MESSAGE FROM THE STATE VICE PRESIDENT

A Twist of Member Benefits...

LIFE INSURANCE AND ANNUITIES
Some would say, Life Insurance is the most coveted member benefit of all (and I’d have to agree). To be there in faith, and financially, for a family who just lost a loved one is hard to trump. To this day, I’ve never delivered a check that was “too large” for the family to accept...

Vehicle Savings
Buying a vehicle can be stressful and to me, downright scary. I’m happy to say the KJT has a program that can help ease this process. Our preferred vehicle pricing program offers our members access to fleet pricing. The preferred pricing program means less negotiating and a quick way to cut through the red tape when buying a vehicle. Not to mention the money that you can save when using the program.

PERKSPOT
We introduced KJT Perkspot to our members in 2015, and if you ask me, we introduced this program at the perfect time. That said, most people are confused as to what exactly Perkspot is. It’s simple, KJT Perkspot gives you access to THOUSANDS of coupons via one website. You can simply log on, search for the products you use, print the available coupon and save. As our shopping habits evolve, so does our access to the savings!

Youth Benefits
A few weeks ago, we wrapped up our 2017 Summer Youth and Teen Camps. I am very happy to say; our camps were once again a huge success! Ninety-six campers enjoyed our camp this year. Every year we work to improve... (Continued on Page 10)

Notice of Data Security Incident

BY Christopher Urban
KJT State President

This notice is to inform you that Catholic Union of Texas, The KJT has discovered that it was the target of a cyberattack (unauthorized third-party access of the KJT’s computer browser). As part of our investigation, we notified necessary agencies to report the incident. We have taken this matter very seriously and regret any concern that this may cause.

On January 18, 2017, we discovered that there was nefarious browser activity on one of the local personal computers at the KJT office. The perpetrator gained access over the internet by exploiting a hole in the company firewall and performing a brute force password attack (method of guessing a password using computer code). There is evidence of internet browsing based on the history files of the local pc and the perpetrator apparently installed some malware on the local pc. Intermittent browsing activity was found to go back as far as June 12, 2016.

However, there is no log or evidence that any member’s or applicant’s Personally Identifiable Information (PII) data or other confidential/private information was compromised. The KJT member/applicant PII data and other confidential/private information is located on the local network on a separate server and there is no evidence that the perpetrator accessed any information on this local network.

Numerous steps have been taken to prevent this type of unauthorized access from happening again including:
1. Adjust firewall rules to allow access from very specific source IP addresses only
2. Reviewing auto-generated logon reports showing who, when, and where access to each machine was obtained
3. Changed all passwords on all PCs, Servers, and network equipment and implemented a secure, best practice password policy
4. Installed a new firewall with more advanced features including GEO-IP filtering
5. Implemented SYSLOG server to capture any logs from (Continued on Page 10)
EDITOR'S NOTE

Hello to all!! It is so great to be a part of this amazing organization! It has now been two months since I started here in the home office in La Grange, and I couldn’t be happier.

Church picnics were a blast this year! You will frequently see me floating around church picnics taking pictures and asking for society members so that I can capture our members in action. I want to show as much involvement that I can in our editorial. I feel like you all deserve recognition for your hard work, so keep up the great job. I can’t wait to make my way around to every KJT member our there!

Once I was back in the office, we hit the ground running with preparations for the KJT Summer Camp in which I am the Camp Director. This was my second year as camp director, so I had a better understanding of what to expect than I did last year. It was such a great time! We roasted s’mores, swam, swung from the high ropes, zipped lined, hit the blob, caught a few fish, and had an amazing game of Capture the Flag using colored dust and water balloons. Check out our Facebook page to see some of the moments I was able to capture. I would like to personally thank all of my counselors who came out and spent the week with me. I couldn’t have asked for a better set of counselors to be with on this adventure.

Now I’m settled back into the home office and my next project in line is to start focusing on society Facebook pages. If any of you are interested in starting up a Facebook page for your society, please give me a call here at the office, 979-968-5877.

