— Pope St. John Paul II

LITURGY & WORSHIP: PREPARING FOR MASS

Many people complain that they don't get anything out of Mass. Unfortunately, this is sometimes a valid complaint, since we get out of Mass what we put into it. As we celebrate the Paschal Mystery of the suffering, death, Resurrection, and Ascension of Jesus, we should rededicate ourselves to enter prayerfully into the Mass, because the Mass makes these eternal mysteries present to us in our time and place. It does not repeat the death and Resurrection of Jesus, nor does it merely recall it; rather, in the Mass, Heaven and Earth are joined together, and eternity enters time, so that one and the same event is made actually present in many places and at various times throughout the world. This gives each of us personal and physical access to the reality of Jesus' death and Resurrection. Jesus tells us that if we are to be His disciples, we must take up our own cross and carry it after Him. At the Mass, we participate in His sacrifice, which empowers us to live out our own. And so what we ought to be "getting out" of Mass is the strength to live in such a way that we always lay down our lives every day – that a daily death of self unites us to the death of Christ, so that a daily resurrection can lead us to an ultimate resurrection to the Timeless Day of Eternity. The power to deny our selfishness and embrace the joy of true love is what we ought to get out of Mass. And we get that by totally giving ourselves, at Mass, and in every action.

Therefore, the proper way to participate at Mass is to offer oneself to God to be transformed. We offer our mind by giving careful attention, our bodies by humble acts of worship such as kneeling, our hearts by loving prayer. This means we participate with faith, hope, and charity. We will get something out of Mass to the degree that we participate in this way, and then live out the Mass in our daily actions of self-sacrifice for love of others.

— Fr. Henry

We follow USA Football's coaches training and player safety guidelines, including the Heads Up Football program. Coaches certification are required at all levels. Our coaches further their training and certification in Concussion Awareness, Lindsay's Law practices, and Virtus training. Player Safety is our #1 concern. The creation of standard fundamental player skill sets at each level help our players to become better prepared and skilled in the sport of football. The game has changed, and we have changed with it! Evolving and teaching the right way!

There is nothing better than a Saturday afternoon at Schott Field watching our future stars play football...its why we let them play! Please consider joining us!

2ND SIGN STUDY MEETING

Our next meeting will take place on Saturday, April 13th, at St. Antoninus Holy Family Room in the Undercroft from 9:00-10:30 a.m. Coffee and snacks provided.

Fr. Mike Schmitz, a renowned Catholic priest, has eloquently delved into the profound connection between suffering and love. In his talk titled, "The God of our Brokenness," he shares poignant stories that illuminate the mystery of suffering and its relationship to God's boundless love for us. Join us. The 2024 Family of the Most Holy Eucharist Lenten Project

How can you help?

The Serenelli Project is a Catholic initiative located on the West side that helps previously incarcerated men as they re-enter our community. Through a monastic style of living, participants in the Serenelli Project will learn trade skills and participate in programs like Bridges to Life and Catholics in Recovery.

Pray

Please pray first for the residents. God knows who they will be, but that we may be prepared for them when they arrive. Please also pray to sway the hearts and minds of the city/port so that we might acquire the old Santa Maria church, rectory, and other buildings for our ministry. Lastly, pray for the spiritual support of the 10 men at Lebanon Correctional facility who are currently preparing for baptism and confirmation.

Time & Talent

If you are a skilled professional tradesman, we are looking for HVAC, Electrical, Plumbing, and Insulation installers. We also need landscape professionals to help plan and run our community gardens.

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL CONFERENCE NEEDS

St. Catharine – We rely solely on donations and could really use your help. Please consider putting a donation in one of the two SVDP containers located in church or through regular church collection in a marked envelope. Please come and join us if you have the time and want to help your neighbors. Thank you so very much for your help and kindness. May God bless you and your family.

Our Lady of Lourdes – Thank you for your ongoing generosity and stewardship to OLL SVdP Pantry. We continue to need pantry items to stock the shelves and monetary donations to help those in our area stay safe and warm this winter.

St. Aloysius Gonzaga – Urgent need We are so grateful for your generosity; however, we have to say our St. Vincent de Paul treasury is at its lowest. Daily, we are called upon to assist our needy neighbors for rent and utility bills, and have to sadly advise them we cannot help. We are so grateful for whatever you are able to give. Please place your donation in an envelope marked St. Vincent de Paul and drop it in the regular collection basket or use the St. Vincent de Paul envelope in your envelope set. There is a bin at the Tekulve Room church entrance for any clothing or household items you care to donate. All is so needed and appreciated.

St. Martin of Tours – It's Ramen time! St. Martin St. Vincent de Paul is in need of Ramen noodles to stock our shelves. Items may be placed in the bins located at each door of the church.

*In your church envelope packet for Easter Sunday, there is a donation envelope for St. Vincent de Paul. What a wonderful way to end your Lenten Almsgiving and celebrate Easter – by making a monetary donation to St. Vincent de Paul! Please prayerfully consider using the SVdP envelope on Easter Sunday. Thank you for all you do for our neighbors in need.
