Dear Padre
November 19, 2023

My grandmother says Catholics used to fast from midnight until they received Communion. When did the fasting time change to only one hour, and why?

The ancient discipline of fasting before Communion became a universal practice by the fifth century. Until 1953, those who would receive holy Communion refrained from consuming food, water, and medicine from midnight to the time of Communion. In 1953 and 1957, Pope Pius XII reduced the fast from food to three hours and from water for one hour (Christus Dominus and Sacram Communionem).

In 1966, Pope St. Paul VI further reduced the fast to one hour and allowed water and medicine at any time (Paenitemini). In 1973, he reduced the fast for the sick and elderly to fifteen minutes before Communion when one hour is prohibitive (Immensae Caritatis).

The loosening of the restrictions was in no way intended to lessen the reverence for the holy Eucharist. The changes were made to allow as many Catholics as possible to receive the Eucharist, which can be difficult when priests are in short supply. For the same reason, Immensae Caritatis also allowed the practice of having extraordinary ministers give Communion. Despite the changes to the Communion fast, unity and uniformity have been maintained. And of course, Catholics are free to fast before Communion beyond the duration and degree currently prescribed.

HAPPY THANKSGIVING FROM THE CLERGY AND STAFF OF QUEEN OF ANGELS

OC CORNER
Students and staff will enjoy the Thanksgiving holidays this week and want to wish everyone many continued blessings at this special time of the year! Classes will resume on November 27.
To give thanks for Catholic education, please be reminded of two important giving opportunities for OCS, the Annual Angel Appeal Drive and “iGiveCatholic” Day.
For the appeal, a gift can be mailed to the OC Advancement Office at 428 East Prudhomme Street or one can make an online gift on the website (www.OCSvikings.com). These gifts will enhance our Foundation Trust Fund and campus restroom renovations.
“iGiveCatholic” is set for November 28, but we are in an advanced giving phase through November 27. Online gifts will benefit school organizations, such as Campus Ministry, BETA Clubs, National Honor Society, and more. These gifts can be made through our OC profile page at <https://lafayette.igivecatholic.org/organizations/opelousas-catholic-school>.