At last, I want to thank everybody who has taken the time to welcome me here. Thank you to all the State Directors who have each taken the time to stop and chat with me and fill me in on some of their thoughts and ideas.

I pray that each and every one of you have a blessed journey for the start of a new school year. I pray that every parent, child, and teacher finds the strength and patience for a new year of educational growth and success.

For our September issue, please send in pictures of your student’s first days of school, at any grade level! We would like to share on our Facebook page and newspaper our members who will be off to the start of greatness!

Many Blessings,

Editor

The year 2017 was outstanding. This year we had the pleasure of meeting Jan Jurečka of the Diocese of Ostrav-Opava, Vojtěch Zahrádka of the Diocese of Olomouc, and Jiří Šostek of the Diocese of Olomouc. Each Deacon was asked to give a brief history of their home of residence, family, and why they chose to become a priest. We all enjoyed bar-b-que with all the trimmings and lots of great desserts. Thanks again to the Galveston County Czech Heritage Society for their hospitality.

Always remember membership should be a top priority for all societies.

2017 TCHCC Heritage Feast and Muziky Events

With limited space, I was unable to highlight some of the great entertainment inside and outside under the pavilion at the Koache Klobase Festival back on June 10. It was a pleasure to visit with Danny Zapletal, Michelle and David Slovak with Czech and Then Some, John and Mark Dujka with the Dujka brothers, and Kenneth with the Red Ravens. The jam session with these three bands was outstanding.

Moving on to State Family Day if you were not able to attend you missed out on one of the best Family Days. Beginning with registration, then a beautiful mass with Fr. Bob Knippenberg. A great thank you to all the officers, directors, office staff and all the spouses whose hard work made this a great day. Another big thank you to Director Ray Pokorney and his team for the delicious bar-b-que. This year there was live entertainment with Chris Rybak and his band. He knows how to energize people with his music and entertainment. He even made a live video on Facebook. Look for them next year.

On Friday July 27th I was invited to La Marque by the Galveston County Czech Heritage Society for a reception honoring the visiting Deacons from the Czech Republic. Heritage Society President Barbara Winborn welcomed everybody and proceed with introducing Fr. Paul Chovanec who has a key role in organizing the yearly visits. This year we had the pleasure of meeting Jan Jurečka of the Diocese of Ostrav-Opava, Vojtěch Zahrádka of the Diocese of Olomouc, and Jiří Šostek of the Diocese of Olomouc. Each Deacon was asked to give a brief history of their home of residence, family, and why they chose to become a priest. We all enjoyed bar-b-que with all the trimmings and lots of great desserts. Thanks again to the Galveston County Czech Heritage Society for their hospitality.

MESSAGE FROM SPIRITUAL DIRECTOR

Celebrating Labor Day

But, for the Christian, Labor Day is more than just a day off work. For the Christian, “work” is an invitation to participate in God’s extraordinary plan for the salvation of the world, if it is joined to Jesus Christ. No matter what we are doing we are, as St. Paul wrote, to “do it as unto the Lord” (see Col 3). Our work then changes “the world”, both within us and around us. This means all work - not just the so called “spiritual” or “religious” stuff, has redemptive value. Remember, God Incarnate did not just do the “spiritual” stuff. All human work sanctifies and changes the world which God still loves. St. Paul captured the hope of all creation when, in the eighth chapter of his letter to the Romans he reminded us that all of creation ‘groans’ for the full revelation of the sons and daughters of God. We can have a new relationship with the entire created order—beginning now—because we live in the Son, through whom and for whom it was all created and is being re-created.

In his encyclical entitled “On Human Work” (1981), Pope St. John Paul II spoke of the “gospel of work.” This insight from Pope St. John Paul II is important for us to consider on Labor Day. There truly is a ‘gospel of work.” Let us renew our hearts and minds and live this gospel of work in the way in which we engage in labor. In His Ascension, Jesus did not leave us orphans. Rather, He lives in us and we now live in Him, through the Holy Spirit. He has capacitated us to live differently. NOW, through the Grace poured out through the Holy Spirit and mediated to us in the Sacraments. We can live this “Gospel of Work” in an age which desperately needs a new living witness of its dignity, meaning and true value.

