TUNING IN: NOTES FROM THE DIRECTOR OF MUSIC LITURGY INTRODUCING OUR ENSEMBLES: THE TRADITIONAL CHOIR

Dear Parish Community,

As we reflect on the gift of sacred music in the life of our Church, I'm pleased to begin a new series of articles that highlight each of our parish ensembles. These groups are more than just choirs; they are communities of prayerful musicians who serve week after week, helping to lift our hearts to God through song.

The Family of the Most Holy Eucharist is blessed with a vibrant tapestry of musical ensembles, each contributing uniquely to the liturgical life of our parishes. The Traditional choirs offer classic choral repertoire for weekly liturgies and major celebrations. The Eucharistic Schola Cantorum, a professional ensemble, provides sacred music for Vespers, and solemn feasts. Contemporary Ensembles at Our Lady of Lourdes and St. Antoninus bring modern praise and worship to their Sunday Masses. And our Handbell Choir adds a distinctive sound to special liturgies throughout the year.

Whether you're an experienced singer, a skilled instrumentalist, or someone simply moved by the beauty of sacred music, there is a place for you in our music ministry. Over the coming weeks, I hope this series helps you get to know each group more deeply, and perhaps even find one that speaks to your gifts.

We begin this series with the Traditional Choir, an ensemble dedicated to the beauty of sacred choral music.

THE TRADITIONAL CHOIR

11:00 a.m. Mass at St. Catharine of Siena | Rehearsals: Thursdays, 7:30–9:00 p.m.

The Traditional Choir leads music at the 11:00 a.m. Sunday Mass at St. Catharine of Siena from September through June. This volunteer choir sings a broad and beautiful range of repertoire, from ancient Gregorian chant and Renaissance motets to beloved hymnody and modern sacred works.

The ensemble rehearses weekly on Thursday evenings, and is known not only for its musical commitment, but also for the warm fellowship among its members. Throughout the year, the Traditional Choir also participates in First Friday Masses and special feast days alongside other parish ensembles.

If you have a love for traditional sacred music, this is a wonderful place to explore that calling. Reading music is helpful but not required; we welcome singers of all experience levels who are willing to learn, grow, and sing with joy.

For more information or to express interest, feel free to reach out to me at dcastillo@fmhe.org.

With gratitude for your continued support of sacred music in our parishes,

David Castillo

ENTHrone YOUR HOME TO THE SACRED HEART!

On July 3rd, after the First Friday Mass, Fr. Matt talked about the importance of having Christ as the center of the home. Many families have already enthroned their home to the Sacred Heart and have felt many blessings by this devotion. Rooted in the 17th-century apparitions of Jesus to Saint Margaret Mary Alacoque, the practice centers on His promises to bless every place where an image of His heart is exposed and honored. It serves as a public declaration that the home operates under Christ's loving authority and seeks His protection and peace (from the booklet "Enthronement of the Sacred Heart of Jesus in the Home"). We have 7 or 8 pictures left of the Sacred Heart of Jesus available in the vestibule of St. Antoninus Church. If you would like to pick up a picture and sign up to have your home enthroned, please use the sign-up sheet next to the pictures or contact Ryan Kramer at rkramer@fmhe.org or call 513-494-4678, ext. 1014.

THE THIRTEENTH DAY

What is it? This refers to the date in 1917 when thousands of people witnessed the “Miracle of the Sun” in Fatima, Portugal.

Why is this event so significant? Our Blessed Mother promised that in October, she would perform a miracle so all would believe. It was a visual witness corroborating the three Fatima children’s testimony that they had seen the Blessed Mother and her urgent request for prayer, repentance, and peace in a hurting world.

Our Holy Mother’s call to action: the Rosary! The Blessed Mother asked the three children – Lucia, Francisco, and Jacinta – to pray the Rosary daily for peace in the world and the conversion of sinners.

Join us on August 13th to pray the Rosary in Our Lady of Lourdes Church. 7:00 p.m. Fellowship following the Rosary! Bring a friend!
