MESSAGE FROM OUR ACTIVITY MANAGER

We had a great visit with Charles Waligura, President of KJT Society #56, Houston. He takes on a large role in this festival, helping to provide great music, good food, and of course cold and refreshing beverages. The KJT State office sponsored the kolache eating contest, which is always a blast to see how fast one can eat a kolache. I want to thank Big Ed Marik, president of KJT Society #40 for stepping in and helping David and I with the contest.

In May, I will have a busy schedule once more. We begin with Mother’s Day celebrations, honoring all our Mothers that are still here with us on this great day and all the mothers that have gone to be with our Lord. They may not be here with us, but they are always in our hearts and not forgotten. Also in May, I will have several scholarship presentations, our board meeting for May and then I will be looking forward to the National Polka Festival in Ennis on Memorial Day weekend. We always take the time to visit with the officers of the National Polka Festival and look forward to the great hospitality given by the KJT Society #35, Ennis. Our KJT home office will be having a kolache eating contest this year in downtown Ennis on Saturday. There is always a great time to be had in Ennis.

On June 8th, I’ll be looking forward to the Klobase Kolache Festival in East Bernard. The KJT home office will be holding our 3rd annual kolache eating contest this year. This is always another fulfilled event sponsored by KJT Society #40 in East Bernard.

We would like to congratulate William Carbajal, Thomas Pesek, and Linda Sonntag as our 2019 Springfest Kolache Eating Contest Winners!! Congratulations to everybody!!

MESSAGE FROM OUR STATE ATTORNEY

LEGAL CORNER

“Municipal Utility District”

Question: I am considering purchasing a lot in a new subdivision that is outside the city limits but the developer says the subdivision is in a MUD. What is a MUD and what do I need to know about a MUD?

A Municipal Utility District (MUD) is a special district within the State of Texas approved by the Texas Commission of Environmental Quality (TCEQ) or Texas Legislature. Developers petition to create a MUD to provide utilities such as water, sewage, storm drainage, and garbage disposal in areas where the city cannot feasibly serve. Due to this being an impediment for cities, MUDs are generally located outside of city limits but within its Extraterritorial Jurisdiction (ETJ) of the nearby city. Developers are required to put forth the money to finance the infrastructure and tie into the nearby city’s utilities. Owning a lot within a MUD is similar in manner to owning property within the city’s boundaries. After a MUD is approved, five persons are appointed to the MUD’s board of directors until an election for permanent positions is held by members in the district. The directors then approve a debt limit funded through bonds. The bonds are paid off over time by the members (landowners) through a MUD tax, similar to city taxes. The tax rates within the special district vary with respect to the approved debt for the MUD and the property value for each individual house/lot. However, on average the MUD tax rates continually decrease due to more homeowners entering the area and distributing the associated cost of the debt. Finally, the nearby city has the option of annexing the MUD. If the city annexes the land served by the MUD before all of the debt is paid, the city must assume the debt and reimburse the developer for any improvements that have yet to be bonded.

In retrospect, whether you own a lot in the city limits or a MUD, many of the same utilities and services will be provided and charged for in a similar fashion.

29th ANNUAL KOLACHE KLOBASE FESTIVAL

This is the 29th year for the annual Czech Kolache Klobase Festival scheduled for Saturday, June 8, 2019 at Riverside Hall in East Bernard, Texas. This event brings people together to enjoy good music, good food and to celebrate ethnic heritage and culture. Beginning at 10:30 a.m. and continuing nonstop until 8 p.m., this year’s festival again features a first-rate lineup of entertainers. This year’s entertainers include the Ennis Czech Boys, Czech & Then Some, Dujka Bros., Red Ravens, Texas Sound Check and The Road Company. There will again be a three-band concert at 4:30 pm inside the hall featuring Czech & Then Some, Dujka Bros. and Red Ravens. Festival admission is $8.00 per person - children 12 and under free. The admission fee covers all entertainment and music provided by bands and entertainers in the hall and outdoors in the pavilion. Parking is free and there are plenty of handicapped parking spaces. Massive water fans will cool the pavilion to provide a more comfortable setting for dancers and spectators. A large mesh canopy will cover a large area in front of the stage for the annual Kolache Klobase Festival.