Happy Labor Day!

KJT STATE FAMILY DAY

by Stephanie Prihoda
Director of Media and Marketing

Ok, so we must admit that we didn’t pick the coolest day to hold our Annual KJT State Family Day, as the temperature spiked in at 98 degrees, but the attendance count showed our members didn’t mind the heat. With about 250 members in attendance, we can say that this was a successful picnic for our organization.

We began our celebration with Holy Mass offered by Father Bob Knippenburg, our Spiritual Director. Following Holy Mass, we all joined in for one of our most delicious BBQ meals ever made. Ray and Shirley Pokorney, Jerod and Celeste Oliver, Clem and Grace Korenek, Robert and Georgie Nors, Michael Kramer, and Jim Caballero are all to thank for that delicious meal. So, if they happen to be in your area, please take the time to stop and shake their hand because they did an outstanding job on the meal preparation. Not to mention, they were the first ones there and the last ones to leave, much credit is due to them all.

The children entertained themselves with the waterslide, character drawing, and washer games that were available. They had a game to guess the amount of candy in three different jars where three young members could share their winnings with others. No doubt that new friendships were made with that. The winners were Grace Eschenburg - #29 Freydek, Kate Hyzak - #112 Austin, and Wyatt Nanaz - #16 Wallis.

Chris Rybak strung out his accordion and played great music for everyone to enjoy. We helped celebrate the 51st Wedding Anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Jim and Leona Brzozowski of KJT Society #34 Nada with an anniversary dance. Chris and his family joined in with the festivities and sang a few numbers themselves. At one point, Chris Rybak had the entire crowd singing along to one of the crowds favorite hits; A Ja Sam. A great time was had by all. Thank you to everybody who helped with preparation and clean-up. Thank you to those that helped serve food and take in registrations. This entire event wouldn’t have been such a success without the help of everybody who pitched in.

Thank you

Celebrating their 51st Wedding Anniversary, Mr. and Mrs. Jim and Leona Brzozowski of Society #34, Nada.

There are many traditions passed down throughout time. Ideas and events have long been handed down from one generation to another because the idea of keeping the past alive is what brings a family together. From family reunions to seasonal vacation trips, to holiday traditions, families find ways to be together and connect with their past.

For one family, making molasses is just that. James and Carolyn (Wick) Prihoda, and their family in High Hill, just north west of Schulenburg, Texas, carry on a tradition like no other. Every year in the spring, James and his boys begin the process of making homemade molasses by planting anywhere from 1-2 acres of sorghum cane on their land. Once planted, mother nature then determines on how much molasses they will harvest in August. If there is a lot of rain, the cane will grow thicker and harvest more juice when pressed. If it’s a dry summer, which is more common than most, well then, the family time spent together is worth every drop they will manage to squeeze out. Every year is different. Some years, the Prihoda’s will manage to press out 15 to 20 gallons of molasses, while others times, they will be lucky to get enough to hand out to everybody who was there to help. Either way, being together and learning this long-living tradition is well worth more than it’s weigh in gold, or molasses for that matter.

There’s a sense of reliving the past when harvesting sorghum cane. There is no electricity used. Only an old antique Farmall C tractor running a conveyor belt works the cane press, while what used to be a man-built fire, now propane, burns through their homemade fire pit. Everything else from stripping the cane down in the pasture to loading it up on the trailer is where the memories are made, and done by hand. It requires a few hands and some strong backs to move the crop around, but that’s when having a large family, and a few extra friends, comes in handy. With a family as large as James and Carolyn’s, there are many members there to help and to...
Molasses

Ingredients

- 2 unbaked pie crusts (bought or homemade)
- 1 1/2 cups flour
- 1 cup brown sugar, firmly packed
- 1/4 cup cold butter cut into little pieces
- 1/2 cup molasses
- 1/2 cup hot water
- 1/2 teaspoon baking soda

Instructions

Whisk together flour and brown sugar. Cut butter pieces into mix to form a small, fine crumb.

