangelization Christine Vincent-Rodas and I have been working to implement this new Baptism preparation program with a team of parishioners. The program is designed for families who have children under the age of six or seven who desire Baptism. It involves families attending a traditional preparation session at the church where the logistics and theology of Baptism are discussed.

But beyond these sessions, each family will be put into contact with a “companion couple.” These couples will be members of our pastorate who have already been through the process of baptizing their children. The purpose of these couples is to accompany and serve as mentors. This will involve the couple attending Mass and setting up informal meetings over the course of three or so months in order to support and answer any questions the families might have.

In the end, the goal is that these families going through the Baptism preparation process will be welcomed and become a part of our pastorate community. Through the help of good teachers and companion couples this strategy is designed to help families see the importance of this great sacrament and that it’s only the beginning of a journey of faith, not the end!

ACTUALIZACIONES DEL PLAN DE VISIÓN PASTORADO: PREPARACIÓN PARA EL BAUTISMO

Normalmente, el último domingo de la temporada navideña se llama el Bautismo del Señor. Sin embargo, debido a la forma en que cae el calendario este año, esta fiesta se traslada a mañana (lunes 8 de enero). Sin embargo, al concluir la temporada navideña, es bueno reflexionar sobre la importancia del Bautismo.

El sacramento del bautismo, que Jesucristo dejó a la Iglesia antes de ascender al cielo, es la puerta de entrada a todos los demás sacramentos. A través del derramamiento de agua y la invocación de la Trinidad, realmente creemos que Dios lava todos los pecados del individuo que es bautizado. Creemos que esta persona ahora entra en una unión más profunda con Cristo, que se convierte en un hijo o hija adoptivo de Dios y que se convierte en miembro de la Iglesia.

Debido a que este sacramento es tan importante, es igualmente importante que nosotros, como pastorado, preparemos a las personas y familias tanto como sea posible para que puedan recibir los grandes dones que el Señor desea dar a través del Bautismo. Es por eso que nuestro Plan de Visión Pastoral, que comenzamos a implementar en el verano, tiene una estrategia específica dedicada a formar ministerios de tutoría y acompañamiento para padres y familias mientras se preparan para el Bautismo.

Nuestra Directora de Evangelización Christine Vincent-Rodas y yo hemos estado trabajando para implementar este nuevo programa de preparación para el Bautismo con un equipo de feligreses. El programa está diseñado para familias que tienen niños menores de seis o siete años que desean el bautismo. Implica que las familias asistan a una sesión de preparación tradicional en la iglesia donde se discute la logística y la teología del Bautismo.

Pero más allá de estas sesiones, cada familia se pondrá en contacto con una “pareja acompañante”. Estas parejas serán miembros de nuestro pastorado que ya han pasado por el proceso de bautizar a sus hijos. El propósito de estas parejas es acompañar y servir como mentores. Esto implicará que la pareja asista a misa y establezca reuniones informales durante aproximadamente tres meses para apoyar y responder cualquier pregunta que las familias puedan tener.

Al final, el objetivo es que estas familias que están pasando por el proceso de preparación para el Bautismo sean bienvenidas y formen parte de nuestra comunidad de pastorado. Con la ayuda de buenos maestros y parejas compañeras, esta estrategia está diseñada para ayudar a las familias a ver la importancia de este gran sacramento y que es solo el comienzo de un camino de fe, ¡no el final!
