A REFLECTION BY FR. HERIC

Dear Friends in Christ,

The celebration of Holy Week, which starts this Palm Sunday, comes as it always does at just the right time. The list of concerns in our world, country, and church is growing, but so is the list of our reasons for hope in the new life revealed in the death and resurrection of Christ. This paschal mystery of the Lord is celebrated in a powerful way through a single liturgy that takes place over three days that we call the Triduum. My hope is that many of you will choose to participate in the Mass of the Lord's Supper on Holy Thursday, the Passion of the Lord on Good Friday, and the Great Easter Vigil on Holy Saturday.

Please take a few minutes to read the bulletin insert reflection on the meaning of the Triduum by Corinna Laughlin, pastoral assistant for liturgy at St. James Cathedral.

Finally, please spread the word to family, friends, neighbors, and coworkers that we would love to have them join us for any and all of our coming celebrations!

Blessings of peace,

Fr. William Heric, Pastor

Holy Mary Mother of God...pray for us!
St. Bridget of Kildare...pray for us!
St. Catherine of Siena...pray for us!
Live Jesus in our hearts...forever!

Phoebe Circle at Mass

Inspired by Discerning Deacons and with Father Bill's support, our Phoebe Circle continues to elevate women's voices in our community. On the last weekend of April, three women from our parish will share reflections at all six Masses.

Kristin Holland (St. Catherine - Sat. evening, St. Bridget's - Sun. morning) holds a master's in theology and organizational leadership from Gonzaga and is the Director of Liturgy for NE Seattle Catholic Family.

Erin Ahern (OLL - Sat. evening & Sun. morning) has served as a children's liturgist, youth leader, and Catholic school teacher and is currently a second-grade teacher at OLL.

Chris Covey (Assumption - Sun. 9 AM, St. Catherine - Sun. 10:30 AM) has been active at OLL for 10 years, serving in the Mother Teresa Guild, peace and justice committee, and as a sacristan.

To learn more about Phoebe Circle, email Liz Jackman, elizabeth.ann.jackman@gmail.com. Inspired by St. Phoebe, a deacon in the early Church, we uplift women's roles through reflections, prayer, and fellowship. Join us!

Lenten Recipes - Kenyan Coconut Beans

Suggested by Mary-Anne Matua

Ingredients: 1/2 onion chopped, 1/2 bell pepper chopped, 2-3 cloves garlic minced, 2tsp turmeric, 2tsp cumin, 1tsp coriander, 1/4tsp cardamom, 1tsp ginger paste, 1 jalapeno, chopped, 2tsp agave, s&p, 2 cans drained kidney or black beans, 1 can diced tomatoes, 1 can coconut milk, 1 cp water.

Method: Sauté onions, bell pepper, and garlic in ¼ inch of water in a soup pot over medium heat until soft, 7-10 mins. While the veggies are cooking, measure out your spices into a pinch bowl and open your cans. Add all spices, including the ginger paste, plus the jalapeño. Stir to create a paste-like consistency and cook about one minute, not allowing the mixture to get too dry (add a splash of water if needed). Reduce heat to low and stir in the agave, salt and pepper, beans, tomatoes, and coconut milk. Add water to thin to desired consistency. Simmer at least 20 mins, stirring occasionally. Serve with chapati or naan bread.

Earth Day Summit

Laudato Si Movement WA

Join us for the annual Laudato Si Movement Washington Chapter Summit (formerly CCN/Care for Creation Summit) on Saturday, April 26, 2025, 9:00 am – 5:00 pm at Seattle University - La Roux Conference Center. Our theme for this year is Pilgrims of Hope for Creation. We are thrilled to announce that our guest speaker will be Dr. Robert Bullard, Father of Environmental Justice.

America is segregated and so is pollution. Race and class still matter and map closely with pollution, unequal protection, and vulnerability. Today, zip code is still the most potent predictor of an individual's health and well-being. Reducing environmental, health, economic, and racial disparities is a major priority of the Environmental Justice Movement.

Our annual summit also includes prayer, presentations on local and global environmental issues (including a presentation from Eastside Catholic youth representatives), a "trash pilgrimage" to clean up around the SU campus and local neighborhood, reflection, and representatives from local organizations to answer any questions you might have!

Come to learn, pray, share, reflect, and answer the call to action!

Good Friday Special Collection for the Holy Land

Every year on Good Friday, a collection is taken up in Catholic Churches to support the work of the Franciscans working in the Holy Land. Christians there rely heavily on the help that comes to them from this worldwide collection.

The Franciscan Monastery of the Holy Land in America is part of a worldwide network of Commissariats of the Holy Land which function as bridges between the Holy Land and Christians all over the world. The Franciscan Monastery in Washington, D.C., coordinates this vital support for the work of the Franciscans who work in the Holy Land.

The Franciscans of the Custody of the Holy Land have the unique responsibility to care for the Holy Places as well for the "Living Stones," the Christians living there. It is vital that we support Christians living in the Holy Land, in order to maintain a Christian presence in the very land made holy by the life, death and Resurrection of Jesus. Learn more here: <https://myfranciscan.org/good-friday-2025/>

Child Abuse Prevention Month

April is National Child Abuse Prevention Month. During this month, Archbishop Etienne is encouraging everyone to increase our awareness, to educate ourselves and our communities, and to pray for healing for those who have been tragically impacted by the scourge of child abuse. To learn about the Archdiocese of Seattle's longstanding commitment to transparency, accountability, and assistance to victims of abuse, as well as safe environment standards, visit: <https://archseattle.org/protect-and-heal/>