Prepare two 8-inch pie pans with dough.

Mix together molasses, water and baking soda.

Divide molasses mixture between the pies.

Top each with half the crumbs.

Bake at 450 in upper third of oven for 10 minutes. Reduce heat to 350 and bake until firm and knife easily comes out clean. (about 15 to 20 minutes)

Cool on rack before cutting.

Pictured to the left is James Prihoda (KJT #129, Schulenburg, 2017) scooping molasses from one bin to the next as the cane juice cooks down into brown molasses.

However, this process is so much more than the sweet syrup they cook it down to. It’s more about the memories built around the cane press and boiling pans. Families from all around, both near and far, have gathered around the Prihoda/Wick Farm for centuries to witness, and later enjoy, this antique way of living. Guests have come from as far as Fredricksburg and Blanco, Texas to watch and take part in making homemade molasses. Families in the past have brought their own harvested cane, and because finding this antique equipment is hard to come across, the Prihoda’s have welcomingly pressed cane and cooked down molasses for other families to enjoy. Of course, the visitors must help along with the process, but when it’s quality time you are spending with family and friends, time is only of the essence.

The Prihoda family, along with volunteers, spend anywhere from three to five days from start to finish on this molasses making process, but for this once-a-year event, there are seldom any complaints. You will only hear families catching up and telling stories, followed by laughter. Lessons from the adults teaching their children how to process what they hope will be the future for them, and memories from Grandpa about how the process was done when he was a boy.

Passing down the work and responsibility of keeping a family tradition is a lot to ask of a family, especially when the work that’s being asked of is hard labor.

For over 30 years now, The Prihoda family has enjoyed going through the process with their children, and now their grandchildren. However, there’s always a sweet reward for everybody in attendance. Rather it’s a homemade molasses cookie that Grandma baked or a jar of your own molasses, the memories that this family makes each year last much longer than the syrup itself.

James and Carolyn Prihoda, along with all their children, are members of KJT Society #129, Schulenburg.

Members of the Prihoda family work together to strip and cut down the cane while it stands in the field.

Summer Youth & Teen Camps, and I can say we have already begun planning our 2018 programs. Summer Youth & Teen camps are just one of the programs we have available to keep the youth of KJT active and involved. When given a chance, I like to boast about how we can keep our youth busy. Beginning at age nine until 15 they can attend our Summer Camps, at age 17 we begin to recruit them back to camp to serve as a camp counselor. Shortly after that, it’s time to apply for the Statewide KJT Scholarships that are available.

Granted we have more to offer and there is more to the list of member benefits, I promise that we will continue to search for ways to add value to your KJT Membership and I ask you to share the above with your friends and family. Tell others about what we have to offer and what you have access to with your membership.

Driving 50 miles one way for something you love more than anything, doesn’t seem like that long of a trip at all. For this one particular high school student, this frequent drive is only one obstacle he must jump to accomplish the goals he has set for himself in the hockey rink.

When we talk about Texas sports, the last sport we would mention; let alone hear about, is hockey. However, for Cole Seevers of Waxahachie, it’s his whole world. Cole earned the 2017 AT&T Metroplex High School Hockey League Goaltender of the Year, as well as Silver Division Varsity City Championship award with Mansfield High School.

With the hockey sport is slowly making its mark in Texas, north Texas schools are getting a head start on the sport. While it has yet to exceed Texas football and the attention it brings to school districts, Cole and his teammates are making a run on the ice of making history in this newly found high school sport here in this hot state. There are 40 teams now in this league; however, the closest rink to practice on is every bit of 50 miles away in one direction. “When I started, I was just going for the JV team,” Cole explained, “All I wanted to do was step it up and be a good varsity goaltender.”

This wasn’t an easy task with the nearest rink 50 miles away. Finding players that would either match or challenge his playing skills was the real struggle. In addition to the drive for adequate ice time and teammates to challenge, Cole Seevers has still been able to maintain a high-grade average in the classroom academically.

