13th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Whoever does not take up his cross and follow
after me is not worthy of me.”

Matthew 10:38

Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time
June 27 & 28, 2020

PRELUDE: Musician choice

OPENING HYMN: The Summons Text: John L. Bell, b. 1949, © 1987, Iona Community, GIA Publications, Inc., agent

1. Will you come and follow me
If I but call your name?
Will you go where you don't know
And never be the same?
Will you let my love be shown,
Will you let my name be known,
Will you let my life be grown
In you and you in me?
2. Will you leave yourself behind
If I but call your name?
Will you care for cruel and kind
And never be the same?
Will you risk the hostile stare
Should your life attract or scare?
Will you let me answer prayer
In you and you in me?
3. Will you let the blinded see If I but call your name?
Will you set the pris'ners free And never be the same?
Will you kiss the leper clean, And do such as this unseen,
And admit to what I mean, In you and you in me?

GLORIA:

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of goodwill.

We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God Almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only begotten son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For You alone are the Holy one, You alone are the Lord, You alone are the most high Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the Glory of God the Father, Amen, Amen.

RESPONSE: Forever I Will Sing Psalm 89

Creed (spoken)

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through Him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation He came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake He was crucified under Pontius Pilate, He suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and His kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

PREPARATION: Only This I Want

Dan Schutte Text based on Philippians 3:7–16; 2:15, 18. Text and music © 1981, OCP. All rights reserved.

Refrain : Only this I want:

but to know the Lord,
and to bear his cross,
so to wear the crown he wore.

1. All but this is loss,
worthless refuse to me,
for to gain the Lord
is to gain all I need.

2. I will run the race;
I will fight the good fight,
so to win the prize
of the kingdom of my Lord.

3. Let your heart be glad,
always glad in the Lord,
so to shine like stars
in the darkness of the night.

HOLY, HOLY: Holy, Holy, Holy Lord God of hosts. Heav'n and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna, hosanna, hosanna in the highest. Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna, hosanna, hosanna in the highest.

ACCLAMATION

AMEN

LAMB OF GOD

COMMUNION: Here I am, Lord

Dan Schutte Text: Based on Isaiah 6. Text and music © 1981, OCP. All rights reserved.

1. I, the Lord of sea and sky,
I have heard my people cry.
All who dwell in dark and sin
My hand will save.
I, who made the stars of night,
I will make their darkness bright.
Who will bear my light to them?
Whom shall I send?

2. I, the Lord of snow and rain,
I have borne my people's pain.
I have wept for love of them.
They turn away.
I will break their hearts of stone,
Give them hearts for love alone.
I will speak my word to them.
Whom shall I send?

Refrain

Here I am, Lord.
Is it I, Lord?
I have heard you calling in the night.
I will go, Lord,
if you lead me.
I will hold your people in my heart.

3. I, the Lord of wind and flame,
I will tend the poor and lame.
I will set a feast for them.
My hand will save.
Finest bread I will provide
Till their hearts be satisfied.
I will give my life to them.
Whom shall I send?

MEDITATION

CLOSING HYMN: We are Called Text: Micah 6:8; David Haas, b.1957, © 1988, GIA Publications, Inc.

1. Come! Live in the light!
Shine with the joy and the love of the Lord!
We are called to be light for the kingdom,
to live in the freedom of the city of God!
We are called to act with justice,
we are called to love tenderly,
we are called to serve one another;
to walk humbly with God!
2. Come! Open your heart!
Show your mercy to all those in fear!
We are called to be hope for the hopeless
so all hatred and blindness will be no more!
We are called...
3. Sing! Sing a new song!
Sing of that great day when all will be one!
God will reign, and we'll walk with each other
as sisters and brothers united in love!
We are called...

Greetings in the name of the Lord:

When we read the Gospels, Jesus prayed to His heavenly Father every time before a significant event was to occur. We are to imitate the same pattern of prayer in our own lives. As our parish begins the process to search for and hire a new principal, we too must undertake the same attitude of prayer. I am asking all parishioners to join in this spirit of prayer. These are the following prayers that I am asking every family to pray every day:

First, to the Holy Spirit that the committee would be open to the workings of the Holy Spirit.

"Come, Holy, fill the hearts of your faithful and enkindle in them the fire of your love. Send forth your Spirit, and they shall be created. And you shall renew the face of the earth. Let us pray: O God, who have taught the hearts of the faithful by the light of the Holy Spirit, grant that by the gift of the same Spirit we may be always truly wise and ever rejoice in his consolation, through Christ our Lord. Amen."

Second, we need the intercession of St. Joseph so please pray the Litany of St. Joseph.

The Litany of Saint Joseph For public or private use.

To the entire community of St. Antoninus Church.

Dear Father Haft and the Parishioners of
St. Antoninus Church,

I am very grateful to thank you for the generous spirit you showed me since I arrived in this Parish since July 2018-2020. From that time, I felt at home as your son and priest for all these two years. I know, I cannot express how thankful I am for everything, great kindness, and love. But I would like to thank you in a special way of giving me a place/ parish to reside in when I was studying at the seminary.

