LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

The master rewards the latecomers with the same wage as those who labored all day, upsetting the construct of who deserves what — and why. May we never seek to be the judge of what others deserve. May we labor in our vineyard with joy and gratitude.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Lateran Basilica

Question: November 9 is the feast of the Dedication of the Lateran Basilica in Rome. What is the significance of this feast?

Answer: Every diocese has a mother church, the bishop's cathedral, where the diocesan church gathers and celebrates. The cathedral is the seat of the bishop's authority over the diocese.
That authority is intended to be one of service to God's people, shepherding and guiding them in a truly pastoral mode.

The pope is first and foremost the Bishop of Rome, as well as the head of the Roman Catholic Church. St. John Lateran is his cathedral, and its prominence derives from that reality. St. John Lateran Cathedral traces its origins to Emperor Constantine, who converted a portion of the Laterani family palace into a church, and gave it to Pope Sylvester (314–335) as the papal church and residence; St. John refers to the two saints in whose honor the church is dedicated, John the Baptist and John the Evangelist. It became known as the cathedral of the pope, and its facade's inscription refers to it as "the Mother and Head of all Churches, in the City and of the World." The universal celebration of this feast emphasizes unity among Roman Catholics as they unite with the chair of Peter.

VIRTUES, EXPLAINED! –

CONNECT WITH TRADITION AND GROW YOUR FAITH

Liberality

Jesus told the rich young man that in order to be saved, he must sell all he owned and give the proceeds to the poor. This is the virtue of liberality — giving of one's resources freely and in abundance.

However, the virtue of liberality should be practiced by each person according to his state in life. The rich young man could afford to lose everything — and indeed, was too attached to his wealth. We are all called to give selflessly of what we have, but "we have gifts that differ according to the grace given to us," writes St. Paul (Romans 12:6).

Some of us have too much time and have grown idle. Some of us have too much talent and use it only to benefit ourselves. Some of us have too much wealth, and hoard it jealously. Whatever we have too much of will keep us from God. So let's practice liberality, and be generous.

Question: John F. Kennedy, the first Catholic American president and member of the Knights of Columbus, established which distinguished volunteer organization?

Answer: Peace Corps

Did you know... that when you say a prayer for the Holy Souls in Purgatory that it also blesses you. Litany for the Poor Souls in Purgatory Cards are available at the entrances to church.

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

September 20, 2026

Twenty-Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time Matthew 20:1-16

Every December, the priests of my diocese gather for a Christmas dinner with our bishop. Nearly 200 of us in one room: newly ordained and long retired, pastors of large parishes and quiet confessors, men full of energy and others moving more slowly. Some carry visible success; others bear hidden wounds. It is a tapestry of vocations and lives. When the bishop thanks us, I am always moved. For a moment, none of our differences matter. What matters is that we belong to one another.

I usually leave that evening with a deep sense of peace, but also with a sober realization. Nothing drains joy from the vineyard of the Lord faster than comparison. The quiet habit of measuring, ranking, and resenting can creep in even among those who sincerely serve God.

That is what Jesus exposes in today's parable of the workers in the vineyard. The early laborers are not upset because they were treated unjustly; they are angry because others were treated generously. Their resentment blinds them to the gift already in their hands. When the landowner asks, "Are you envious because I am generous?" he names the real wound.

This tension echoes throughout salvation history: the elder brother resenting the prodigal, the faithful servant scorning the latecomer. Jesus does not deny the labor of those who have borne the heat of the day, but he refuses to let God's mercy become a zero-sum game.

In the end, the vineyard's reward is not about fairness but belonging. The joy offered is communion with a generous Father, who delights in gathering early and late, strong and weak, into one household of grace.

You are invited to a special and historic Mass on Tuesday, September 22, at 6:30 p.m. Cathedral of Our Lady of the Rosary in Duluth.

Bishop Daniel Felton will celebrate Mass to formally open the Cause of Canonization for Monsignor Joseph Francis Buh, a missionary priest who devoted his life to serving the people of northeastern Minnesota, especially Indigenous peoples and immigrant communities.

During the Mass, those appointed to carry out the Church's investigation into Monsignor Buh's life and holiness will take their oaths. Soon after the opening of the Cause, they will begin their work of gathering testimony and historical records about his life, his reputation for holiness, and the ways people have sought his prayers.

Please join Bishop Felton and people from across the Diocese of Duluth and the State of Minnesota for this joyful and historic occasion as we give thanks to God for the life and witness of Monsignor Buh and pray for the work of his Cause of Canonization.

Most Reverend Daniel J. Felton
Bishop of Duluth

All Women are Invited for Magnificat Meal October 3rd Lisa Reichelt

Raised in Duluth, Lisa moved to the Twin Cities in the late 1970s to join a charismatic Christian community. It was there that she met her husband, Greg. Together they raised their five children in Minneapolis and Lakeville while remaining actively involved in parish life. Over the years, Lisa and Greg have been especially passionate about mentoring engaged couples and serving as presenters for the Married in Christ program. Faith and family have always been at the center of Lisa's life. As a lifelong Catholic, she is deeply grateful for the gift of faith and for the ways the Lord continues to draw her into a deeper relationship with Him through prayer, daily life, and the crosses that accompany every season. Lisa enjoys sharing her experiences of faith, marriage, family, and discipleship, encouraging others to trust in God's grace and discover His presence in the ordinary moments of life.

Ephesians 3:16-19 "I pray that out of his glorious riches he may strengthen you with power through his Spirit in your inner being, so that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith. And I pray that you, being rooted and established in love, may have power, together with all the Lord's holy people, to grasp how wide and long and high and deep is the love of Christ, and to know this love that surpasses knowledge— that you may be filled to the measure of all the fullness of God."
