CZECH REPUBLIC CUTS CHECK TO FAYETTE COUNTY FLOOD VICTIMS

Jeff Wick
Fayette County Record, Editor

The Czech Republic cut a check for five million crowns, approximately $237,437, to the La Grange Area Ministerial Alliance Good Shepherd Fund for disaster relief last Thursday. County Judge Ed Janecka flew to Washington, D.C. on Thursday, Sept. 14, for a meeting at the Czech Embassy. Brian Vanicek, Honorary Consul of the Czech Republic in Texas, accompanied Janecka on the trip. A private individual who wished to remain anonymous financed the trip.

In Washington, Janecka and Vanicek accepted the donation from Czech Ambassador Hynek Kmoniček and Czech Interior Minister Milan Chovanec, who happened to be in the United States on business.

Janecka and Vanicek recounted the meeting at a ceremony on Friday, Sept. 15, at the Texas Czech Heritage and Cultural Center in La Grange.

“They realized that everyone who is being assisted by this check, probably very few, have heritage tied to the Czech community,” Vanicek said.

“But what is important for them is the fact that this community is so important to Texas-Czech ancestry and they wanted to do something for this community from the Czech Republic.”

“Mr. Chovanec told us, ‘We know our funds will be used wisely because we’re giving it to Czechs and we know how frugal and hard-working you are!’”

EDITOR'S NOTE

For the Love of Others

Well, it seems that every time I start a new article, my heart and prayers find new victims. As you are all aware of the Las Vegas shooting, we are reminded to not take life for granted. It is the moment that we least expect that we will face a time in our life that will change who we are as individuals, as a family, and as a nation. My prayers remain with the victims of the cowardly act in Las Vegas, as well as the family members who lost loved ones. My prayers also remain to the individuals and unsung heroes of that day. Nobody asked for those individuals to help in a time of need, those heroes responded simply for the love of others.

That brings me to our organization. KJT was built on a foundation of faith, love, hope and support of others. Each month I post pictures of our members doing service work for others in need, and it warms my heart. Posting pictures and stories about our members is the highlight of my day. All it takes is one or two members to share their memories with me and an amazing story comes to life. There is no story that is too long or too short, and you don’t have to be a professional story teller to share your favorite memories. That’s my job, and I love writing your stories.

We have so many members out there that deserve to be noticed for their hard work in their communities. Rather it’s a personal story of victory or one you would like to share of somebody else, please let me know. If you have a child or grandchild you would like to brag on, I would like to hear those stories as well. Our youth members are amazing, and they do some glorious work out there in our communities; and I want to share their stories.

Our last issue for the year will be based on the upcoming holidays of Thanksgiving and Christmas. We will be sharing stories that remind us that God is still alive and he remains at our side when we are in the need the most, and his presence is still seen. If you have a story you would like to share, don’t hesitate to contact me.

Thank you to all of you that contribute your time to helping our organization remain great. I pray that every family remains safe and healthy as the weather turns colder. I pray that the cooler weather brings more families together around a warm fire sharing stories of your days.

God Bless and Warm Wishes,

For the Love of Others

ACTIVITIES DIRECTOR REPORT

Festivals Bring Joy

On Saturday, September 24th I attended the opening Mass of the Sts. Cyril and Methodius Festival at St. Justin Martyr Catholic Church in Houston. Then on Sunday, September 24th Stephanie Prihoda, our media & marketing director, and I had the pleasure of attending the 54th annual Sts. Cyril and Methodius Slavic Festival in Houston. The festival is made up of the Czech, Polish, Ukrainian and Croatian heritage. Rev. Paul Chovanec, president and festival chairman, and his team bring together a fun-filled and entertaining day for everyone. Stephanie and I had the privilege of promoting the KJT and sold several of our KJT cookbooks throughout the day. What a great day it was.

Then on Saturday, September 30th, my wife Melba and I went to Hallettsville to the Kolache Festival. Of course there were lots of kolaches including a 6ft kolache which was prepared in a great big smoker, which they cut up and served to anyone who wanted to try it. As usual, there was great music and cold beverages throughout the day. A BIG thank you goes to John and Mark Dujka for helping promote the KJT. It was another great day to be out and about visiting with people.

