2ND SIGN STUDY MEETING

Saturday, January 14th | 9-10:30am | undercroft Holy Family room.

To prepare for the 2025 Jubilee Year Pope Francis asks us to dedicate time in 2023 to studying the documents of Vatican II. We'll view a video from formed.org - 'Revolution of John XXIII: The Second Vatican Council'. This video is set in Rome, 1959 and provides historical context to Vatican II. The cardinals elect a 76 year old Pope, hoping for an uneventful pontificate without surprises. But John XXIII surprised everyone. Coffee, fellowship and discussion follows along with Vatican II study resources. Email Cindy Kemper at cindykemper@twc.com for questions.

Dear Friend of St Antoninus,

On behalf of Saint Antoninus Parish and School, THANK YOU for your past support of our fundraising efforts! Once again, we are having a major fundraising event and are naming it the Jaguar Jam after our school mascot. This year our event will be held on January 21, 2023.

The 2023 Jaguar Jam is expected to have 300+ parishioners and friends of St Antoninus in attendance. We will auction off gift cards, merchandise, and services generously donated by businesses and parishioners to help support the school.

We need your support in four different ways:

- charitable contributions
 - donation for raffle prizes (sporting event tickets, beer/wine/liquor/bourbon, Yeti's, restaurant gift cards, etc)
- sponsorships
- attend the event!

Proceeds from this event will help maintain our affordable tuition for nearly 400 students ranging from grades K-8 and ensure a safe place for learning and a foundation for a lifetime of faith and life success. Our goal is to raise $50,000, but we cannot do it without your generous assistance.

Attached is a sponsorship form with a variety of participation levels; however, we would greatly appreciate any donation you could make.

If you have any questions, please contact our procurement committee members Bob or Heather Flick (phone numbers 859 630-2252 or 859 803-0429; email HMFLick14@gmail.com).

On behalf of the students, parents, and faculty of St. Antoninus Parish Church and School- THANK YOU FOR YOUR CONSIDERATION!

Sincerely,
Bob and Heather Flick

BREAKING OPEN THE WORD with Dr. Kathy O'Connor PH.D
MARY, THE HOLY MOTHER OF GOD

Reading I: Numbers 6:22-27: Our first reading for Mass this weekend comes from the Pentateuch; one of the first five books of the Bible. The book of Numbers has its own way of telling us about the experiences of the people of Israel as they make their way through the wilderness and describes how God acts toward the people He has chosen as His own. The passage for today occurs in the Sinai desert and God is depicted as the one who guides His people through the desert enroute to the promised land. The book of Numbers also gives us a glimpse the role priests play with the people: they are to bless the people. In our passage today, God tells Moses the blessing formula priests are to use. It is one of the earliest formulae for blessings and was used by priests in the temple liturgy. It has three petitions each of which begins with the name of the Lord. This blessing prays for protection (verse 24), grace (verse 25), and peace (verse 26).

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 67:2-3, 5,6,8, (2a): Psalm 67 is a prayer for divine blessings and that all the nations may praise God. The goal of the Psalmists' prayer is not so much for the good of Israel as it is for the recognition of God and His saving plans across the entire earth: that all mankind should join in the praise of God offered by Israel. In our own time, praise of God by all the nations comes about in the Church, thereby fulfilling the desires expressed by the psalmist. The Church uses this psalm on the solemnity of Mary the Mother of God to celebrate the fact that though her has come God's greatest blessing: Jesus Christ and having Mary as our mother to intercede with Him to continue blessing us.

Reading II: Galatians 4:4-7: This passage is taken from the part of the letter in which St. Paul gives a succinct summary of salvation history. St. Paul often speaks of Jesus' divinity but here he emphasizes the He was truly man. Jesus did not suddenly appear on earth in a kind of heavenly apparition: He really did become man, taking on human nature in the pure womb of a woman. Abba, in verse 6 is an Aramaic word which has come down to us with its translation "Father". This was not a word that Jews in Jesus' time would use to address God, most likely because it would have made God too familiar to them. The word Abba contains the kind of trust and tenderness that small children have in their dealings with their fathers. However, Jesus did not hesitate to use it and encouraged His followers to use it. In this way, Jesus does invite us to relate to God with the trust and tenderness of a child toward its father. Jesus invites us to be God's sons and daughters. St. Paul echoes this teaching and attributes to the Holy Spirit that movement in our hearts which impels us to cry out full of love and hope "Abba, Father!".