Cole will be a senior this year Waxahachie High School and is the son of Matt and Melissa (Prachyl) Seevers, and grandson of Al and Linda Prachyl, all who are members of the KJT Society #35, Ennis.

We would like to hear more stories like this about our youth members in action.

KJT Society #31, West
Submitted by Georgie Nors, Secretary

West Society #31 held a meeting on June 11th, at 2:00 p.m. at the Best Western Czech Inn. President Michael Kraemer called the meeting to order and asked Treasurer Robert Nors to lead the opening prayer. Robert Nors gave the Treasurer’s report. He also presented the financial report from the Hamburger fundraiser. The money raised will be used for Scholarships. President Kraemer read a thank you note from St. Mary’s School for the donation to their “Going for the Gold” fundraiser. Robert Nors noted that the KJT was listed in the program. Also received was a thank you note from the family of Josie Kubala. Under old business was the District Family Day. President Kraemer reported that we had a good turnout, and good weather. He also reported that our KJT Society #31 awarded one scholarship this year (the only application) to Claire Muska. President Michael Kraemer presented the scholarship to her at the High School Scholarship Program. We congratulate Claire and wish her the best in her future endeavors.

KJT Society #115, Victoria
Submitted by Robert Stryk, Secretary

The meeting was called to order at Holy Family Catholic Church Bridal Room on Sunday, July 30th at 08:40 AM by President Lawrence Yanta. President Lawrence Yanta led the opening prayer and the Pledge of Allegiance. President Yanta reported the Home Office has appointed Stephanie Pihoda as the Director of Media for the KJT. She will be responsible for establishing accounts for the Societies to use social media networks or Facebook to help promote the KJT Society activities.

Cathy Kraemer reported on the new t-shirts she was looking into. She could not get the dri-fit shirts with a chest pocket like the guys wanted. Under new business, President Kraemer noted that we need someone to take over putting announcements in the church bulletin. Sandy Kidwell has offered to handle this. Also there will be a pot luck going away party for Fr. Paul on Saturday, July 1st. KJT will be providing the wine along with the KJZT. The Parish Feast Day Festival is coming up on Sunday, August 13th. KJT Society #31 is in charge of the live Auction and lots of help will be needed. Secretary Kraemer received a notice of membership for Fr. Ed Karasek. Raffle prize winners were Sandy Kidwell and Nancy Cunningham. Members were reminded that there will not be meetings in July or August. Our next meeting will be September 10th, with Corporate Communion at the 7:30 a.m. Mass, followed by coffee and kolaches before the meeting. Our new priest, Father David will need to be aware of the booth.

President Yanta asked for volunteers to help with the callout lists for pastry or monetary donations for the annual Czech Fest to be held at the Victoria Community Center on Sunday, Sept 24th, 2017. Volunteers will be also be needed for setup and manning the booth.

Society 115 will be hosting the 2018 District 7 meeting in Victoria in 2018. Door prizes were awarded by President Yanta.

Bread and Pastry Winners

It was bread and pastry day at the KJT meeting on July 30. Door prizes were awarded to: Ed Stryk, Donald Dusek, Joe Pustka, Robert Stryk, Barbara Yanta, Irene Brosch, Lorna Dusek, Donald Olsovsky, and Rosie Olsovsky. Photo by President Lawrence Yanta

In the absence of President Joe Bilski, Vice President Barbara Hajdik conducted both the officers meeting and the regular meeting. A pizza meal was served by Bennie and Bernard Stolarski.

Society #80 is donating a $200 Academy gift card for the Immaculate Conception Church raffle and is sponsoring the silent auction at the church bazaar on September 24. Members also approved donations to the Priest and Religious Retirement Fund as well as to Immaculate Conception Church for the use of the ICC Center for meetings. Plans were finalized for the Member Appreciation Day which will be held at the Hill Center on September 17 starting at 1 p.m. A catered meal will be served at 5 p.m. There will be a silent auction, door prizes and, of course, plenty of time to play dominoes, other games, or just socializing.