During my stay, Father Haft was so much concerned about me day and night. I didn't feel lonely or lack anything in the house like food and drinks, ...to mention but a few. Thank you Father. I will always remember you in my prayers as a friend and a parent to me. I have learnt many good things from you, which will help me as I look forward to going back to Rwanda-Africa. Allow me to thank all those who drove me to the seminary for my classes and waited for me; those who helped me to get means of transport (car) that I have been using to school; I remember all those who contributed gasoline, garage, and oil for the vehicle.

I thank all those who care about me during wintertime by buying me coats and shoes. I think about all those who invited me for dinner and lunch. I tell you, I sense the great warmth from your love and encouragement. I can't forget all those who helped me to advance in English accent, although it wasn't easy. I invite all of you to Rwanda. It is a country where the Blessed Virgin Mary appeared in 1981(Our Lady of Kibeho). Come for the pilgrimage, and I am ready to welcome you to our diocese. Thank you so much, and may God bless you all. My flight is on July 4th, 2020, and I will arrive in Rwanda on July 6th, 2020. Pray for me, and I will always pray for you. Thank you once again, and I wish you a happy life forever. We remain in contact.

My address in Rwanda is this:

BREAKING OPEN THE WORD with Dr. Kathy O'Connor
13TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Reading I: 2 Kings 4:8-11, 14-16a: The two books of Kings form a unit, the fourth part of a group consisting of the books of Joshua, Judges, Samuel, and Kings. First Kings begins with the life and person of Solomon, David's successor. It then goes on to give the history of the two kingdoms that came into being after Solomon's death: Israel in the north and Judah in the south. In 2 Kings the history of the kingdoms continues from the times of Elisha up to the disappearance of the Northern Kingdom and from then on up to the time the king of Judah and the more prominent citizens of Jerusalem were deported to Babylon. Our passage for Mass this weekend is part of the story of the prophet Elisha and the Shunamite woman. In this passage Elisha is an itinerant prophet who, on his journeys, has been shown kindness from a childless woman and her husband. They welcome him into their home and care for him there. The woman was quite perceptive and believed Elisha to be a holy man of God. Elisha was grateful to her and wished to repay her. The woman requested nothing for her kindness. Elisha, observing her childlessness, promises her that by the same time next year she would have a son.

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 89:2-3; 16-17, 18-19 (2a): The responsorial psalm for this weekend begins proclaiming the faithfulness and steadfast love of God. The promises mentioned by the psalmist refer to God's covenant with David. It goes on to describe the power and steadfast love of God and Israel's good fortune to have Him as its protector.

Reading II: Romans 6:3-4, 8-11: This passage of St. Paul's letter to the Romans reveals key truths concerning Baptism, reminding us of the profound meaning of this rite which Christ established, its spiritual effects in Christians and its far-reaching effects with respect to the Christian life. Baptism is a new birth into a new life which presupposes a symbolic death (death to sin). The new life is the life of grace which pours into the soul, enabling the person to share in the resurrection of Christ. Jesus Christ chose to bear all the consequences of sin even though He was sinless. His voluntary death on the cross and His glorious resurrection broke the bonds of death for Himself and for all His own.

Gospel: Matthew 10: 37-42: Our Gospel passage for Mass this weekend finds Jesus teaching the Twelve the meaning of discipleship before sending them out on their mission. Our passage consists of two parts. In the first Jesus tells the twelve about the challenging demands of discipleship, then He announces not the rewards that will be given to them, but the rewards that will be given to those who welcome them, a reflection of the first reading. To encourage the apostles and to persuade others to receive them Jesus affirms that there is an intimate solidarity or even a kind of identity, between Himself and His disciples. God in Christ, Christ in the apostles: this is the bridge between heaven and earth. A prophet's mission is not essentially one of announcing future events; the main role is that of communicating the word of God. In verses 41-42 Jesus tells us that everyone who humbly listens to and welcomes prophets and righteous men and women, recognizing God in them, will receive the reward of a prophet and righteous person. The very fact of generously receiving God's friends will gain one the reward they obtain. Similarly, if we should see God in the least of His disciples (verse 42), even if they do not seem important, they are important, because they are envoys of God and His Son. That is why he who shows receptivity and courtesy to a disciple will receive a reward, for he has shown generosity to our Lord Himself. Continued on the next page...

Reflection: The first reading illustrated for us the reward given someone who welcomes a prophet because he is a prophet. We see this theme again in the Gospel. Jesus promises rewards for those who acknowledge and welcome an apostle. Because disciples belong to Jesus, those who welcome them in fact welcome Jesus Himself. All who welcome prophets and righteous persons will receive the reward of a prophet and righteous one. Does this only pertain to the Twelve and the prophets of the Old Testament? No, it does, in fact, pertain to us. How then can we, the evangelists of our day, bring others to Christ? We can express our faith in our interactions with others not only in words, but in the living of a Christian life in every area of our lives. Christianity is not a set of beliefs; it is a way of life. This is reflected in St. Paul's letter to the Romans reminding us that we are to walk in the newness of life that comes from being "baptized into Jesus Christ." Perhaps this week we might reflect on the following: 1) How much do I love Jesus; 2) what cross do I bear for Jesus; 3) what is the meaning for me of Jesus' promise that whoever loses his or her life for His sake will find it? Lord, you talk of crosses but also of rewards. You want me to keep both in mind. You took up your cross for my sake, when I was still a sinner, and when you didn't have to. Teach me to take up my cross for you. Help me Lord; show me the way to go....
