5th Sunday of Lent: Go out

“And when he had said this, He cried out in a loud voice, “Lazarus, come out!” The dead man came out, tied hand and foot with burial bands, and his face was wrapped in a cloth. (Jn 11: 43-44)

This Sunday, so close to Holy Week, the Gospel invites us to meditate on the resurrection of Lazarus. This passage of the Gospel shows us the great humanity of Jesus and his pain at the loss of a friend. It also shows that he put himself in grave danger to help his friend. He knew that they were looking for him to kill him and that by going to Lazarus' house meant he would be in close proximity to his enemies.

When we notice that there is someone who cares about us and truly loves us, we should be filled with great joy. Moreover, we must become aware that the miracle of the resurrection of Lazarus only occurs because there is faith. This is what will happen to us. We will be saved but only if we have faith in Jesus, if we are by his side and if we believe in his grace. Thirdly, today's Gospel teaches us that miracles may happen through a “borrowed faith” (our deeds cannot be transferred, but our faith can). Christ did not ask Lazarus to have faith, for he was already dead, but he did ask Martha, his sister. We may also ask the Lord to work miracles in others, even if they do not have faith. Furthermore, this faith should be transformed into gratitude, as without doubt Martha, Mary and Lazarus himself had. Otherwise, it would not be true faith.

Lastly, Christ invites us to get out of our tomb of sin, through a resurrection that is within our reach everyday: Confession. He also encourages us to give testimony that it is Christ who has freed and saved us.

Aspirations:

Go out of your tomb, get out of your sin. If you have not gone to Confession yet, go this week. Become a witness of God's triumph through your good deeds.

Fr. Santiago Martin, FM

Founder & President of the Franciscans of Mary

5 ° domingo de Cuaresma: Salir fuera

“Y dicho esto, gritó con voz potente: ‘Lázaro, ven afuera’. El muerto salió, los pies y las manos atados con vendas, y la cara envuelta en un sudario” (Jn 11, 43-44)

Este domingo, tan próximo ya a la Semana Santa, el Evangelio nos invita a meditar acerca de la resurrección de Lázaro. Este pasaje del Evangelio nos muestra, como pocos, la gran humanidad de Jesús, su dolor ante la muerte de un amigo y también el hecho de que acudiera a ayudarlo poniéndose en peligro, pues sabía que le buscaban para matarle y que ir a casa de Lázaro era acercarse demasiado a sus enemigos.

Esta constatación nos debe llenar de alegría, al sabernos objeto del interés de alguien que de verdad nos ama. Además, debemos darnos cuenta de que el milagro de la resurrección de Lázaro sólo ocurre porque hay fe y eso mismo será lo que ocurrirá con nosotros: sólo nos salvaremos, sólo nos convertiremos, si tenemos fe en Jesús, si estamos a su lado, si creemos en su fuerza. En tercer lugar, este Evangelio nos enseña que el milagro se puede producir con una "fe prestada"; las obras no se pueden traspasar, pero sí la fe. Lázaro estaba muerto y Cristo no le pidió a él que tuviera fe, sino a su hermana. También nosotros podemos pedirle al Señor que haga milagros en los demás, aunque ellos no tengan fe en esos milagros. Además, esa fe tiene que traducirse en gratitud, como sin duda tuvieron Marta, María y el propio Lázaro, pues de lo contrario no es verdadera fe.

Por último, Cristo nos invita a salir fuera de nuestra tumba, del pecado, mediante una resurrección que está a nuestro alcance cada día: la confesión. Y a dar testimonio de que es Cristo quien nos ha liberado, quien nos ha salvado.

Propósito:

Sal fuera de tu tumba, del pecado. Si aún no te has confesado en la Cuaresma, hazlo esta semana. Y sé testigo del triunfo de Dios mediante las buenas obras.

P. Santiago Martín, FM

Fundador & Presidente de los Franciscanos de María
