Looking for Angels

Luke 6:38: If you give, you will get! Your gift will return to you in full and overflowing measure, pressed down, shaken together to make room for more, and ... Have you ever wondered how you can help some of our catholic school students. This year we are kicking off a new program called the Angel Fund. This fund will allow the school cafeteria to offset expenses from students who do not qualify for any type of breakfast or lunch assistance. We are looking for angels within our parish and community who would love to join us in starting and maintaining this Angel Fund. The funds will and only be used for those students in need of funds to enjoy our school breakfast or lunch program. Any monetary donation will be accepted. If you are interested in helping us kick off this Angel Fund and be an angel for a student. For more information call the school or Gus Trujillo at 928-783-5225.

Once I went to a hospice facility to celebrate Last Rites for an elderly dying man. His family had told me that he had been uncommunicative for days. At the conclusion of the ritual, we began to recite the Our Father prayer. To everyone's surprise, his lips moved, clearly mouthing the words to the Lord's prayer. Stripped of most of his faculties, the man could still pray those precious God-given petitions. A lifetime of prayer had planted the words even deeper than his failing consciousness.

Do we want the Lord's prayer to be as deeply embedded in us? If we want to be people of hope, we should. Recall that our Lord immediately follows the prayer by saying: "Ask, and it will be given to you; search, and you will find; knock, and the door will be opened to you" (Luke 11:9). We only ask, search and knock because we hope that the request is not in vain. Everything we could possibly hope for is contained in the prayer. Praying the Our Father deepens our hope.

We should consciously pour all our hopes into the Lord's prayer; we should allow it to be an expression of hope, not simply rote words. Then, over time, it builds up our hope in God. It sinks deep into our souls and bodies. How blessed we are when these words of hope are on our lips, even when everything else seems to fail. — Father John Muir

¿Te has preguntado alguna vez cuál es la mejor manera de hacer oración? Quizá la respuesta sea "de muchas maneras". A lo mejor explicarás las diferentes formas de hacer oración. Cada persona tiene su experiencia de oración. El Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica, en su número 2564, nos ayuda a comprender mejor lo que es orar: "La oración cristiana es una relación de Alianza entre Dios y el hombre en Cristo. Es la acción de Dios y del hombre; brota del Espíritu Santo y de nosotros, dirigidas por completo al Padre, en unión con la voluntad humana del Hijo de Dios hecho hombre". Santa Teresa del Niño Jesús, en sus manuscritos autobiográficos, decía sobre su experiencia de oración (C25 r): "Para mí, la oración es un impulso del corazón, una sencilla mirada hacia el cielo, un grito de agradecimiento y de amor tanto desde dentro de la prueba como desde dentro de la alegría".

El Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica, en su número 2759, nos enseña: "Estando él [Jesús] en cierto lugar, cuando terminó, le dijo uno de sus discípulos: 'Maestro, enséñanos a orar, como enseñó Juan a sus discípulos'" (Lucas 11:1). En respuesta a esta petición, el Señor confía a sus discípulos y a su Iglesia la oración cristiana fundamental. San Lucas da de ella un texto breve (con cinco peticiones [Lucas 11:2-4]). San Mateo nos transmite una versión más desarrollada (con siete peticiones [Mateo 6:9-13]). La tradición de la Iglesia ha conservado el texto de San Mateo. El Padrenuestro es fundamental para todo cristiano. Recémoslo siempre con fe.

"Ask and you will receive; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you." (Luke 11:9)

If you feel God is calling you to a vocation, ask for His guidance in prayer. Lord I will go where You want me to go. I will be who You want me to be. I will do what You want me to do. Just make it my will, and make it clear to me. Talk to Fr Peter or email: yumavocationministry@gmail.com.

Sabias que

"Pide y recibirás; busca y hallarás; llama y se te abrirá la puerta." (Lucas 11:9) Si sientes que Dios te está llamando a una vocación, pide Su guía en oración. Señor, iré donde Tú quieras que yo vaya. Seré quien Tú quieras que yo sea. Haré lo que Tú quieras que yo haga. Solo hazlo mi voluntad y déjame claro. Habla con el Padre Pedro o envía un correo electrónico a: yumavocationministry@gmail.com.
