You may memorialize a loved one in our Prayer Garden by purchasing a brick and having it engraved with their name. The cost is only $200, and it will be placed in our beautiful Prayer Garden. Call Kate at the Parish Office for more information at 520-458-2925.

Welcome to St. Andrew the Apostle Parish

With open hearts we welcome all who have come to the house of the Lord. If you are new to the parish, please take time to stop by the office and register. Once registered, this implies that you will participate with our faith community at Sunday Liturgy and return to the Lord by sharing your time, talent, and treasure with His Church.

Thank You
For Your Will to Give

Your gift will support our life of prayer, and our prayer will be the gift we offer in return to support you and your loved ones.

FORM OF BEQUEST FOR A WILL:

I give, devise, and bequeath to Saint Andrew the Apostle Parish, 800 Taylor Dr. Sierra Vista, AZ 85635, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of Arizona... (here state the amount of money or description of the property willed).

DID YOU KNOW....

that our church bells have been ringing out across our neighborhood for almost 20 years? The original church bell of St. Andrew's found a home in the bell tower of Our Lady of the Mountains Church – a very interesting story – and for a number of years we were without church bells. When the 'new church' (20 years old next year!) was built, the Knights of Columbus donated the money to build the imposing belltower, called the "Ave Maria Tower" to honor our Blessed Mother. And many contributed to the purchase of the bell carillon that calls us to prayer and announces the "Angelus" and the "Hour of Great Mercy" (3:00 PM) each day!

There are merry bells for weddings, and somber bells for funerals, and insistent bells that remind us that Mass will begin in five minutes! When church bells ring across a town, they lay claim to it, like the sprinkling of holy water. Such a claim can be literal: a Cockney, for example, is anyone living within the sound of the bells of St. Mary-le-Bow Church in London's Cheapside. The sound of the bell marks its audience, whoever it might be. Many of our neighbors have told us how much they appreciate living within the sound of our bells! And there is also tension – as a few (very few) have called to complain about the sound of our bells, which is why we're thoughtful about the times of day that they are rung. Church bells are an expression of faith for some but also an 'imposition' of that faith on someone else. The distinction might not matter much to most of us, but to those who think carefully about the matter – particularly those who see religion as a threat – the distinction is glaring. It is why the French Revolutionaries banned the church bells. So did the Mexican Revolutionaries in 1910 and the Spanish Republicans in 1931.

The American answer has always been to protect the bell. The First Amendment may prohibit the establishment of religion, but in protecting the free expression of religion, it means that the public square might be awash in the clanging of bells – and along with them – "calls to prayer". The resulting cacophony might lack the dry order of the laicized French boulevard, but it has a certain energy all its own, some hidden ingredient in America's success in the protecting of the free expression of religion.

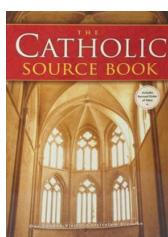

Think about that the next time you hear the bells of St. Andrew's!

Our Father Bob Gonzales leaves this week for his six-week stay in Bavaria, where he will fill in for a Parish Priest and share his gifts with parishioners in Vatersdorf.

He hopes to visit Segno in northern Italy, the birthplace of Padre Eusebio Kino, the "Apostle of Arizona" – returning the courtesy of the visit of Lady Mayor of Segno, the Chini Family (Padre Kino's family), and delegates last year to Sierra Vista and Tucson.

We are so pleased that Father Bob will be our ambassador to Segno and a 'missionary' in Germany!

CATHOLIC QUIZ: This week's Question: "Why do images of St. Joseph frequently depict him carrying a flowering staff?"

The answer to last week's Question: "What is the 'Holy House of Loreto'?" This is the 'Santa Casa', purportedly part of the Nazareth house of Mary, around which the town of Loreto, Italy, grew. The tradition is that around 1290 the Holy House was carried by the angels from Nazareth to Fiume, Italy, then to property near Ancona on the Italy's Adriatic Coast. Archaeological investigation confirms that the material and size of the chapel conforms to an area in front of the Grotto of the Annunciation under the Basilica in Nazareth. In the chapel there are bas-reliefs of episodes in Mary's life and an image of the Virgin, reputedly carved by St. Luke. Enormously popular as a pilgrimage site, especially when the Moslem Turks made access to the Holy Land very difficult, the 'Holy House of Loreto' has a very important part in the Church's historical 'memory' and devotion. The "Litany of Loreto", a very popular Marian devotion can be traced to this Shrine. Many of the Jesuit missionaries who came to the Northwest of Spain's colonial American empire were devoted to the 'Santa Casa' – the first permanent European settlement in Baja California, founded by the Jesuit Salvatierra, is 'Loreto'. (The Loretto School in Douglas is also named in honor of the 'Holy House of Loreto'!) "Our Lady of Loreto" is the Patron Saint of airline pilots!

(If you would like to be as smart as the "Quiz Master" – pick up a copy of the Catholic Source Book, available in the Parish Office, for only $15!)

SOUL FOOD:

"Let us open wide our eyes to the light that transfigures and unstop our ears to hear the sound of God's voice which daily calls out to us. What can be more delightful than to hear the Lord's voice inviting us?"

- St. Benedict (480-547)

Book: Hope: The Autobiography by Pope Francis
Tuesday, August 26th, 2025, from 7:00-8:00 PM
Parish Library

NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER • Pope Francis originally intended this exceptional memoir to appear only after his death, but the needs of our times and the 2025 Jubilee Year of Hope moved him to make this precious legacy available sooner. Now, the book stands as his testament: the spiritual, faith-filled, as well as moral, social, and civic legacy that he envisioned and left for the benefit of all the men and women of the world.

Hope is the first autobiography in history ever to be published by a pope. Written over six years, this complete autobiography starts in the early years of the twentieth century, with Pope Francis's Italian roots and his ancestors' courageous migration to Latin America, continuing through his childhood, the enthusiasms and pre-occupations of his youth, his vocation, adult life, and the whole of his papacy up to the present day.

Hope includes a wealth of revelations, anecdotes, and illuminating thoughts. It is a thrilling and very human memoir, moving and sometimes funny, which represents the "story of a life" and, at the same time, a touching moral and spiritual testament that will fascinate readers throughout the world and will be Pope Francis's legacy of hope for future generations.

The book is enhanced by remarkable photographs, including private and unpublished material made personally available by Pope Francis himself. (Excerpted from Amazon.com)
Participants purchase their own book or check it out from a library.
