ST. BRIDGET Thank You

Thank you to everyone who gathered at St. Bridget for food and fellowship as we said farewell to Father Martin and thanked him for his time, care, and service to our Cluster. It was a wonderful time of gratitude, conversation, and community.

ST. MARY Potluck - Thank You

Thank you to all who gathered at St. Mary for Mass and our potluck gathering last Wednesday. It was wonderful to come together in faith, fellowship, and gratitude with our beautiful church community.

A special thank you to the St. Mary Guild for all they did to prepare and serve. We would also like to thank them for their lovely gift of a St. Mary ornament to all parishioners.

Stay Connected

As St. Mary prepares for the loss of our weekend Mass, it is more important than ever that we stay connected as a parish family. While our regular Sunday gathering may be changing, the people of St. Mary remain a church community with deep roots, strong faith, and a shared love for this church and the community it's provided for so many years.

Please join our Facebook group, St. Mary Catholic Church, McGregor, as a way to stay informed, share memories, receive updates, and continue supporting one another in the weeks and months ahead.

Mary, Mother of the Church, hold the people of St. Mary close as we face this change with heavy hearts. Help us remain faithful, united, and rooted in love for your Son and for one another.

A NOTE FROM FATHER MARTIN

As we move forward, I would like to ask for your extra grace and patience with the transition to pastorate life. Please especially extend your grace and patience to one another and to the new priests, Fr. Joseph Sevcik (pastor), Fr. Philip Agyei, and Fr. Benjamin Valentine. This will be very important for all of you yourselves as change is not easy and can easily lead to great frustration, even over the smallest of things. Give yourself time and space to adjust (but not away from the Lord and Mass!); time and space to adjust to the new Sunday Mass locations, times, parishioners, and priests. I believe your worship of God in the Mass and building community will grow over time with your patient and grace-filled presence and cooperation.

Things are not going to happen overnight with everything running perfectly and without some details that will need to be worked out. Journey in Faith across the Archdiocese is meant to be a long-term vision for the next 30 years. The Church is often said to move in centuries, and so please extend your grace and patience to one another and to yourself in these next weeks, months, and years to come.

I am confident that the new priests will serve everyone well, not playing favorites with the Sunday Mass parishes and parishioners, but being very attentive to everyone's needs and ministering to you the best they can. Fr. Joseph, as you know, is a close friend of mine, more like a brother, and he will serve you well as he already has been with many preparations. Please pray for him and Fr. Philip and Fr. Ben. Please pray for each other and be kind and welcoming. That will go a long way during this significant change to help promote the goodness, unity, and love of God we desire and need.

I am praying for you all as we have this final week together. Thank you for your prayers.

Father Martin

JOURNEY IN FAITH

From Archbishop Zinkula

From the earliest days of Christianity, believers have been called to step beyond what was familiar in order to follow where the Lord was leading. The first disciples left their nets.

The early Church crossed cultural and geographic boundaries to share the Gospel. In every age, God has guided His people forward, inviting them to trust in His providence and embrace new opportunities for mission.. I believe He is doing the same among us today. As we begin this new chapter, I invite you to approach it with open hearts. Introduce yourself to someone new. Attend a pastorate event. Offer a smile and a warm greeting to someone from another community. These simple acts of kindness and hospitality can help foster the relationships that strengthen our pastorates and support our shared mission for years to come.

Journey
in Faith

Trust. Transform. Together.
