

29th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God.”

Matthew 22:21

PRELUDE: Musician choice

OPENING HYMN: How Can I Keep from Singing Text: Robert Lowry, 1826-1899

1. My life flows on in endless song.
Above earth's lamentation I hear the clear though far-off hymn
That hails a new creation.

Refrain: No storm can shake my inmost calm, while to that Rock I'm clinging.
Since Christ is Lord of heaven and earth, how can I keep from singing?

2. Through all the tumult and the strife I hear that music ringing.
It finds an echo in my soul. How can I keep from singing?
3. What though my joys and comfort die? The Lord, my savior liveth.
What though the darkness gather round? Songs in the night he giveth.
4. The peace of Christ makes fresh my heart, a fountain ever springing!
All things are mine since I am his! How can I keep from singing?

GLORIA: Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of goodwill. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God Almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only begotten son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For You alone are the Holy one, You alone are the Lord, You alone are the most high Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the Glory of God the Father, Amen, Amen.

RESPONSE: Proclaim to All the Nations Text: Psalm 96:1-2, 3, 7-8, 9; David Haas, © 1989, GIA Publications, Inc., refrain trans. © 1969, ICEL

Proclaim to all the nations the marvelous deeds of the Lord! Proclaim to all the nations the marvelous deeds of the Lord!

1. Sing to the Lord a new song. Sing to the Lord all you lands!
Sing to the Lord with all your heart, and bless God's name!
2. Announce salvation day by day, God's glory throughout the earth!
Among all the people in ev'ry land, God's wondrous deeds!
3. Give to the Lord, you nations, praise to the Lord of all!
Sing glory and praise and sing to the name, above all names!
4. Worship the Lord, and tremble, proclaim the one who reigns!
Say to the nations: 'The Lord is King;' who rules with justice!

ALLELUIA. Celtic Alleluia

CREED (spoken) I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through Him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation He came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake He was crucified under Pontius Pilate, He suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and His kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

2. God has chosen me, God has chosen me to set alight a new fire.

God has chosen me, God has chosen me to bring to birth a new kingdom on earth: God has chosen me, chosen me:

COMMUNION: You Have Anointed Me

Text: Mike Balhoff, b.1946, Gary Daigle, b.1957, Darryl Ducote, b.1945, © 1981, Damean Music. Distributed by GIA Publications, Inc.

1. To bring glad tidings to the lowly, to heal the broken heart, You have anointed me.

To proclaim liberty to captives, release to prisoners, You have anointed me.

Refrain: Your Spirit, O God, is upon me, You have anointed me.

2. To announce a year of favor, to comfort those who mourn, You have anointed me.

To give to them the oil of gladness, and share a mantle of joy, You have anointed me.

MEDITATION.

PRAYER: St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, cast into hell satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

CLOSING HYMN: Sing of the Lord's Goodness

Text: Ernest Sands, b.1949, © 1981, published by OCP.

1. Sing of the Lord's goodness, Father of all wisdom, come to him and bless his name.

Mercy he has shown us, his love is for ever, faithful to the end of days.

Refrain: Come, then, all you nations, sing of your Lord's goodness, melodies of praise and thanks to God.

Ring out the Lord's glory, praise him with your music, worship him and bless his name.

2. Power he has wielded, honor is his garment, risen from the snares of death.

His word he has spoken, one bread he has broken, new life he now gives to all.

3. Courage in our darkness, comfort in our sorrow, Spirit of our God most high; solace for the weary, pardon for the sinner, splendor of the living God.

4. Praise him with your singing, praise him with the trumpet, praise God with the lute and harp;

praise him with the cymbals, praise him with your dancing, praise God till the end of days.

October 18th, 2020

Greetings in the name of the Lord:

The Second Vatican Council in the document Gaudium et Spes (The Church in the Modern World) says the following: “men and women cannot fully find themselves except through a sincere gift of self.” The sincere gift of self can be most observable in the Holy Sacrament of Matrimony; when a man and woman consent before Jesus Christ and His Church to be faithful to each other, in good times and in bad, in sickness and in health, to love and to honor each other all the days of their lives. We are blessed to see the joy of a married couple on their wedding day. The joy of a couple welcoming their first child. The couple persevering through the ups and downs of daily marriage and family life. The couple seen kneeling together in prayer. The couple celebrating a wedding anniversary. And the couple that has grown physically weak in old age and holds each other up in love. The reality of Holy Matrimony is beautiful and sacrificial at the same time.

This weekend at the 11:15 am Mass our parish will recognize our married couples celebrating milestones of 25, 40, 50, 60, 70 and 75 years of Holy Matrimony.

We give thanks to the Lord for their witness to marriage and we ask the Lord to continue to bless them in their married love.

Yours in Christ:

Fr. Haft

Catholics preparing to cast a ballot in the coming election

One of our many responsibilities as a Baptized Catholic is to participate in the election process to shape the moral framework of our county. We need to properly form our conscience to carry out this duty as a faithful citizen. Below you will find a link for the document from the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops titled: Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship. The document brings forth all the issues that we must consider and the priorities. This document can easily print as PDF version so that you can read it and make notes on it. Pray for an out-pouring of the Holy Spirit for guidance as you begin reading, so that you can vote with the heart of Jesus Christ. <https://www.usccb.org/issues-and-action/faithful-citizenship/upload/forming-consciences-for-faithful-citizenship.pdf>

ST. ANTONINUS SOCIETY OF ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

When God is the center of our lives there is no problem with giving others their due. Through your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul you are helping your neighbor who is hungry, hopeless and frightened to know that they belong to God.

