Word of Life

21st Sunday in Ordinary Time: Be the First to Act

“Strive to enter through the narrow door... And people will come from the east and the west and from the north and the south and will recline at table in the kingdom of God. For behold, some are last who will be first, and some are first who will be last.” (Lk 13:22-30)

Christ speaks of a narrow door in the Gospel this week, and urges us to enter through it. This is the door of love. A love that, at times, consists in living chastely, at other times, by being obedient, or by living austerely in the face of the temptations of consumerism, or by forgiving, or by enduring humiliation silently, or by defending clearly and loudly the innocent. Love has thousands of facets, each for the right moment. If we remain silent when we should speak, or if we speak when we should keep silent, it is a failure to love. That being said, love is the narrow, difficult door through which we must enter in order to imitate Christ and, therefore, to enter the Kingdom with Him.

But that is not sufficient. The “Word of Life” for this week hints at something else. It invites us to something else. It asks us to be the first to love, to not wait for others to do the things that need to be done, to speak up and defend those who suffer injustice, and to help the hungry with their alms. We must do so not out of pride, but out of gratitude. If Christ needs us, we cannot delay our response. We must hurry to give Him what He expects from us. It is not about pride, but about gratitude. Frequently, when we realize that something needs to be done, and do not do it, it is left undone. So if we do not make the first move, it is very possible that no one will feel motivated enough and so what needed to be done will remain undone, and everyone will pay the consequences.

ASPIRATIONS: When you realize that something needs to be done, do it. Do not wait for others to do it. Love is a blessing, and only by going through the door of love will you enter Heaven.

Fr. Santiago Martin
Founder & President of the Franciscans of Mary

Palabra de Vida

Domingo XXI: Ser los primeros

“Jesús les dijo: Esforzaos en entrar por la puerta estrecha... Y vendrán de Oriente y Occidente, del Norte y del Sur, y se sentarán a la mesa en el Reino de Dios. Mirad, hay últimos que serán primeros y primeros que serán últimos”. (Lc 13, 22-30).

Cristo habla, en el Evangelio de esta semana, de una puerta estrecha, y nos insta a cruzarla, a pasar por ella. Esa puerta es la del amor. Un amor que a veces consiste en vivir la castidad, otras en obedecer, otras en mantener la austeridad frente a las tentaciones del consumismo, otras en perdonar, otras en aguantar en silencio una humillación, otras en hablar claro y alto para defender al inocente. El amor tienes mil facetas, cada una para el momento adecuado, de forma que si se calla cuando hay que hablar o si se habla cuando hay que guardar silencio, se falta al amor. Pues bien, el amor es la puerta estrecha y difícil que debemos cruzar para seguir e imitar a Cristo y, por consiguiente, para entrar con Él en el Reino.

Pero no basta con eso. La palabra de vida de esta semana nos sugiere algo más, nos invita a algo más. Nos pide que seamos los primeros en amar, que no esperemos a que otros hagan las cosas, hablen para defender al que sufre la injusticia o ayuden con su limosna al que pasa hambre. Tenemos que hacerlo no por soberbia, sino por agradecimiento. Si Cristo nos necesita -y nos necesita en el Sagrario y en el prójimo-, no podemos estar dilatando la respuesta, sino que debemos correr a darle lo que él espera de nosotros. No se trata, pues, de soberbia, sino de gratitud. Además, con frecuencia se comprueba que cuando alguien que se ha dado cuenta de que hay que hacer algo no lo hace, eso se queda sin hacer. Si no damos nosotros el primer paso, es muy posible que nadie se anime y lo que había que hacer permanece sin hacer, pagando todos las consecuencias.

Propósito: Cuando nos damos cuenta de que hay que hacer algo, hacerlo sin esperar a que sea otro el que lo haga. Amar es una suerte y que sólo pasando por la puerta del amor entraremos en el cielo.

P. Santiago Martín
Fundador & Presidente de los Franciscanos de María

OCIA Adult Faith Formation

"The Apostle Saint Paul told the Church at Thessalonica to "Pray without ceasing" (Thessalonians 5:17) in preparation for Christ's second coming. To Pope Benedict XVI this meant, "...never losing contact with God, letting ourselves be constantly touched by him in the depths of our hearts and, in this way, being penetrated by his light."

We will be discussing Catholic Prayers and Practices in our eighth session of OCIA, the process through which adults are received into full communion with the Church, on Sunday the 31st of August 2025.

Are you a non-Catholic, or a Catholic who has never received the sacrament of confirmation and seek full communion with the Catholic Church? Or are you a Curious Catholic who wishes to deepen your faith? Join us at OCIA (Adult faith formation) as we journey toward full communion with the Catholic Church. If you are interested in joining us, or know someone who may be, please contact Dr. Philip Eulie OCIA Leader by emailing him at OCIA-English@SJVParish.com or call or text (916) 318-9815.

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd

WELCOME BACK WITH A BLESSING

This year we are starting with a big blessing from our Dear Pastor, Fr. Antonio. Our first session will start at 3:30 pm. Parents, children, and staff will be receiving Fr. Antonio's blessing. The first session is short. After the blessing we will have a procession that ends with the decoration of our prayer table. Every year before the procession, we put a Pothos plant to make our atrium more beautiful. We listen to a Holy Bible reading and sing many songs because we are happy to be back together in the Atrium. We are thankful for the vacation we had, but happier to be back in the Atrium visiting with our Good Shepherd. Please pray for us to get closer to our Lord.