On Sunday, October 8th I went to East Bernard for the Holy Cross Church Festival. It was held at the Riverside Hall and was another super festival with lots of good food, great music, and cold beverages. I had the pleasure to visit shortly with Big Ed Marik, Society #40 president, who was very busy with the gigantic live auction that day.

With all the devastating events in August and September, it feels good to share the joy that all the festivals bring.

As we progress in this the fourth quarter of the year, we need to press on with our membership drive by being well informed of all the benefits offered by the KJT. This makes it easier to talk to prospective members.

As always thank you for the opportunity to serve as your Fraternal Activity Manager.

MESSAGE FROM OUR SPIRITUAL DIRECTOR

“HE WHO PRAYS THE ROSARY HAS THE POWER OF GOD IN HIS HAND”!

So central is the Rosary to the Fatima message that Our Lady chose to identify herself as “The Lady of the Rosary.” In each of the six apparitions she asked for the daily Rosary, and especially as an instrument of world peace. As she revealed in the third apparition: “You must recite the Rosary every day in honor of Our Lady of the Rosary to obtain peace for the world and the end of the war for only she can obtain this.” In this Our Lady renewed her request for the prayer she gave to the Church centuries before, a prayer that has proven a powerful weapon against the enemies of Christianity as history testifies.

The Rosary is a simple form of prayer that can be prayed by the young or old, the learned or the uneducated, the saint or the sinner. Each can adapt it to his or her own capacity. It is so pleasing to Our Lady, because it brings us to review again and again the life of Christ, the mysteries of our redemption. As Pope Blessed Paul VI pointed out, it not only recalls to mind these mysteries, but stimulates the will to draw from them the norms of living. That is, it not only points out the way, but helps us to obtain the graces needed to follow in that way.

After repeatedly asking for the daily Rosary, and identifying herself as “The Lady of the Rosary,” the Blessed Mother terminated the final apparition at Fatima by showing the children three separate tableaux symbolizing the entire message of the Rosary. The first was a vision of the Holy family - representing the joyful mysteries; the second a vision of Our Lady of Sorrows - representing the sorrowful mysteries; and the third a vision of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel - representing the glorious mysteries.

The Rosary may seem like an insignificant thing in the light of the magnitude of the evils of today’s world, but it is the weapon given to us by Our Lady. She merely asks our cooperation, and she will do the rest. It is like the slingshot of David that killed the mighty enemy because the power of God was behind it. Thus, as the saying goes, he who prays the Rosary has the power of God in his hand!

How to Pray the Rosary

The purpose of the Rosary is to help keep in memory certain principal events or mysteries in the history of our salvation, and to thank and praise God for them. There are twenty mysteries reflected upon in the Rosary, and these are divided into the five joyful mysteries, the five luminous mysteries, the five sorrowful mysteries, and the five Glorious mysteries.

As suggested by the Pope St. John Paul the Great,

The Luminous on Thursday,
The Sorrowful on Tuesday and Friday,
The Glorious on Wednesday and Sunday (with this exception: Sundays of Christmas season - The Joyful; Sundays of Lent - Sorrowful).

The Apostle’s Creed

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth; and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, Our Lord, Who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified; died, and was buried. He descended into Hell; the third day He arose again from the dead; He ascended into Heaven, sitteth at the right hand of God, the Father Almighty; from thence He shall come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy Catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

Our Father

Our Father, Who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name; Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. Amen.

Hail Mary

Hail Mary, full of grace. The Lord is with thee. Blessed art thou amongst women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death, Amen.

Glory Be

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Fatima Prayer (Optional)

O my Jesus, forgive us of our sins. Save us from the fires of hell. Lead all souls into heaven, especially those in most need of thy mercy.

Hail Holy Queen

Hail, holy Queen, Mother of mercy, our life, our sweetness and our hope. To thee do we cry, poor banished children of Eve: to thee do we send up our sighs, mourning and weeping in this valley of tears. Turn then, most gracious Advocate, thine eyes of mercy toward us, and after this our exile, show unto us the blessed fruit of thy womb, Jesus. O clement, O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary! Leader: Pray for us O Holy Mother of God;

All: That we may be worthy of the promises of Christ. (Optional)

Leader: Let us pray.