This year will again feature entertainment for the younger set. Kid games and activities will keep the youngsters occupied. They will also enjoy a performance at 2:00 p.m. by students from the "A Time To Dance" studio. This studio is under the direction and choreography of Morgan Fritz. A plate lunch will be available for purchase again this year featuring sausage, barbecue chicken, sauerkraut and other trimmings. The sausage and chicken will be prepared on site the morning of the festival by society members assuring a fresh cooked meal. Serving will begin at 11:00 a.m. Drive-thru plates-to-go will again be available from 11:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. Festival admission will not be charged for drive thru plate customers. Of course, there will be hundreds of kolaches for sale throughout the day. As in prior years, hamburgers and sausage sandwiches will be available for purchase in the afternoon.

This year will again feature a drawing of a number of great prizes including hand-made beautiful quilts. Drawing tickets are available from each KJT Society member and from various local businesses. KJT Society #129, Schulenburg

ST. AUGUSTINE SOCIETY 129’S Annual Matching Grant Turkey Shoot contest was canceled due to bad weather, but that did not stop the society from shooting the Big Card Shootout Raffle. These cards were sold prior to the contest. Society officers presented a check of the proceeds with a matching grant from the Home Office to the American Legion McBride Post 143, in Schulenburg, to help with the restoration of the stage curtain from the Tri-Association Dance Hall.

The stage curtain was painted in the late 1920s by local Weimar artist Edmund R. Horak and hung in the Schulenburg Turner Hall. The hall was purchased in 1936 by a Tri-Association made up of the local American Legion Post, the Dairy Association, and the Volunteer Fire Department. By 1965 the American Legion Post had sole ownership of the hall until 2004 when it was sold to the Boys and Girls Club of Champion Valley. The stage curtain was removed and donated to the Schulenburg Historical Museum where it currently hangs on loan in Senglemann’s Hall in Schulenburg. The American Legion is working closely with the Schulenburg Historical Museum on the restoration plans.

OLD SCHOOL MEMORIES

The Year the School Bell Stopped at New Tabor

As May wraps up, we find ourselves celebrating graduations, and some of us find ourselves reminiscing the days when we were in school. We often hear stories about when someone began his school years and the way they had to walk many miles through rain, sleet, or snow to a one-room schoolhouse. The following is the firsthand story of Joe J. Rychlik, member of KJT Society #100 in Caldwell, Burleson County, Texas. He was six years old in September of 1952 and began his school years at the New Tabor country school in Burleson County. New Tabor was settled in the late 1880s by families from the Czech lands in what was to become Czechoslovakia. The Rychlik family came from Vizovice, Moravia, in 1882 and bought property near to where the schoolhouse was now located.

Joe J. Rychlik
Caldwell, Texas

Joe J. Rychlik, so excited to begin first grade at New Tabor School because my brother, Bernard, was eight years older than me and I had attended many programs at the school with him and my parents, Emil and Rosie. The Halloween Carnivals, Christmas plays, and Easter egg hunts were always fun. I had just turned six years of age and would be in the first grade. Bernard and I would have to walk two miles to the schoolhouse, which was next to the New Tabor Czech-Moravian church, which then Bernard would then catch the school bus that took him to Caldwell High School.

My Mom fixed me a sandwich made with a fried egg between two pieces of her homemade bread, probably a pear from our tree, and a homemade kolach or cookie. She placed those items in my new metal lunch box, which I still have. She did the same for Bernard, but he used a paper bag to carry his lunch. I don't remember the weather, but I suppose it was clear since I seldom remembered wearing rain gear. Off we went. Bernard would catch the school bus at the New Tabor SPJST hall, but this day he walked the short distance to the schoolhouse so I wouldn't be afraid.

The schoolhouse was a large, two-room structure that was built in the 1920s. It had two rooms, but since the population of students had declined, only one teacher was needed for all the eight grades. So, one large room was enough. As we stepped upon the porch, I was greeted by my teacher, Mrs. Helen Kaiser. I had already known her and knew I would like her. Bernard left me there to catch his bus, and they showed where to put my lunch box in a small room that held other kids' lunches, and possibly a coat.

