Dear Padre
October 22, 2023

Is it a sin to break the law? It is illegal to use fireworks in my city, but every year I do it anyway. Should I mention this in confession?

Strictly speaking, to break a government law does not automatically constitute the definition of sin, so it needn't be mentioned in the sacrament of penance. By definition, sin damages (or, with grave sin, destroys) communion with God and the Church (Catechism of the Catholic Church, 1472). Some actions may not be objectively destructive to our relationship with God and Church—and therefore are not sinful—but they may affect others. Church members are part of society, which depends on its citizens to abide by the laws. Saint Paul encouraged everyone to obey the authorities, for all authority that exists is established by God (see Romans 13:1–7).

Not all sins are equally offensive to God; similarly, not all civil laws are equal in their gravity. To knowingly travel a few miles over the posted speed limit isn't the same as intentionally starting a fire in a posted area of a forest. The danger is in thinking one's actions are without consequence. Sensible civil laws are designed to ensure the safety and well-being of citizens, and many municipalities outlaw fireworks because of the hazards they pose.

When any civil law is broken for mere self-indulgence or when breaking the law places others at risk, the act has the potential of constituting the definition of sin. In that case, it would rightfully warrant sacramental reconciliation.

OC CORNER

Opelousas Catholic gives thanks to the many grandparents who attended the recent Grandparents' Day for grades PreK-4 and to the many alumni and families who participated in last week's Homecoming festivities. We are blessed! The Grandparents' Day for grades 5-12 is set for November 30 with a Mass. More information is coming!

OC takes pride in the following students who were named "Vikings of the Month of September": Lauren St. Cyr and Jacob Goulas, grade 12; Bella Ellis and Britin Picard, grade 8; and Mali Zerangue and Harper McCauley, grade 5.

Eternal Father, we lift up to You these and all the priests of the world. Sanctify them, heal and guide them. Mold them into the likeness of Your Son, Jesus, the Eternal High Priest. May their lives be pleasing to You in Jesus' name we pray. Amen. Sunday: Rev. Paul Onuegbe; Monday: Rev. Anthony Ostini, SJ; Tuesday: Rev. Arockia Doss Palthasar, HGN; Wednesday: Rev. Paul Patin, SJ; Thursday: Rev. John Paul, SJ; Friday: Rev. John Payne, SJ; Saturday: Rev. Lt. JG Rene Pellessier.

HOLY FATHER'S OCTOBER PRAYER INTENTION

For the Synod. We pray for the Church, that she may adopt listening and dialog as a lifestyle at every level, and allow herself to be guided by the Holy Spirit towards the peripheries of the world.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR BAPTISM

Parents of this parish who wish to have their children baptized should contact Deacon Bill Pollingue at the church office at 337-942-5628 to make an appointment.

PRAYER FOR HURRICANE SEASON

O God, Master of this passing world, hear the humble voices of your children. The Sea of Galilee obeyed your order and returned to its former quietude. You are still the Master of land and sea. We live in the shadow of danger over which we have no control: the Gulf, like a provoked and angry giant, can awake from its seeming lethargy, overstep its conventional boundaries, invade our land and spread chaos and disaster.

During this hurricane season we turn to you, O Loving Father. Spare us from past tragedies whose memories are still so vivid and whose wounds seem to refuse to heal with the passing of time. O Virgin, Star of the Sea, Our Beloved Mother, we ask you to plead with your Son in our behalf, so that spared from the calamities common to this area and animated with a true spirit of gratitude, we will walk in the footsteps of your Divine Son to reach heavenly Jerusalem where a stormless eternity awaits us. Amen.

ACADIANA VETERANS HONOR GUARD

The Acadiana Veterans Honor Guard is seeking retired and military Veterans to join our organization helping us to honor any deceased Veterans. You will need to provide a DD 214 for verification. For more information please call 337-873-1526 or email at avhg@avhonorguard.com or visit our web page at avhonorguard.com. We welcome all to our mission honoring our Veterans.
