Dear Padre
January 25, 2026

Why can't a Protestant receive the Eucharist at a Catholic Mass?

United by baptism, fellow Christians are our brothers and sisters in the Lord. As such, they are always welcome at Catholic Mass, but they do not ordinarily participate in holy Communion. "Because Catholics believe that the celebration of the Eucharist is a sign of the reality of the oneness of faith, life, and worship, members of those churches with whom we are not yet fully united are ordinarily not admitted to holy Communion" (Code of Canon Law, 844 §4).

When Catholics receive Holy Communion, they firmly believe the bread and wine are transformed into the Real Presence of Christ. In the Eucharist, we become part of the body of Christ and share in holiness and unity with one another. Our "Amen" to "The Body of Christ" and "The Blood of Christ" means, "Truly, so be it!" It indicates that we affirm our belief in this mystery, which is fundamental to our Catholic identity. If non-Catholics receive the Eucharist but do not embrace this identity and same belief, it may disrespect Catholics who do, as well as disrespect their own identity in the denomination to which they belong.

However, at Mass, fellow Christians can join their prayers with Catholics in praising God. Together, we also pray that the divisions which separate us will finally disappear, in keeping with Christ's prayer for us "that they may all be one" (John 17:21).

PRO-LIFE QUOTE

"God, the Lord of life, has entrusted to men the noble mission of safe guarding life, and men must carry it out in a manner worthy of themselves. Life must be protected with the utmost care from the moment of conception: abortion and infanticide are abominable crimes."

Second Vatican Council, Church in the Modern World, #51

2026 BISHOP'S SERVICE APPEAL

Over the next two weeks, the 2026 Bishop's Services Appeal kicks off under the theme "Holding the Faith: Decades of Prayer & Service." The BSA is a vital initiative that funds essential ministries and social services our Diocese provides throughout Acadiana.

While the Rosary provides our spiritual foundation, this appeal is our collective call to action, where our prayers must transition into the charitable support necessary to feed the hungry, form our seminarians, and care for those in need.

Please begin prayerfully considering how your gift can link hope to action, ensuring that we carry forward the work of Christ not only through our devotion, but through the tangible sacrifice of our lives

We have to change our Mass Intention policy a little. First: Mass Intentions should be submitted 2 weeks before the date you wish to have it posted due to bulletin deadlines. Secondly: each Intention can consist of only two names. We can not list several names for a particular date and consider it one Mass. Masses are generated through a computer program that does not allow for more than 2 names to be considered for an Intention. We are sorry for any inconvenience.
