WORD OF LIFE

PALABRA DE VIDA

XV Sunday in Ordinary Time: Bear Fruit

"A sower went out to sow. And as he sowed, some seed fell on the path, and birds came and ate it up... But some seed fell on rich soil and produced fruit, a hundred or sixty or thirtyfold." (Mt 13: 3-9)

We do not need many explanations to understand the parable of the sower. Rather, we need to be honest in order to acknowledge that we have received the seed and that, on the other hand, it has not always borne fruit, or all the fruit that it could have produced. It is not that the seed is not good, but rather because we, the farmers, have not taken care of the soil. We have not taken advantage of God's gifts.

Maybe mediocrity is part of the human nature, but it is still a pity, a great loss. It is worth remembering those verses by José María Pemán in his work "The Divine Impatient One," as spoken by Saint Francis Xavier:

"I am more a friend of the wind, Madame,

Than of the breeze.

Good must be done quickly,

So that evil does not waste a moment."

We often complain about things that go wrong. Why do we not ask ourselves what we could do, what we have done or what we are doing so that they go well? No one will blame us for not having done the good we cannot do, but our sins of omission will be written on our account for ever and they will probably constitute the longest, darkest and heaviest part on the day of judgment.

Aspiration:

Every time you feel like complaining about something that goes bad in your job, your family or in society, think: What can I do? What have I done? What am I doing? And do it.

Fr. Santiago Martin, FM

Founder & President of the Franciscans of Mary

XV domingo: Dar fruto

"Salió el sembrador a sembrar. Al sembrar, un poco cayó al borde del camino; vinieron los pájaros y se lo comieron..... El resto cayó en tierra buena y dio grano: unos ciento, otros sesenta, otros treinta" (Mt 13, 3-9)

Con No necesitamos muchas explicaciones para entender la parábola del sembrador. Necesitamos más bien honradez para reconocer que en cada uno de nosotros se ha producido la siembra y en cambio no siempre se ha producido el fruto, o todo el fruto que podría haberse dado. Y no es porque la semilla no fuera buena, o porque no fuera bueno el campo, sino más bien porque el labrador -nosotros- no hemos cuidado el terreno, no hemos sabido sacar partido a los dones de Dios.

Quizá la mediocridad sea propia de la naturaleza humana, pero aun así es una lástima, una gran pérdida. Cabe recordar aquellos versos de José María Pemán, en "El divino impaciente", puestos en boca de San Francisco Javier:

"Soy más amigo del viento, señora,

que de la brisa.

Y hay que hacer el bien de prisa,

Que el mal no pierda momento".

Nos quejamos con frecuencia de las cosas que van mal. ¿Por qué no nos preguntamos qué podríamos hacer, qué hemos hecho o qué estamos haciendo para que vayan bien?. Nadie te culpará de no haber hecho el bien que no puedes hacer, pero tus pecados de omisión serán inscritos en tu cuenta para siempre y probablemente constituirán la parte más larga, más oscura, más pesada en el día del juicio.

Propósito:

Cada vez que tengas ganas de quejarte de algo que va mal, en tu trabajo, familia o sociedad, piensa: ¿Qué puedo hacer, qué he hecho, qué estoy haciendo? Y haz algo.

P. Santiago Martín, FM

Fundador & Presidente de los Franciscanos de María
