PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

Devoted to Jesus Christ as disciples, we help others become disciples, and work to renew our culture.

OUR VISION

That all who experience St. John Vianney Parish in any way, find Christ irresistible.

Word of Life

18th Sunday in Ordinary Time: Servant of the Poor

“Then he said to the crowd, ‘Take care to guard against all greed, for though one may be rich, one’s life does not consist of possessions.’ Then he told them a parable. ‘There was a rich man whose land produced a bountiful harvest... But God said to him, ‘You fool, this night your life will be demanded of you; and the things you have prepared, to whom will they belong?’” (Lk 12:14-21)

We must renew our faith in Eternal Life. It is a very important truth, one of the key points of our religion. It alone gives us the true measure of things and helps us to relativize so many problems to which we give excessive importance. It is with this eternal dimension that we can confront our present difficulties, without losing peace and hope. Everything in this world will pass away; however, the world to come, eternity with God, will never pass away. With this perspective, we must also be charitable to our neighbor in need.

Although the first reason for our love of God and neighbor is gratitude to the Lord, Who has loved us so much, we must not forget the other reason, which the Lord reminds us of in this Sunday’s parable: the reward for good works. Christ warns us that there is a hereafter, crossing through the narrow door of death, in which we will be judged by the love we have had in our earthly life. If we had that measure, that judgment, before us, we would not hesitate to serve the poor, because we would consider it a magnificent investment in our future, an investment that will provide us with the highest interest rates just when we need it the most.

Therefore, first out of gratitude, and second in order to receive from God the gift of Eternal Life, let’s take care to guard against all kinds of greed. It is obvious that we have material needs and that it is advisable to be prudent and to save for possible future bad times. But do we have to save so much, while others can’t even make it to tomorrow?

ASPIRATIONS: Demonstrate your gratitude to God with good works. Give generously of your time or money to those in need.

Fr. Santiago Martin

Founder & President of the Franciscans of Mary

Palabra de Vida

Domingo XVIII: Servidor de los pobres

“Guardaos de toda clase de codicia. Pues, aunque uno ande sobrado, su vida no depende de sus bienes. Y les contó una parábola: ‘Un hombre rico tuvo una gran cosecha... Pero Dios le dijo: Necio, esta noche te van a exigir la vida. Lo que has acumulado, ¿de quién será?’”. (Lc 12, 14-21).

Necesitamos renovar nuestra fe en la vida eterna. Es una verdad importantísima, una de las claves de nuestra religión. Sólo ella nos da la verdadera medida de las cosas y nos ayuda a relativizar tantos problemas a los que damos excesiva importancia. Es con esta dimensión eterna con la que podemos afrontar las dificultades del presente, sin perder la paz y la esperanza. Todo pasa en este mundo, pero en cambio el mundo venidero, la eternidad con Dios, no pasa nunca. Con esta perspectiva debemos afrontar también la caridad con el prójimo necesitado. Aunque el primer motivo de nuestro amor a Dios y al prójimo sea la gratitud hacia el Señor, que tanto nos ha amado, no hay que olvidar otro, que el Señor nos recuerda en la parábola de este domingo: el premio por las buenas obras. Cristo nos advierte de que hay un “más allá”, cruzando la estrecha puerta de la muerte, en el que seremos juzgados por el amor que hayamos tenido en esta tierra. Si tuviéramos delante esa medida, ese juicio, no dudaríamos en servir a los pobres, pues lo consideraríamos una magnífica inversión de cara al futuro, una inversión que nos va a proporcionar los más elevados intereses justo cuando más los necesitaremos. Por lo tanto, primero por agradecimiento y en segundo lugar para poder recibir de Dios el regalo de la vida eterna, guardémonos de toda clase de codicia. Está claro que tenemos necesidades materiales y que es aconsejable ser prudente y guardar para posibles malas épocas. Pero ¿hay que guardar tanto, mientras otros no pueden ni siquiera llegar al día de mañana?

Propósito: Demostrarle a Dios nuestra gratitud con las buenas obras, dándole a los que lo necesitan y con generosidad nuestro tiempo o nuestro dinero.

P. Santiago Martín

Fundador & Presidente de los Franciscanos de María

OCIA Adult Faith Formation

"I am trying here to prevent anyone saying...about Him [that is, Christ]: 'I'm ready to accept Jesus as a great moral teacher, but I don't accept His claim to be God.' ...A man who was merely a man and said the sort of things Jesus said would not be a great moral teacher. He would either be a lunatic...or else he would be the Devil of Hell. You must make your choice. Either this man was, and is, the Son of God: or else a madman or something worse....He has not left that open to us. He did not intend to." - Lewis' Trilemma — C.S. Lewis in Mere Christianity
We will be discussing "Who is Jesus" in our fifth session of OCIA, the process through which adults are received into full communion with the Church, on Sunday, 10th of August 2025.

Are you a non-Catholic, or a Catholic who has never received the sacrament of confirmation and seek full communion with the Catholic Church? Or are you a Curious Catholic who wishes to deepen your faith? Join us at OCIA (Adult faith formation) as we journey toward full communion with the Catholic Church. If you are interested in joining us, or know someone who may be, please contact Dr. Philip Eulie OCIA Leader by emailing him at OCIA-English@SJVParish.com.

CELEBRATION OF SAINT JOHN VIANNEY

Tomorrow our Church, Parish School and faith community will celebrate the great feast of Saint John Vianney. He is the Patron Saint of our parish. For his great love and dedication to his priestly duties he is also the patron of the diocesan and parish priests. Our Atrium named after him is very blessed under his protection. In the atrium we want to love God as much as St. John Vianney loved Him. With him we want to say to God, "I love You, Lord and the only grace I ask is to love You eternally." Thank You Lord for giving us St. John Marie Vianney.
