THE FIFTH SUNDAY IN LENT

VOL. LIII NO. 13

MARCH 26, 2023

Dear Padre
March 26, 2023

Are Catholic religious orders dying?

Yes...and no.

In Africa and Asia, some religious orders are vibrant, with orders of men and women religious increasing in number. In the United States, Europe, and Oceania, it's a different story. As many as 300 of the 420 institutes of women religious in the US are in their final decades of existence (Leadership Conference of Women Religious, 2019). One-third of all women’s congregations in the US have fewer than fifty members. In the US, sisters over age ninety far outnumber those under sixty. Consequently, many communities fall short of the number of active ministers needed to replace their elderly and retiring members. The story is similar for many orders of religious men.

As those in religious orders struggle to remain effective in their mission and ministry for God and humanity, they are reimagining styles of leadership, levels of administration, and, in short, ways of getting the job done. This includes, for example, creative partnerships with lay people to share in the charism, community life, and ministry of the religious order.

People are still drawn to Jesus and the work of building the kingdom. Only God knows how this “building process” will look in the future. As in all challenging times, the Church remains hopeful. From crisis comes resurrection!

THOUGHTS ON LENT

Examples on Good Stewardship during Lent continued from last week: 11. Invite someone who has been away from the Church to attend Mass with you. 12. Make a gift to a charitable cause. Make it a sacrificial gift, not what’s left over. 13. Thank a Bishop, Priest or member of a religious congregation for their public witness. Invite them out for coffee or a meal. 14. Visit someone who is alone. 15. Reflect on the most pressing challenges confronting our Church and pray for a Spirit-filled response. 16. Pray the Stations of The Cross. 17. Find out if there is a person participating in your parish’s OCIA program and send them a note of encouragement. 18. Discover the ways your diocese is ministering to the poor and see how you can help. 19. Attend your parish’s Good Friday service. 20. Invite someone you know will be alone to Easter Sunday dinner.

"Lent comes providentially to awaken us, to shake us from lethargy." Pope Francis
