Welcome to St. Andrew the Apostle Parish

With open hearts we welcome all who have come to the house of the Lord. If you are new to the parish, please take time to stop by the office and register. Once registered, this implies that you will participate with our faith community at Sunday Liturgy and return to the Lord by sharing your time, talent, and treasure with His Church.

*Thank You
For Your Will to Give*

Your gift will support our life of prayer, and our prayer will be the gift we offer in return to support you and your loved ones.

FORM OF BEQUEST FOR A WILL:

I give, devise, and bequeath to Saint Andrew the Apostle Parish, 800 Taylor Dr. Sierra Vista, AZ 85635, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of Arizona... (here state the amount of money or description of the property willed).

DID YOU KNOW....

that this Sunday marks the 380th birthday of Padre Eusebio Kino, the “Apostle of the Pimeria Alta”? The “Pimeria Alta” was the vast area of northern Sonora and southern Arizona, largely unknown to Europeans, since the Coronado Expedition passed through here in 1540.

Padre Kino’s singular and pioneering impact on the history of Arizona, especially in light of his well attested efforts at building bridges of understanding between the Native Peoples and the European settlers in our region, has had a continuing influence on our area’s culture.

A zealous missionary-explorer and cartographer, Padre Kino literally put Arizona on the map.

A pioneer cattleman, and an ‘agricultural agent’ who introduced European/Mexican fruits and vegetables to the Sonoran Desert Peoples, he famously introduced winter wheat, which broke the ‘feast-famine’ cycle of the Desert Peoples. Above all, he was a tireless defender of the dignity and rights of the Native Americans, who welcomed him and the message of the Gospel into their villages.

At the dedication of the statue of Padre Kino, as one of the ‘representatives of Arizona’ in Washington D.C.’s Hall of Statuary in 1965, Senator Carl Hayden, in his speech accepting the statue, said: “Here then we have a fortunate glance at the Arizona of nearly three centuries ago and of the man who first made it known to the civilized world – a kindly man of extraordinary intellect, unwavering in purpose and possessed of faith that inspired faith in others.”

In accepting this statute for Americans everywhere, I thank God for blessing this country of ours with men like Father Kino. They are our everlasting heritage.”

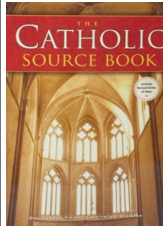

In July 2023, Pope Francis acknowledged to holiness of Padre Kino, declaring him “Venerable” - the next step toward Canonization!

We have our own statue of Padre Kino, holding his astrolabe with which he charted the skies and mapped the desert, on the south façade of the church, and there is a stained-glass window of the “Padre on Horseback” in KINO Hall! A mural of Padre Kino greeting his friend, Chief Coro of the Sobaipuri People, on the banks of the San Pedro in August 1692, graces the Knights of Columbus’ Columbian Hall!

In many ways, “the Apostle on Horseback” has been ‘popularly canonized’ and his name is attached to many public and religious buildings throughout southern Arizona and northern Sonora. We continue to pray for miracles and that his Cause for Canonization will move speedily!

Our Father Robert Gonzalez, is hoping to visit Padre Kino’s birthplace – in Segno in the Italian Alps, near Trent – during his stay in Europe this month!

When visiting the Diocesan Pastoral Center in Tucson, be sure and enjoy the new display honoring Padre Kino, which will be opened this Sunday afternoon – thanks to the efforts of your Parish Staff here at St. Andrew’s!

CATHOLIC QUIZ:

This week’s Question: “What is the ‘Falling Asleep of the Mother of God’?” The answer to last week’s Question: “Did St. Joseph have another wife?” An ancient tradition, which is accepted by the Eastern Orthodox Churches as authoritative, says that Joseph was an elderly widower with a grown-up family of sons and daughters when he became engaged to Mary. This account appears in the second-century apocryphal gospel – the Protoevangelium of James. This source was quoted by the early Christian theologian Origen, as well as the Church Father, St. Clement of Alexandria, and the early Christian apologist and martyr, St. Justin. On the basis of this tradition, the Scriptural references to the “brothers and sisters of the Lord,” would then refer to the children from St. Joseph’s first marriage, who would be the stepchildren of Mary. In Christian art St. Joseph was usually depicted as elderly, based on this tradition, that he was an older widower. In the Gospels it is implied that St. Joseph was already dead before JESUS began His Public Ministry.

(If you would like to be as smart as the “Quiz Master” – pick up a copy of the Catholic Source Book, available in the Parish Office, for only $15!)

SOUL FOOD: “We spoke to the Natives of the Word of God, and on a map of the world showed them the lands, rivers, and the seas over which we Fathers had come from afar to bring them the saving knowledge of our Holy Faith. . .and they listened with pleasure to these and other talks concerning God. . .”

(San Xavier del Bac, 1692) - Venerable Padre Eusebio Kino, SJ (1645-1711)

Sunday's Readings

First Reading:

The night of the passover was known beforehand
to our fathers,
that, with sure knowledge of the oaths in which they
put their faith,
they might have courage. (Wis 18:6-7)

Psalm:

Blessed the people the Lord has chosen to be his own. (Ps 33)

Second Reading:

Faith is the realization of what is hoped for and evidence of things not seen. (Heb 11:1)

Gospel:

Much will be required of the person entrusted with much,
and still more will be demanded of the person entrusted with more." (Lk 12:48)

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

We are the servants and God is our master.
He has told us His will, and given us all that we need to carry out His directions. Do we have the courage to act as our master desires? Do we have what it takes to be stewards of God's grace?

Regarding our Live-Stream Masses:

We have been so blessed since the start of the pandemic in March 2020 to offer a live stream of our daily and weekend Masses.

Lately the stream has experienced interruptions for a variety of reasons. Our technology folks work long and hard behind the scenes to resolve these issues.

The Parish is in the process of both upgrading our in-house equipment as well as changing to a different internet service provider. We hope to have all new systems in place by mid September. In the meantime, we ask for your patience.

Thank you!
