5th Sunday in Ordinary Time: Light Even for Those Who Do Not Want to See

"You are the light of the world. A city set on a mountain cannot be hidden." (Mt 5: 14)

We are not all called to become messengers of God's love through the proclamation of the word, maybe because we are not great speakers or it is not our vocation. But, we are all called to preach God's love through our life and our good deeds. To do so, it is not necessary to do great things. It is enough to fulfill our duties well, which most of the time will consist in carrying out small, insignificant and routine acts. This way, our testimony will be a light for our neighbor, even when he does not tell us so.

Especially important will be the difficult times, the times of suffering. That's when they notice us the most. How will this Christian react when he has been offended? What will he do when he is sick or loses a loved one? How will he overcome the temptations of the flesh or those of corruption? They always observe us, especially when there are problems. Let's give, especially at those times, a testimony that serves to convince others that it's worth being a Christian, that being a Christian entails more than simply not being one, that being a Christian introduces changes in a man's life, changes that better him and make him happier.

Finally, we must also be a light for those who do not want to see because they are more comfortable in the darkness of their sin. It is not about leading them by force to the truth, to goodness. Rather, it is about standing up for the truth, lovingly but courageously. In a time as dark as ours, this is especially urgent, and it is a great work of charity, even though they may not understand it.

ASPIRATIONS:

Every day, think about doing something that is difficult for you, so that you may be consistent in your faith when others notice your behavior. Do not be silent out of cowardice.

Fr. Santiago Martin, FM
Founder & President of the Franciscans of Mary

Domingo V: Luz incluso para los que no quieren ver

"Vosotros sois la luz del mundo. No se puede ocultar una ciudad puesta en lo alto de un monte" (Mt 5, 14)

No todos estamos llamados a ser mensajeros del amor de Dios por medio de la predicación de la palabra, quizá porque no somos grandes oradores o porque esa no es nuestra vocación. Pero todos estamos llamados a predicar ese amor de Dios por medio de nuestra vida, de nuestras buenas obras. Para ello no es necesario hacer grandes cosas; basta con intentar cumplir bien nuestro deber, que en la mayor parte de los casos será llevar a cabo actos pequeños, insignificantes y rutinarios. De esta forma, nuestro testimonio será luz para el prójimo, aun cuando éste no nos lo diga.

Especialmente importante serán los momentos de dificultad, de sufrimiento. Entonces es cuando más se fijan en nosotros. ¿Cómo reaccionará este cristiano cuando le han ofendido? ¿Qué hará cuando tiene una enfermedad o cuando ha perdido a un ser querido? ¿Cómo vencerá las tentaciones de la carne, o las de la corrupción?. Nos observan siempre, sobre todo cuando hay problemas. Demos, especialmente en esos momentos, un testimonio que sirva para convencer a los demás de que ser cristiano merece la pena, de que ser cristiano no es lo mismo que no serlo, de que ser cristiano introduce cambios en la vida del hombre, cambios que le mejoran y le hacen más feliz.

Por último, también tenemos que ser luz para aquellos que no quieren ver porque están más cómodos en la oscuridad de su pecado. No se trata de llevarles a la fuerza a la verdad, a la bondad. Más bien se trata de defender la verdad, con amor pero con valentía. En una época oscura como la nuestra, esto resulta especialmente urgente y es una gran obra de caridad, aunque no lo entiendan

Propósito:

Piensa, cada día, en algo que preveas que te va a resultar difícil, para ser coherente con tu fe cuando los demás se fijan en tu comportamiento. No calles por cobardía.

P. Santiago Martín, FM
Fundador & Presidente de los Franciscanos de María
