GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

July 5, 2026 Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time
Matthew 11:25-30

This weekend, our nation celebrates the 250th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence. Unlike most nations, the United States was not founded primarily on a shared ethnicity, language, or culture. Instead, our founders built a political community out of diverse peoples united by a shared vision of liberty. That vision echoes something deep in the Christian mystery revealed in today's Gospel.

Jesus returns to his hometown. The people see only what is familiar: the carpenter, the son of Mary, one of their own. As Mark tells us, "They took offense at him. Jesus said, 'A prophet is not without honor except in his native place and among his own kin and in his own house.'" Their narrow vision blinds them. Jesus has come to inaugurate a new communion that transcends geography, bloodlines, and culture. He has come to unite all people in himself.

At its best, America's national unity reflects this possibility, which fully subsists only in the Catholic Church. Our unity is not based on ancestry or tribe, but on a shared commitment to higher ideals. For this reason, we can love our country with gratitude while situating patriotism within the broader horizon of faith.

Rooted in Christ, we are less vulnerable to the unholy tribalism that threatens civic life and faith. This weekend, let us thank God for our nation and pray that we also live as citizens of Heaven in Jesus Christ.
- Father John Muir

Hosts with .01% Gluten are available for Holy Communion. Please see an Usher or the Priest before Mass if you wish to receive one of these.

Blessing for Our Country

Dear God,

Bless this land that we love, a land You created, in love.

We are at our best when we're close to You.

Please inspire, guide, and govern our leaders and our vision, that our greatness may be founded in and defined in You. Amen.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Can Catholics Gamble?

Question: The Bible says that Jesus condemned gambling, but I notice that so many parishes have them at festivals and other events. What's correct?

Answer: Although Jesus speaks of our relationship with material wealth and the very human struggle with greed, the gospels do not include any specific instructions related to gambling. At the same time, the Church is very sensitive to the needs of those who might struggle with an addiction to gambling, and pastoral care should always be offered to those who struggle with this reality in their life.

While it is true that many parish or school communities include gambling or games of chance in festivals and fundraisers (e.g. bingo, roulette, ring tossing, dunking booths, etc.), there is nothing inherently wrong with these sorts of events, given they are played fairly and within the limits of reason are not morally objectionable. As the Catechism of the Catholic Church reminds us: "Games of chance (card games, etc.) or wagers are not in themselves contrary to justice. They become morally unacceptable when they deprive someone of what is necessary to provide for his needs and those of others" (no. 2413).

As in all things, moderation and a sense of healthy limits should be applied to gambling and games of chance. For those who find themselves living with addiction to gambling, help is available in various 12-step and addiction recovery programs.

VIRTUES, EXPLAINED! –

CONNECT WITH TRADITION AND GROW YOUR FAITH

Empathy

The virtue of empathy describes our ability to connect emotionally with the suffering of others. It's our interior capacity to appreciate and experience other people's feelings — to the extent, even, that we allow those feelings to impact our own decisions and our own actions.

Christ had empathy for us and for our state of imprisonment in original sin. He had empathy for the suffering we endure because of our self-imposed exile from friendship with God. This empathy meant that he sacrificed himself willingly for our salvation — he wanted to do it, because he had allowed our feelings to intermingle with his own.

Since empathy flows directly from charity, the theological virtue that enables us to love God and to love others, we can use charity as a way to increase the empathy we feel. If we find ourselves struggling to muster empathy in a particular situation, engaging in charity will liberate us from our state of self-centeredness.

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC - By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman
RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

The Smallness of Great Faith

My children attend Catechesis of the Good Shepherd (CGS) for their faith formation. Because of its Montessori basis, CGS atriums, which are something like classrooms, contain lots of objects made from real materials — authentic glass, wood, and ceramic.

This is a polite way of saying there are lots of breakable things in there.

So when my four-year-old entered the atrium on her first day of CGS, my whole body tensed, wondering what she would shatter first. I had to restrain myself from crying out, "Don't touch anything!" She spotted the prayer table — the low, wooden stand which holds an open Bible, candles, a vase with flowers and a statue of the Good Shepherd. It's the centerpiece of every atrium.

She knelt before the table. She made the sign of the cross. And she sat there, still and silent. I stopped dead in my tracks. How had she known to come here? And where did she learn to make the sign of the cross? (Obviously we've tried to teach her, but she does it wrong every time!) And why was she sitting there so quietly, so expectantly, in front of a book she can't read?

A thought came to me so clearly: Well, Colleen, you can read that book. But can you understand it?

It is so easy for us to forget that great faith does not require great intelligence. It does not require great knowledge of the world and its workings. Great faith does not require the believer to possess any answers.

Great faith only requires the believer to know his own smallness.

Deacon Arthur Miller

Deacon Miller has held significant positions, including director of the now-closed Archdiocese of Hartford's Office for Black Catholic Ministries and Catholic chaplain at Hartford's Capital Community College.

He is active nationally as a preacher, spiritual director, mentor to former gang members, and worker with homeless women through Deacon Arthur Miller Ministries.

Miller emphasizes action over rhetoric in confronting racism, advocating for public engagement and community-based initiatives.

He is also a speaker, author, and media host. His 2005 book, The Journey to Chatham: Why Emmett Till's Murder Changed America, recounts his personal experiences growing up alongside Emmett Till and the ensuing civil rights struggle.

Throughout his career, he has addressed audiences across the U.S. on faith, social justice, and the principle of "Radical Love," drawing connections between historical and contemporary racial injustices.

Bishop Daniel Felton, Diocese of Duluth

We are honored to welcome Bishop Daniel Felton, who will open the conference at 9:00 am with a special address and conclude the day by celebrating Holy Mass. Join us as we gather in faith, fellowship, and prayer under his pastoral leadership.

Deacon Chad Knudson

Deacon Chad is a newly ordained Deacon for the Diocese of Duluth. He has a remarkable conversion story that is sure to inspire and encourage all who hear it. A devoted Catholic husband and father of three, he and his family are actively living out their faith each day. This is a presentation you won't want to miss.

Jim Stroet

Join us as Jim shares his inspiring story and the many blessings he has experienced through his ministry with those who are incarcerated. As the founder of the Residents Encounter Christ (REC) Program, Jim has dedicated his life to bringing hope, faith, and the love of Christ to men and women behind prison walls. His powerful testimony and firsthand experiences offer a moving look at how lives can be transformed through God's grace.
