4TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“Blessed are they who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are you when they insult you and persecute you and utter every kind of evil against you falsely because of me. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven.” - Mt 5:10-12a

4th Sunday in Ordinary Time: Christian Joy

"Blessed are they who mourn, for they will be comforted." (Mt 5: 4)

The account of the beatitudes is considered as the moral project of Christianity. Although it is summed up in a single commandment, just as Christ taught at the Last Supper, the commandment of love, a new and original kind of commandment. It is no longer a matter of not doing evil, but, above all, of doing good. And to do good, we must be generous with our money, which makes us a little poorer as it makes those we help a little less poor. To do good, we must fulfill our obligations, even if this entails shedding some tears. To do good, we must defend the cause of justice, and as a result, be on the side of those who suffer injustices, even if we are included among those who are persecuted for doing so. To do good, we must work for peace, by eliminating tension from violent situations, even though this might make life difficult for us and we run the risk of being attacked by the two parties in conflict. To do good, we must forgive even if it is not reciprocated.

We have to try to practice all the beatitudes, but at least, we should begin with one, the one that is easiest for us to practice, and become a specialist in it, without ignoring the others. Be peaceful. Be generous. Be humble. Be chaste. Be honest. And we will be happy, as Christ promises.

ASPIRATIONS:

Choose the virtue that is easiest for you to practice. Live it to the fullest. Become a specialist in it. And then, choose another one.

Fr. Santiago Martin, FM
Founder & President of the Franciscans of Mary

Domingo IV: La alegría cristiana

"Dichosos los que lloran porque ellos serán consolados" (Mt 5, 5)

El relato de las bienaventuranzas es considerado como el proyecto moral del cristianismo. Aunque éste se resume en un único mandamiento, tal y como enseñó Cristo en la Última Cena, el mandamiento del amor, se desglosa en un nuevo y original tipo de mandamientos. Ya no se trata de no hacer el mal, sino sobre todo de hacer el bien. Y para hacer el bien tenemos que ser generosos con nuestro dinero, lo cual nos hace un poco más pobres a la par que hace a los que ayudamos un poco menos pobres. Para hacer el bien tenemos que cumplir con nuestras obligaciones, aunque eso nos suponga derramar alguna lágrima. Para hacer el bien tenemos que defender la causa de la justicia y, como consecuencia, estar al lado de los que sufren las injusticias, aunque nos incluyan a nosotros entre los perseguidos. Para hacer el bien debemos trabajar por la paz, quitando hierro a las situaciones de violencia, aunque eso nos complique la vida y corramos el riesgo de que nos ataquen las dos partes en conflicto. Para hacer el bien tenemos que perdonar, incluso aunque no recibamos de la otra parte un trato semejante.

Hay que intentar practicar todas las bienaventuranzas, pero, al menos, convendría por empezar por una – por la que sea más fácil para uno mismo- y especializarse en ella, sin que eso suponga olvidar las demás. Sé pacífico. Sé generoso. Sé humilde. Sé prudente. Sé casto. Sé honrado. Y serás feliz, como promete Cristo.

Propósito:

Elige la virtud que te resulte más sencilla. Vívela a fondo. Conviértete en un especialista de ella. Y luego ve a por otra.

P. Santiago Martín, FM
Fundador & Presidente de los Franciscanos de María