Gospel: Luke 2:16-21: St. Luke tells us the shepherds went in haste to Bethlehem (Bethlehem means house of bread). They didn't think about it or put it off. Obviously, a visit by a host of angels was truly extraordinary, so the shepherds immediately set off to see this infant about whom the angels had spoken. The shepherds found the infant just as the angels had said they would and they were amazed! They were so amazed that they shared the message from the angels to other people who, in turn were also amazed! And Mary kept all these things in her heart reflecting on them. Mary is a model of treasuring all that God says and does, meditating on His word and pondering His plan for her life. The shepherds were truly changed by their experience: they returned home glorifying and praising God.

Reflection: We use the word amazing for so many ordinary things in our lives.

But how amazing are those things in reality? Being visited by a host of angels and finding the newborn savior: that is truly amazing! The shepherds immediately responded to the angels' message and found the child just as they had been told they would. They shared that message with Mary and Joseph but Mary and Joseph were not the only people to whom the shepherds revealed the angels' message. They shared the experience of what they had seen and heard with many people. St. Luke does not tell us directly how the people in Bethlehem and its vicinity reacted to the news. Perhaps they too were amazed or astonished. But those reactions appear to be the extent of their response. Luke gives us no indication that those who were told about the birth of Jesus subsequently sought Him out. Their response was like someone being told, "God is offering you eternal life" and saying "Wow!" but doing nothing to take up God's offer. Perhaps this week we might reflect on the following: 1) how quickly have I responded to God's invitations and instructions, 2) how often do I meditate on Scripture, 3) how often do I meditate on what God is doing for me and through me, and 4) what is the specific lesson for me in the responses of the shepherds? Lord, more than half the people in this world still don't know you or believe in you. I am one of the privileged minority who has received the Good News. Teach me Lord, to be full of joy and generosity like the shepherds, full of wonder and contemplation like Mary, and full of the eager desire to spread the word.....

The Family of the Most Holy Eucharist will be participating in a parish-wide survey!

Please Read

Each of the 5 parishes within the Family of the Most Holy Eucharist will be participating in a parish survey about discipleship conducted by the Catholic Leadership Institute! We need your help!

Please help us by participating in a 10-15 minute survey online. The survey can be accessed through an online link from January 21 through March 4, and will ask you to reflect on your own spiritual growth and enable you to provide feedback on your parish's efforts to help you grow. All responses will be confidential and the parish will only receive information about the community as whole. We will share the link with you a bit closer to the launch of the survey.

We are trying to get the highest response rate possible. This information will be invaluable to Fr. Matt, the family Beacons of Light leadership teams and our various ministries as we plan for the future and strive to be the best disciples we can be. We will receive the results this spring/summer at which time we will share what we have learned with the entire parish.

If you prefer a paper copy you may pick up a paper copy of the survey after daily and Sunday Masses. They will be located in the Gathering Spaces/ Entrances of each church. To submit the completed paper survey, please drop off at any of the 5 parish offices. To make special arrangements for getting a paper copy, please contact Pattie Bauer at 513-922-0715 or pbauer@lourdes.org.

Thank you for helping with this important project!

"I don't get anything out of Mass."

This is what many people say who have drifted away from the Church. But Jesus told us He came so that we might have "life to the fullest" ... and that life is found in communion with Him in the Mass.

Archbishop Dennis M. Schnurr invites you to join him in exploring the wonder of the Mass through a special video series featuring Bishop Robert Barron. Each Sunday from January 8 through February 12, Archbishop Schnurr will email you his own brief insights along with a 25-minute episode from Word on Fire's The Mass.

Series available in English and Spanish.

Join Archbishop Schnurr and fellow Catholics across the archdiocese and experience the Mass in a whole new way.

Sunday, February 19, 2023, 3:00 PM Annual Seiwert/Foegler Organ Recital

St. Catharine of Siena Music Director and Organist David Castillo will present a bombastic organ recital featuring every pipe of our magnificent church organ. The concert will present music of diverse styles ranging from Baroque to Jazz. Come and hear our beautiful organ in our wonderful church space.

Retrouvaille - Do you feel alone? Are you frustrated or angry with each other? Do you argue ...or have you just stopped talking to each other? Does talking about it only make it worse? This program has helped 10'S of 1000' s of couples experiencing marital difficulty at any and all levels including disillusionment and deep misery. For confidential information or to register for a weekend call 513 486-6222 or visit the web site at www.helpourmarriage.com

Natural Family Planning

Our Self-paced Online Course allows you to learn on your own schedule from anywhere with internet access. It is broken up into short video-based modules with interactive exercises, and is a complete course in NFP.

Couple to Couple League's course has a 98% approval rating from people who say they didn't know about it. They say "How come nobody told me." And 92% say they understand the church's teaching better now. It's so misunderstood. For more information, or to register for a class, go to www.ccli.org or call 513-471-2000.