All: O God whose only begotten Son by his life, death, and Resurrection has purchased for us the rewards of eternal life; grant we beseech thee, that meditating on these mysteries of the Most Holy Rosary of the Blessed Virgin Mary, we may imitate what they contain and obtain what they promise through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

KJT Society #132, Pflugerville
Blood Drive and Pancake Breakfast

Pflugerville KJT Society President Jim Krahula recently presented KJT State Director Ray Pokorney with a $1,000 donation to the Clergy Retirement Fund and a $1,000 donation to the Hurricane Harvey Relief Fund. These funds were earned by KJT Society 132 from the March and September pancake breakfasts. The picture right shows Jim Krahula making the presentation to KJT State Director, Ray Pokorney.

KJT Society #132, Pflugerville also hosted a September Blood Drive. It attracted a good number of donors. One of them was Patrick Spielman who has given over ten gallons of blood. It takes, on average, 8 different visits to donate approximately 1 gallon of blood, if you successfully give 1 pint at a time. Below, Patrick is shown filling out the donation card for another donation. Patrick is a St. Elizabeth of Hungary parishioner.

KJT Society #80, Sealy Making Big Donations and Showing Appreciation

Society #80 sponsored the silent auction at the Immaculate Conception Church Bazaar on Sunday, September 24, at the Sealy KC Hall. Parishioners donated 285 items which brought in a grand total of $4,300.00, all of which is donated to the parish. The society receives matching funds from the Home Office for sponsoring the silent auction.

KJT Member Appreciation Dinner

Sealy Society #80 held their annual Member Appreciation Day on September 17, 2017, at the Hill Center in Sealy. Registration began at 1 p.m. Members enjoyed playing card games, dominoes and some games where prizes were awarded. All of this made for an enjoyable afternoon. There was also a silent auction with many nice items on which to bid.

Monetary donations were made to the Priests and Religious Fund and to Immaculate Conception Church for use of the ICC Center for our meetings. Raffle tickets were handed out to those in attendance and the remainder will be mailed the third week of October. A catered meal was served at 5 p.m. and door prizes were handed out.

The altar flowers and the 9 a.m. Mass at Immaculate Conception Church were for living and deceased members of Society #80. The society wishes to thank those to donated items for the raffle and the silent auction.

Barbara Hajdik made the monetary presentations to KJT District Director Larry Kuciemba for the Priests and Religious Retirement Fund and to Father Eric Pitre for use of the ICC Center. Looking on are Steven Kutra and Bernice Stolarski.

Ugh! The brutal truth is, Gen X’ers (age 37-51) struggle to save due to the hole we have dug for ourselves. The median retirement savings for Gen X is ONLY $35,000. Experts recommend that by age 40 you should have three times your salary saved for retirement (in liquid assets). You don’t need to be very good at math to know that’s not a very pretty picture.

Well, it doesn’t get any better when you realize the estimated financial demand of children will set parents back roughly $250,000 as well as the growing trend of caring for an aging parent. Oh, don’t forget the fact Gen X’ers carry the greatest of credit card debt (HELLO steep interest rates here) to add to our already highest overall debt load of $150,000 (average).

I coupling all of the above with Gen X’ers being in the most important life stage to have Life Insurance. Yep, yet another expense during a time when another bill isn’t exactly what the Doctor ordered, but when you think about it, right now we have the most to protect. Who will replace your income? Pay for your child’s education, daughter’s wedding dress or even more pressing - your mortgage? What will your remaining spouse do for retirement? All questions that you need to answer.

OK, enough of the sobering facts about Generation X. The truth is, some of us are doing better than steady every day,” Smith said. Smith said the La Grange Area Ministerial Alliance has not distributed any of the money yet. He said the local pastors are consulting with another ministerial group, the Austin Disaster Relief Network, to determine how the funds will be distributed. Smith said the ministerial alliance hopes to begin distributing the funds in late October.

are,” Janecka said. Janecka thanked the La Grange Area Ministerial Alliance for managing the disaster relief fundraising effort, along with everyone in the community who donated or assisted with recovery efforts.