This room was referred to as the "cloak room." We continued into the room that had rows of school desks, a teacher's desk, and a huge wood burning stove in one corner. There were windows on two walls and blackboards on the other walls. Some of the students were already in the room, getting ready for the new school year. I mentioned that the student numbers had declined; well, this year, there would only be eleven students in all eight grades. Yes, you read correctly. There were eleven students and one teacher. Some classes had only one student, but my first-grade partner was Henry Ondrasek. My cousin, Daniel Hyvl, was alone in the second, and another cousin, Jerry Urbanovsky (brother of Georgie Nors) and David Moore were third graders. Ruby Ondrasek, Florica Horcica, Cecilia Moore, and Betty Peters were alone in their respective grades, 4, 5, 6, and 7. Elizabeth Ferrell and Hubert Horcica completed the student body as 8th graders. This was the smallest population ever, and the plan was to have the school operate this school year and then it, along with some other country schools, would be consolidated with Caldwell ISD. Mrs. Kaiser told us that this would be a good year, and we should study hard because the next school term would be at a more progressive school. She kinda put the "fear" into us to do well.

Mrs. Kaiser rang the hand bell, and classes began at 9 am sharp. I don't recall how everything fell into place, but I clearly remember Hubert raised the US flag, we said the Pledge of Allegiance, the Lord's Prayer, and school began. Henry and I sat in two small desks in one row. I still have one of the small desks that came from New Tabor School, but I don't know if it was the one I sat in that school year. Henry and I both knew some of our numbers, a few ABCs, and were ready to learn something new. It only seemed a while, and the bell rang, indicating the morning recess. We all ran out of the building and decided what to do for the 15-minute break.

There was a water cistern next to the school building that had a hand pump. Someone pumped water into a large white water bucket, and we all took turns drinking from one dipper, yes, one dipper. If we needed to go to the restroom, well, it was out back — one
OUTDOOR TOILET FOR THE BOYS AND ONE FOR THE GIRLS. THE SMALL BUILDINGS RESEMBLED THE PORT-A-POTTIES OF TODAY. THE ONLY DIFFERENCE WAS THAT MORE THAN ONE PERSON COULD VISIT DUE TO THE \textit{T\-W\-O\-H\-O\-L\-E\-R.} MANY OF YOU WILL KNOW WHAT THAT MEANS. SOON IT WAS TIME TO GET BACK INTO THE SCHOOL ROOM AND CONTINUE. THE NEXT TIME THE BELL RANG, IT WAS TIME FOR LUNCH OR DINNER AS IT WAS CALLED IN 1952. WE FOUND OUR LUNCH BOXES, AND SOME SAT OUTSIDE (WEATHER PERMITTING), OTHERS AT THEIR DESKS. DURING THE SCHOOL YEAR, WE LEARNED TO TRADE FOOD WITH EACH OTHER, LIKE APPLES FOR A PEAR, PRESSED HAM SANDWICH FOR FRIED EGG, ETC. AS SOON AS WE ATE, WE PLAYED GAMES IN THE SCHOOLYARD. USUALLY, KICK THE CAN, ANDY OVER, SOMETIMES BASEBALL WITH LIMITED PLAYERS ON EACH TEAM, AND TAG. CRACK THE WHIP WAS POPULAR, WITH MRS. KAISER BEING THE LEADER. I DON’T THINK SHE EVER FELL DOWN. FOLLOW THE LEADER WAS FUN. A BIGGER KID WAS THE LEADER, AND WE FOLLOWED CAREFULLY, EVEN WALKING ON THE LARGE ROW OF CUT, STACKED, CORDWOOD.

