"We saw His star at its rising and have come to do Him homage." These Magi did not know the person they were seeking to honor. They had not met Jesus, but had embarked upon a long and arduous journey in order to come into His presence. Although they were not from among the Jewish people who had received the ancient promises of a Messiah, they were nonetheless anticipating His arrival. And when they found Him, "they were overjoyed." Their quest had come to its moment of fulfillment when "they saw the child with Mary His mother."

For those of us who have been raised Catholic since our infancy, it's important to reflect on the joy of the Magi. They found Christ as a result of great effort and expense. The very trials of their journey, and the hope that was fulfilled when it was successful, made them appreciate their encounter with Jesus in a profound way as "they prostrated themselves... and offered Him gifts." Converts to the faith may have a kind of advantage in comprehending the experience of the Magi. But cradle Catholics may need to exert a bit more effort to share in the wonder. Even when Jesus has always been a part of someone's life, it is still important to stand in awe of Him. On the feast of the Epiphany of the Lord, we meditate on what it means to "find" Jesus. For some of us, this means remembering a conversion experience, but for others it means imagining what life would be like without Him, and then rejoicing in the fact that He is truly with us. No matter how we found the Lord, we too should fall down on our knees in adoration and offer Him the precious treasures of our lives: our fervent devotion and our will to serve Him.

SCHOOL UPDATE

Thank you to all those who donated to the school to fulfill the Classroom Wish List items during Advent!

Also, the PTO would like to thank everyone that donated items and/or their time to help make Elf Shelf successful. The students had a lot of fun shopping for gifts for their family and friends. The PTO also wants to thank the volunteers that helped with the breakfast and bake sale in early December — that fundraiser did very well.

Before Christmas Break, Father Schneider, Mr. Abelardo Flores (the CTK music teacher) and his wife, Jennifer Flores, played Christmas music for the students in the PLC. Fr. played guitar, Mr. Flores played trumpet, and Mrs. Flores played piano.

Rejoice in the fact that he is truly with us
