20TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"There is a baptism with which I must be baptized, and how great is my anguish until it is accomplished! Do you think that I have come to establish peace on the earth? No, I tell you, but rather division. From now on a household of five will be divided, three against two and two against three." - Lk 12:50-52

Word of Life

20th Sunday in Ordinary Time: The Worst Evil Is Indifference

“I have come to set the earth on fire, and how I wish it were already blazing! There is a baptism with which I must be baptized, and how great is my anguish until it is accomplished!” (Lk 12:49-50)

The “Word of Life” for this week invites us not to forget that tremendous phrase from the Book of Revelation, when the Lord’s envoy is addressing the ancient Churches and tells one of them that “it is neither cold nor hot,” adding that those who are similar, the lukewarm, God spits out of His mouth. Perhaps the worst isn’t having defects but rather not having virtues. This is the worst sin. The ideal, certainly, is to be irreproachable. But, while we try to attain perfection, let’s not forget that perfection will exist only when there are many good deeds in our hands and not when there are no bad deeds in them. Indeed, the worst evil is indifference. Unfortunately, it is also the most frequent among “good Christians.”

Naturally, rejecting indifference does not imply an obligation for us to solve all the problems of the world. We are not that great. But it does oblige us to do what we can, however little that may be. That is the only thing that God expects from us—that we do what we can do and do it well. Unfortunately, Catholics often seem sleepy, passive, or indifferent, even with regards to the very crisis in which the Church is immersed, while members of other denominations or sects are extremely diligent and full of enthusiasm. From the spiritual perspective of gratitude, we must share the Lord’s sentiments and desire that the world might know and love Him, that men might realize the greatness of His Divine Love and dedicate themselves to thanking Him, with works of love toward others for what they have received from Him.

ASPIRATIONS: I Do all you can to help others. Especially, comply with your apostolate duties. Convey to others a love for God.

Fr. Santiago Martin
Founder & President of the Franciscans of Mary

Palabra de Vida

Domingo XX: El peor mal: la indiferencia

“He venido a prender fuego en el mundo; ¡y ojalá estuviera ya ardiendo! Tengo que pasar por un bautismo, y qué angustia hasta que se cumpla” (Lc 12, 49-50).

La “palabra de vida” de esta semana nos invita a no olvidar aquella frase tremenda del Apocalipsis, cuando el enviado del Señor se está dirigiendo a las antiguas Iglesias y le dice a una de ellas que “no es ni carne ni pecado”, añadiendo que a los que son como ella, a los tibios, Dios les vomita. Lo peor, quizá, no es tener defectos, sino no tener virtudes. Ese es el peor pecado. Lo ideal sería, ciertamente, ser irreproachable. Pero, mientras intentamos alcanzar la perfección, no olvidemos que esa perfección sólo existirá cuando se tengan muchas obras buenas en las manos y no sólo cuando no existan en ellas obras malas. No en vano, el peor mal es el de la indiferencia. Es, por desgracia, el más frecuente entre los “buenos cristianos”.

Naturalmente que, el rechazo a la indiferencia no nos supone la obligación de convertirnos en los solucionadores de todos los problemas del mundo. No somos tan grandes. Pero sí nos obliga a hacer lo que podamos, por poco que sea. Eso es lo único que espera Dios de nosotros, que hagamos bien lo que podemos hacer. Por desgracia, los católicos parecen con frecuencia adormilados, pasivos, indiferentes incluso a la propia crisis en que está sumergida la Iglesia, mientras que miembros de otras confesiones o sectas se muestran enormemente diligentes y llenos de entusiasmo. Desde la perspectiva espiritual del agradecimiento, debemos compartir los sentimientos del Señor y desear, nosotros también, que el mundo le conozca y le ame, que los hombres se den cuenta de la grandeza del amor divino y que se dediquen a agradecerle con obras de amor al prójimo lo que de él han recibido.

Propósito: Hacer todo lo que puedo hacer por ayudar al prójimo. Muy en especial, atender los deberes del apostolado, transmitiendo a otros el amor a Dios.

P. Santiago Martín
Fundador & Presidente de los Franciscanos de María

OCIA Adult Faith Formation

"I pray because I have a deep sense of need and a deep sense of gratitude." — CS Lewis

"If we have abandoned ourselves to God, there is only one rule for us: the duty of the present moment." — Jean-Pierre de Caussade, Abandonment to Divine Providence

We will be discussing Your Prayer Life in our seventh session of OCIA, the process through which adults are received into full communion with the Church, on Sunday, the 24th of August 2025.

Are you a non-Catholic, or a Catholic who has never received the sacrament of confirmation and seek full communion with the Catholic Church? Or are you a Curious Catholic who wishes to deepen your faith? Join us at OCIA (Adult faith formation) as we journey toward full communion with the Catholic Church. If you are interested in joining us, or know someone who may be, please contact Dr. Philip Eulie OCIA Leader by emailing him at OCIA-English@SJVParish.com or call or text (916) 318-9815.

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd

EXTRAORDINARY ADDITIONS

The CGS is very proud to announce the cooperation of our Saint John Vianney Elementary School this coming 2025-2026 School Year. Full support to our Catechesis was given by Mrs. Amy Hale, the school Principal this year. We feel very blessed having the 7 & 8 grade students set up the atrium for the entire year. We want to call these students "Support Angels" since they are resolving an important need of our Catechesis. Blessed be our school for its cooperation and help! Together we're serving our God.
