THE THIRD SUNDAY IN LENT

VOL. LIII NO. 11

MARCH 12, 2023

Dear Padre
March 12, 2023

I have done some really terrible things in my life. When I did them, I didn’t think anything about them, but now I feel very guilty. Can God really forgive me?

As we Redemptorists like to say, “With God there is plentiful redemption.” God’s mercy is everlasting and overflowing in its abundance. As we continue in Lent, let’s remember that Easter is the sign that God forgave even the great sin of the crucifixion of his only Son. Time and time again throughout the Scriptures, Jesus demonstrates this bountiful mercy. He forgave Zacchaeus, the tax collector. He forgave the woman caught in adultery. He was tender with the Samaritan woman we hear about in today’s Gospel. He spent his days living among and forgiving all manner of sinners. He even forgave Peter’s great denial. The Church has named a multitude of saints, but note that in 2,000 years it has never declared anyone to be definitively condemned to eternal punishment. There is hope and mercy for all.

No matter how great the sin, God will forgive it. All you have to do is ask for mercy sincerely. All that takes is a repentant heart. From the tone of your message, you are truly sorry. Find a priest with whom you are comfortable and ask him to celebrate with you the sacrament of reconciliation. If you don’t know how to go to confession, just ask. The priest will help you. Be at peace..

THOUGHTS ON LENT

"In light of your longed-for return, we choose to deny ourselves(fast) certain pleasures for this brief season, but we're not looking to get one thing from you, Jesus—just more of you." Scotty Smith

"Lent is a fitting time for self-denial, we would do well to ask ourselves what we can give up in order to help and enrich others by our own poverty. Let us not forget that real poverty hurts: no self-denial is real without this dimension of penance. I distrust a charity that costs nothing and does not hurt." Pope Francis