Our society is planning to conduct a raffle to raise funds for scholarships and other charitable donations. Tickets will be available on September 17 to those who attend the Appreciation Day, and the remainder will be mailed to the members.

The last item of discussion was the Ministry Fair on August 27 at the church center. We will have a table with informational handouts, as well as KJT pens, emery boards, and snacks for the parishioners who attend.

In Memoriam of...

The members of the Catholic Union of Texas, the KJT, wish to express their sincere and heartfelt sympathy to the families and friends of the departed members who are listed above. May their souls rest in peace.

“S Panem Bohem, a na Shledanou” (Goodbye & God be with you until we meet again.)

asset to Johnnie throughout his life as he had the gift of being able to communicate with the old-time Czechs in the community – making an endearing connection with the people.

Growing up on a farm, just east of Ennis, his family attended many of the local church picnics and dances usually held at the KJT Hall or National Hall (now the SPJST Lodge #25) giving his Czech and polka culture a strong foundation. Attending St. John Catholic School, he became proficient on the clarinet and drums, understanding the musicians side of the music. He would leave the fields at noon so he could listen to polka music broadcast from Corsicana. When he was fifteen he got his driver’s license and began going to the KJT Hall to the polka dances on his own. These excursions and the radio helped build his love of polka music.

After graduating from St. John High School in 1950, the Army calls-up Johnnie I. and sends him to Germany. In 1955, Johnnie leaves his friends’ wedding reception at the KJT hall with Margaret (Martinek), a girl he had met at the KJT hall with Margaret, his sweetheart Margaret, his love of polka music.

Ending his polka show each Sunday with “S Panem Bohem, a na shlehanou” takes on a new meaning now as Johnnie makes his final “sign off”. In English… “Goodbye & God be with you until we meet Again.”

Johnnie I. Krajca 1932-2017

Attending rural schools as a youngster, five-year-old Johnnie would come home from school asking his parents “Mluve’ Anglisky?” which means “Do ya’l know English?” His momma replied in English, “Yes, we do, but we wanted you to learn Czech!” The Czech language would become an midnight program coming out of St. Louis, Missouri. On weekends he listened to music by the Kubin’s and other local bands broadcast from Corsicana. When he was fifteen he got his driver’s license and began going to the KJT Hall to the polka dances on his own. These excursions and the radio helped build his love of polka music.

After graduating from St. John High School in 1950, the Army calls-up Johnnie I. and sends him to Germany. In 1955, Johnnie leaves his friends’ wedding reception at the KJT hall with Margaret (Martinek), a girl he had met at a 4th of July celebration at the National Hall and proposed to her in front of St. John Church. She accepted and they have been “polka dancing” ever since. He married his sweetheart in 1956 and along came their four girls: Rita, Marlene, Laure and Allis.

In May of 1964, Johnnie’s polka show went on the air. However, the show was prerecorded, and this bothered him. He desired to be more connected with the listeners, so after a short while, he signed on the air, live in the studio, with an all request show which continued in that format for over forty- eight years. He always considered his program “a show produced by his listeners”.

Johnnie was a member of all the fraternal lodges in Ennis KJT for 76 years, SOKOL for 56 years, American Legion for 61 years, and SPJST and RVOS for 61 years. In the mid 60’s Johnnie began selling SPJST and RVOS insurance and also held the office of president of each organization. He was President of SPJST Lodge #25 when the hall burned to the ground and was instrumental in rebuilding the lodge.

Johnnie was proud of his Czech heritage; he was an avid lover of polka music and a fraternalist at heart. He enjoyed seeing people happy, loved a good joke, a good cold beer “dobre zima pivo” and a good bargain. But more than anything, he loved his family; his sweetheart Margaret, his “pretty grandmas”, his “pretty girls”, and his “mali sivak” grandchildren.

The members of the Catholic Union of Texas, the KJT, wish to express their sincere and heartfelt sympathy to the families and friends of the departed members who are listed above. May their souls rest in peace.
