28TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus said in reply, "Ten were cleansed, were they not?
Where are the other nine? Has none but this foreigner returned to give thanks to God?" Then he said to him,
"Stand up and go; your faith has saved you." - Lk 17:17-19

28th Sunday in Ordinary Time: Gratitude Saves Us

“Jesus said in reply, ‘Ten were cleansed, were they not? Where are the other nine? Has none but this foreigner returned to give thanks to God?’ Then he said to him, ‘Stand up and go; your faith has saved you.’”

(Lk 9:59-60)

Jesus wants to cure us from the worst evil: sin. Sin manifests itself in many ways, although all of them can be summed up into one: an offense against God and neighbor. We sin by not loving. If we were to look for the roots of sin, we would notice that there is one that is always present: ingratitude. Ingratitude is inescapably linked to pride because the more important we think we are, the more ungrateful we become, and the more we are convinced that we actually deserve to be given everything by others. And when we think so, we are simply limiting ourselves to fulfilling our duty.

Anyone who is aware of his own qualities, his own shortcomings, and his own sinfulness, will realize how much he owes God and will re-establish his relationship with the Lord as soon as possible. On the other hand, anyone who is not grateful to God, who is not aware of how much he has received, will not even feel remorse when he turns away from the Lord. He will not yearn to return to the Father’s house.

If we grow in gratitude, we will be in a better position not to separate ourselves from Christ. And in case we have become estranged from Him, we will be willing to reconcile with Him again as soon as possible. From this perspective, we can affirm that gratitude saves us because, when we are thankful, we do not sin; or if we sin, we immediately ask the Lord for forgiveness. We promise Him that, when we are reconciled with Him, we will be filled with even more gratitude because the Lord has shown mercy on us and because He has not dealt with us as our sins deserve.

ASPIRATIONS:

Meditate on reasons for thanking God. Do what you should do, especially when it is difficult, out of gratitude to Him.

Fr. Santiago Martin
Founder & President of the Franciscans of Mary

Domingo XXVIII: La gratitud nos salva

“Jesús tomó la palabra y dijo: ‘¿No han quedado limpios los diez?; los otros nueve, ¿dónde están? ¿No ha vuelto más que este extranjero para dar gloria a Dios?’. Y le dijo: ‘¡Levántate, vete; tu fe te ha salvado!’”

(Lc 17, 11-19).

Jesús quiere curarnos del peor de los males, que es el pecado. El pecado se manifiesta de muchas formas, aunque todas ellas se resumen en una: ofensa a Dios y al prójimo. Se peca porque no se ama y al no amar se peca. Pero si buscáramos las raíces del pecado, veríamos que hay una que se presenta siempre: la ingratitude. Una ingratitude que está ligada de forma ineludible a la soberbia, pues somos tanto más desagradecidos cuanto más importantes nos creemos y, por lo tanto, cuanto más estamos convencidos de que merecemos que nos lo den todo y que, cuando lo hacen, están limitándose a cumplir su obligación. La persona que es consciente de su realidad, de sus cualidades y defectos, y, por lo tanto, es consciente de lo mucho que le debe a Dios, aunque peque, vuelve lo antes posible a reanudar las relaciones rotas con el Señor. En cambio, el que no siente gratitud hacia Dios, el que no es consciente de lo mucho que ha recibido, cuando se aleja del Señor ni siquiera siente remordimientos y por eso no anhela volver a la casa del Padre. Si adquirimos gratitud, estaremos en mejores condiciones para no separarnos de Cristo. Y si lo hacemos, estaremos deseando volver a reconciliarnos con Él cuanto antes, en caso de que nos hayamos ido de su lado. Podemos afirmar, desde esta perspectiva, que la gratitud nos salva, porque al agradecer no pecamos o, si pecamos, enseguida pedimos perdón al Señor y le prometemos que vamos a estar a su lado, más llenos de gratitud si cabe, porque ha tenido misericordia de nosotros y no nos ha tratado como merecen nuestros pecados.

Propósito:

Meditar sobre los motivos de agradecimiento a Dios y hacer las cosas, especialmente las que nos cuesten, por agradecimiento a Él.

P. Santiago Martín
Fundador & Presidente de los Franciscanos de María

OCIA Adult Faith Formation

"...there came a great earthquake; the sun became black as sackcloth, the full moon became like blood, and the stars of the sky fell to the earth as...The sky vanished like a scroll rolling itself up, and every mountain and island was removed from its place." The Apostle Saint John

When your "stars of the sky fall to earth" will you be a saint? This week we will be discussing Eschatology: The Last Things in our thirteenth session of OCIA, the process through which adults are received into full communion with the Church, on Sunday, 19th of October 2025.

Are you a non-Catholic, or a Catholic who has never received the sacrament of confirmation and seek full communion with the Catholic Church? Or are you a Curious Catholic who wishes to deepen your faith? Join us at OCIA (Adult faith formation) as we journey toward full communion with the Catholic Church. If you are interested in joining us, or know someone who may be, please contact Dr. Philip Eulie OCIA Leader by emailing him at OCIA-English@SJVParish.com or call or text (916) 318-9815.