A SIDE STORY HERE: ONE DAY WHILE FOLLOWING THE LEADER, I FELL FROM THE WOOD STACK, AND FLORICE HEARD ME SAY A CURSE WORD. WELL, SHE IMMEDIATELY TOLD MRS. KAISER AND MY PUNISHMENT WAS DETERMINED. IT WAS: WHILE ALL THE KIDS WERE WATCHING, MRS. KAISER TOOK A SMALL BAR OF SOAP, RUBBED SOME ONTO A CLOTH, HAD ME OPEN MY MOUTH, AND GENTLY “WASHED” OUT MY CURSE WORD. SHE HAD ME QUICKLY RINSE. I DON’T REMEMBER TASTING SHE ASKED MRS. KAISER IF SHE COULD TAKE ME A BIT SOONER THAN 4 PM. I WAS SO HAPPY TO SEE HER. THIS WAS THE ONLY TIME I GOT HOMESICK, BUT I THINK MOM WAS LONELY WITH THE LOVE OF MRS. KAISER, ALL THE STUDENTS, MY DAD, MY BROTHER, AND NEW TABOR FAMILIES, LIFE CONTINUED. BEFORE YOU KNOW IT, VALENTINE’S DAY WAS HERE. THE GIRLS DECORATED A BOX TO PLACE OUR VALENTINES IN. WE ALL GAVE CARDS TO EACH OTHER AND A SPECIAL ONE FOR MRS. KAISER. I STILL HAVE SOME OF THE ONES I RECEIVED.

Next was Easter, and before you know it, the end of the school year. The last day of school, Mrs. Kaiser gave each student nine cents. Why do you ask? Back then, the Saturday afternoon movie at the theatre in Caldwell cost nine cents. This was her way of giving a gift and making sure no one was given more than the other.

We got two days off at Thanksgiving. On Wednesday before Thanksgiving Day, everyone was given copies of turkeys, pumpkins, and pilgrims for us to color. Remember when we were limited to the original eight colors in a Crayola box? Eight colors were all we had, so the pictures were pretty much the same, with the exception of how good the artist was. Everyone enjoyed Christmas time. Even with our limited student body, we put on a simple play. Since the school did not have a stage, the SPJST members permitted us to use the hall for our Christmas play and party. Two weeks before the event, each afternoon, we walked the short distance to the hall to prepare for the play and lastly to decorate. The big night came, and the hall filled with parents and most of New Tabor residents. After this night, we were dismissed from school until early January. We returned to school after the holidays, ready for more learning. My Mom fell ill this year and passed away the last of January, and things changed. However, MY TIME IN NEW TATOR WAS MEMORABLE, AND I STILL HOLD ON TO MANY MEMORIES FROM MY FIRST-GRADE YEAR. THE FALL OF 1953 FOUND ME WALKING TO NEW TABOR HALL WITH BERNARD SO I COULD CATCH THE SCHOOL BUS TO CALDWELL TO MAKE NEW FRIENDS IN THE SECOND GRADE. HOWEVER, THAT IS ANOTHER STORY.

For her baby, and she walked the 4-mile round trip to “save” me. The school year continued, and I learned to read better from “Dick and Jane” books. With each grade having a student, Mrs. Kaiser had to offer each something about various subjects, so older students helped the younger ones. Eighth-grade student, Elizabeth, helped Henry and me with simple spelling words, counting more numbers, adding and subtracting and reading harder books.

The first-holiday party was Halloween. Since there were so few students, Mrs. Kaiser set aside the afternoon for parents to bring treats and join us in food and some merriment. In years past, a Halloween Carnival was held at night. I remember going with my family to see students dressed in homemade costumes, and we played games. Bingo was my favorite.

On April 14, District VIII held its Annual Family Day at Bowers Lake. It started out a little windy and cool but turned out to be nice by later in the afternoon. There was a total of 11 fish caught and measured ranging from 8” Kathy Muzny to 22 ¼” Dustin Hart. Anthony Muzny ran a close 2nd with 22” catfish. Gregory Perry brought in 20 ¾” catfish. Tyler, Hannah, and Kyle Pecht caught the bass ranging from 10 ¼” to 13”. There was a short meeting followed by door prizes and a meal, including desserts that everyone brought. District VIII presented Lillie Mae Brinkman with a gift card for allowing us to come out to her lake house. Thanks to Jimmy and Carolyn for cooking the hotdogs on his special bar-b- q pit he brings every year. We would like to thank everyone who came out and hope to see you next year!

Please remember to update your records at the KJT Home Office periodically. With the turn of the century, home phone lines are becoming extinct, and most of us use our cell phones as our main lines. It’s important that we have up-to-date communication information here on record. We are proud to personally deliver membership notices, and make it part of our success that we recognize those who have been a part of our organization for so long.