BREAKING OPEN THE WORD with Dr. Kathy O'Connor
29th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Reading I: Isaiah 45:1, 4-6: This passage tells us about the anointing of Cyrus whom God will use to implement His plans for the salvation of Israel. The selection of Cyrus must have seemed strange to the Israelites because he was the king of Persia (now known as Iran). Cyrus was a foreign king who did not know the God of the chosen people, yet God called him (verse 4). The calling of a foreign king reveals the universal scope of God's salvific plans, which did not at all fit in the Israelites view of themselves as God's only chosen people. Cyrus will deliver Israel from oppression by other nations.

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 96:1, 3, 4-5, 7-8, 9-10 (7b): In the first reading we heard about God calling a foreign king to help Israel. This theme of the universality of God's salvific plans is continued in the responsorial psalm for this weekend. Psalm 96 is a call to all the nations to sing a new song to the Lord. The psalm begins by calling the whole world to praise the Lord then it goes on to say why it should do so: He alone is the true God. Then comes a call to worship Him. The only God, the maker of all things, is the God who reveals His glory in the temple of Jerusalem and who protects the people (verses 4-6). For that reason, all the peoples are invited to worship Him there, and to bring offerings for the liturgy (verses 7-9).

Reading II: 1 Thessalonians 1:1-5b: It is believed that this letter was written in about 50 AD, some twenty years after the death and resurrection of Jesus. It is the oldest surviving piece of Christian literature. Early on during his second missionary journey (Acts 17:1-9), Paul, accompanied by Silas (the Silvanus of the first verse) visited Thessalonica. St. Paul developed a deep affection for the Christians of Thessalonica. This letter was written in response to a report from Timothy that the Christians in Thessalonica were spiritually healthy but they were practicing their faith amidst great difficulties. Paul offers thanks to God for the Thessalonians' life of faith, love, and hope which has remained steadfast in trying times. He tells them that life lived in this way shows the power of the Holy Spirit at work in the proclamation of the gospel and is evidence that the Thessalonians who remember Paul and his evangelizing companions have been chosen by God.

Gospel: Matthew 22:15-21: For the past several weekends we have read the parables with which Jesus addressed the priests and scribes, with whom there has been much conflict. The Pharisees are now initiating their plotting against Him. In the Gospel passage for today, Jesus is questioned about paying taxes to the Roman emperor. Taxes were a painful reminder that God's people were living under the heel of a foreign power. The Pharisees are hoping that Jesus will say something that is either politically incriminating or personally discrediting. They are setting a trap for Jesus yet their devious intent is hidden below their rather extravagant flattery. The trap comes in the form of a question: Is it lawful to pay tax to Caesar or not? Immediately Jesus detects their malice and knows they are testing Him. So He asks them to show Him the coin that pays the census tax. Little did the Pharisees realize what was happening. By producing the coin used for the tax, the Pharisees are publicly exposed as hypocrites. They may oppose Roman taxation in principle, but apparently they are in the habit of paying it like every other Palestinian Jew. Jesus tells them to pay what is due to Caesar while at the same time pay what is due to God, thus exposing their question as a false dilemma. He is saying that political and religious obligations can both be legitimately met.

Reflection: The lesson Jesus taught His enemies twenty centuries ago still remains today: Give to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God. Every Christian holds dual citizenship, each with its own benefits and duties: our birth makes us citizens of an earthly nation; our baptism makes us citizens of a heavenly Kingdom. Christ is telling us to live out both with justice and responsibility.

Continued from the previous page... A Christian should be the most engaged and dependable of citizens, unless of course, “Caesar” tries to claim rights that belong only to God. A less obvious lesson also emerges from this encounter. The opposition against Jesus is increasing. The Pharisees join forces with the Herodians; the former disapproved of paying taxes to Rome, while the latter were loyal to the Roman Empire. That two such different groups come together against Jesus shows the magnitude of His threat to the sinful status quo. This pattern of growing opposition is repeated wherever Christian holiness thrives. The lives of the saints and the history of the Church reproduce it again and again. Facing this opposition to our faith embodies the last and greatest of the Beatitudes: “Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness’ sake, for theirs is the Kingdom of heaven”. It Christ is a sign of contradiction in a self-centered world, authentic Christians will be too. Just as the Roman coin bears the image of the emperor who made it, so the human soul bears the image and likeness of God who calls each of us into existence so as to live in personal communion with Him. Freely living our bond with God means living as He created us to live and He has shown us how to do that by sending His Son, the model of every Christian life. This world offers us so many opportunities for doing good as Jesus would have us do. Perhaps this week we might reflect on the following: 1) what does it mean for me that Jesus teaches the way of God; what does it mean for me that Jesus is concerned for me whatever my status; 3) what do I owe God; what payment am I making Him? Lord, I am glad to be your follower. You are the fount of wisdom and life, the course of every good thing. You have called me by name and you hold me in existence. You give me work to do in your kingdom: the work of love, self-giving, and self-sacrifice. Teach me your wisdom and love Lord. Show me what more I can do to build your kingdom.....
