WORD OF LIFE

Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity: On Earth as It Is in Heaven

“For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life.” (Jn 3: 16)

The Most Holy Trinity, the fact that there is only one God but three different persons of the same nature and dignity, is a mystery, something that we accept by faith and that reason cannot understand, which does not mean that it is “irrational.” But it is also a great gift that Jesus gave us by revealing God’s nature and divine intimacy.

The fact that God is at the same time one and triune, one and different, tells us what life is like in heaven. Living a “trinitarian life” is to live as a “family.” In other words, God is family. Love is the essence of God, and not only as a love that gives itself to strangers, but also as a love that establishes the inner relations in the divinity. Therefore, in heaven, one lives by loving, loving the one with whom the essential is shared, the divine nature, and with whom one has legitimate differences, the three different persons. If this is heaven, we should try to replicate it here on earth, for Christ taught us to pray to the Father precisely for this.

Therefore, let’s accept our legitimate differences and seek unity. In everything and always: love.

Aspiration: Seek unity, if it has been fractured, by forgiving, and asking for forgiveness. Accept any legitimate differences by respecting others as you would want them to respect you.

Fr. Santiago Martin, FM
Founder & President of the Franciscans of Mary

PALABRA DE VIDA

Santísima Trinidad: En la tierra como en el cielo

“Tanto amó Dios al mundo que entregó a su Hijo único, para que no perezca ninguno de los que creen en él, sino que tengan vida eterna”
(Jn 3, 16)

La Santísima Trinidad –el hecho de que exista un solo Dios y tres personas distintas de la misma naturaleza y dignidad- es un “misterio”, algo que aceptamos por la fe porque la razón no consigue entender, lo cual no significa que sea “irracional”. Pero es también un gran regalo que nos hizo Jesús al revelarnos cómo era Dios, la naturaleza e intimidad divina.

El hecho de que Dios sea uno y trino a la vez, uno y diferente, nos indica cuál es el modo de vivir que se tiene en el cielo. Un vivir “trinitario” es un vivir “en familia”. O dicho de otro modo: Dios es familia. El amor es la esencia de Dios, pero no sólo como amor que se da a los extraños –entre ellos a los hombres- sino también como amor que establece las relaciones internas en la divinidad. En el cielo, por lo tanto, se vive amando; amando a aquel con el que se comparte lo esencial –la naturaleza divina- y con el que hay legítimas diferencias –las tres diferentes personas-. Y si esto es así en el cielo, deberemos intentar que sea también así en la tierra, pues Cristo nos enseñó a rezar pidiéndole justamente eso al Padre.

Por lo tanto: acepta las diferencias legítimas y busca la unidad. En todo y siempre: ama.

Propósito: Busca la unidad y acepta las legítimas diferencias. Para lo primero perdona y pide perdón si la unidad se ha roto. Para lo segundo: respeta como te gusta ser respetado.

P. Santiago Martín, FM
Fundador & Presidente de los Franciscanos de María