SOCIETY MINUTES

St. Stephen's KJT #112 Austin
Sarah Vitek, Reporter

The meeting of St. Stephen's KJT #112 was held on Thursday, May 9, 2019, at Quality Seafood Restaurant. President Mike Hyzak opened the meeting with a prayer followed by the Pledge of Allegiance.

The secretary and treasurer's reports were presented. Vice-President Anne Hyzak sent a get-well card to Edward Merka, who had surgery, memorials to the families of Sophie Zvonek and Martha Watkins and a sympathy card to the family of Garrie Struhlall. A thank-you card was received from Nick and Shirley Mack for the society's acknowledgment of their many years of service as officers. We dearly miss you but know you are enjoying your new location.

Ted Vitek reported that Chris Ermis has transferred from the Dubina Society to Austin Society #112. Welcome Chris and we look forward to meeting you at our society functions. Ted also noted that April was a good month for KJT.

The annual outing to the Round Rock Express ballgame and tailgate will be on Sunday, June 30 beginning at 4:00 p.m. Fifty-two members and guests are expected to attend for fellowship and are hoping to see a great game to end the evening. This event seems to be growing each year as this is the largest participation we've ever had.

The Czech Bake Sale is to be held at St. Albert the Great Church on June 23 from 8:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. This will be a fund-raiser with a matching grant to benefit Down Home Ranch.

Also mentioned was the Down Home Ranch volunteer activity. Sarah Vitek contacted them and the poinsettia planting will take place in August. The information will be posted on their website and Sarah will let the members know the dates for this. Members participated in this last year and enjoyed it so much, we want to do that again this year.

It was voted on that we again make a donation to the Sacred Heart fiesta. This will be good exposure as the KJT will be listed as a donor on the tickets.

The members were reminded that the State Family Day will be on July 21 at the KJT Activity Center in La Grange. See the KJT News for more information.

The next regular meeting will be Thursday, September 12 at 6:30 p.m. at Pok-e-Joe's Bar-b-q, 2121 W. Parmer Lane.

The meeting adjourned with a closing prayer. Meghan Motloch won the society drawing.

KJT Society #80, Sealy
Bernice Stolarski

The officers met at 6 p.m. to discuss the agenda. The meal was served by Rita and Fred Patek. This was followed by the regular meeting beginning with a prayer and Pledge of Allegiance led by President Larry Kuciemba.

Roll call of officers followed. Secretary Bernice Stolarski read the minutes and treasurer Steven Kutra gave his report. Both were approved. Our society won a $300 Mastercard gift card at the Lifeteen Fundraiser.

The scholarship committee approved the three scholarship applications that had been submitted. These were Micaela Kuenstler, Morgan Janda, and Emily Cerny. Possible church projects were presented but no decisions were made.

The next meeting will be May 28 at the ICC Center.

KJT Society #35, Ennis
Yzonne Zapletal

It has been awhile since KJT #35 has checked in. In December we had our election of officers meeting followed by our annual Christmas party with a visit from Santa to the Youth Clubs party. From a profitable fund raiser the Youth Club was able to purchase a TV and some fun games for the kids to be able use in the activity room at the hall when they are there. Our 2019 elected officers are Joe Block, President, Ashley Holland, Vice President, Joe E. Landsfeld, Treasurer, Yzonne Zapletal, Secretary and Joe Smith as Chaplin. The party was a great success with many families attending.

On April 14th Youth leader Angie Anderson hosted a Easter egg hunt, party and games. Even with unpredictable weather there were about 25 in attendance. Every one had a good time visiting.

We are now gearing up for the National Polka Festival where we will open the festival Friday, May 24th with Molly B and Ted Lange. On Saturday the kitchen will be open and ready to serve that great BBQ meal as you listen to the Ennis Czech Boys and Jodie Mikula Orchestra during the day.

Saturday night we will change directions and host the country concert with Josh Ward and Kody West. We expect a very big turn out and look forward to seeing all of our friends from the KJT across Texas.

In March, Society #35 joined hands with the SPJST #25 in Ennis to collect socks for Warm Feet for Warriors. The organization provides new socks for service members that are currently serving and veterans that are in need.