“On behalf of the citizens of the City of La Grange and City staff, we want to extend our deepest appreciation for this wonderful gift,” said La Grange city councilman and mayor pro temp John “Honza” Cernosek. “It’s needed. From the bottom of my heart, thank you.”

Vanicz said the Czech Republic made the donation for five million Czech crowns. He said the amount in U.S. currency once it’s deposited may differ some from the amount printed on the honorary check due to changes in the exchange rate. La Grange First Baptist Pastor Jonathan Smith said the ministerial alliance has raised over $104,000 prior to the donation from the Czech Republic. In addition, he said the community of LaGrange, Indiana, raised over $30,000 for relief efforts here, but that money has not yet arrived.

“It’s amazing, the only thing we share is a name,” said Smith, who traveled to LaGrange, Indiana on Sept. 8 to meet with leaders there.

The two large donations should push the balance upwards of $360,000. “Money has been coming in or alternate to the General Convention who is or whose spouse is a state officer or state director, state directress of other fraternal life insurance organizations, or insurance sales representative representing other fraternal life insurance organizations.

Traditions. Just a simple word, yet so powerful in the bonding of a family. We typically think of traditions as the usual holiday dinners and national celebrations that occur in most households; like Thanksgiving turkey dinner and Christmas presents. Who said traditions must be the same in every house? While there are some traditions, we all celebrate together, the idea behind starting your own family tradition carries much more strength and meaning.

The meaning of the word “tradition” is an inherited, established, or customary pattern of thought, action, or behavior. Traditions can persist and evolve for thousands of years. Rather they are new or old, the act of passing down a tradition is to solidify a common love of an act or meaning of an event. For example, bedtime stories and family vacations; as well as simple routines.

I spoke with many members of our KJT organization and listened to shared traditions that were handed down in their families. While some traditions were your ordinary traditions, like house rotations around Thanksgiving and Christmas, which are just as important, others were quite extraordinary; like family vacations that required a batch of chocolate chip cookies. I visited with a family from Waco, Texas, and while they shared that their vacation destination changed from year to year, a batch of chocolate chip cookies was what made the tradition what it was. It was something that started long before within the generations of the family. In fact, the grandmother brought the cookies because it was something her grandmother would do, and she remembered her mother bringing the cookies once her grandmother had passed on.

Another tradition that had an impact was a traditional baptism. While the baptism itself is a common tradition among our organization, one family decided to take it one step further. In September,
Traditions

Gailynne Zapalac and her husband, Pete of La Grange welcomed the birth of their first granddaughter, Kylie. In celebration of her arrival, the family baptized their granddaughter in the same dress that Gailynne and Pete baptized their daughter in. They are keeping this same dress in preservation to pass on to either their next granddaughter or their Great-grandchild in the future. This tradition was handed down from Grandma Zapalac who baptized her daughter in the same dress she wore when she was baptized.

Finally, a fun tradition that one mother shares with her son, a newer one, but one her son will cherish forever with hopes to continue in the future to strengthen the bond between the two. With a shared passion for NFL football, Stacia Urban is making it a tradition for her and her son, Landon, to visit a different football stadium each year. They decided a few years ago to pick a team they will cheer for together, buy a t-shirt to show their support, and root for a different NFL team each football season. She stated that they might not know many of the players on the team they are rooting for, but they attempt to do a quick study on the team’s record before traveling to the game. They started off locally, Dallas Cowboys and Houston Texans, and have now traveled to Colorado (Denver Broncos), New York (Giants), and Georgia (Atlanta Falcons). Next year they are headed to Boston for the New England Patriots Game.

Stories like these help remind us that traditions don’t have to look like everybody else’s. They can be unique and different and evolve around your family’s style and customs. It is never too late to start a tradition. Understandably some traditions get lost in the sands of time, but it’s up to us to either preserve the old traditions or to simply begin new ones for the generations after us, remembering we are the footsteps in which they will follow.

Stacia Urban and her son, Landon, at all the different football fields they have visited:

- Atlanta Falcons
- Denver Broncos
- Dallas Cowboys
- New York Giants
