WHY DO WE WEAR MASKS?

Following is a letter from a parishioner to Fr. Ed that explains why we should wear masks as an act of charity to one another.
*Six weeks ago after watching Mass on my Ipad at home, I returned to church. I'm a widow, so being with others and having the solace of receiving communion at this time of stress compelled me to return. I've seen you, Fr. Pete, and Fr. Gerry Cunningham remind the congregation re: wearing masks, and why we wear them. The church has done a good job of managing safe distancing in the pews and directions for communion. However, three out of the six weeks I've been back, people sat in the same pew as me without masks. Being a senior, it makes me anxious. I try to get to church early and sit in the middle of the pew knowing I can safely be 6 feet away from anyone coming in later. With the recent increase in cases, my children are advising me to stay home from church. I have neighbors who have told me they have stopped going to St.
Tim's for the same reason. I realize this has probably caused a decline in contributions which are so important to continue the mission of the church. I recognize that wearing a mask is not the most comfortable thing for any of us, and I don't know what discretion you have to make this decision, but I implore you to make mask wearing mandatory when attending Mass. It is the least we can do for each other.*

A woman came home from work late, tired and irritated, to find her 5-year old son waiting for her at the door.

SON: "Mummy, may I ask you a question?"

MUM: "Yeah sure, what is it?" replied the woman.

SON: "Mummy, how much do you make an hour?"

MUM: "That's none of your business. Why do you ask such a thing?" the woman said angrily.

SON: "I just want to know. Please tell me, how much do you make an hour?"

MUM: "If you must know, I make $20.00 an hour."

SON: "Oh," the little boy replied, with his head down.

SON: "Mummy, may I please borrow $5.00?"

The mother was furious, "If the only reason you ask that is so you can borrow some money to buy a silly toy or some other nonsense, then march yourself straight to your room and go to bed. Think about why you are being so selfish. I don't work hard everyday for such childish frivolities."

The little boy quietly went to his room and shut the door.

The woman sat down and started to get even angrier about the little boy's questions. How dare he ask such questions only to get some money?

After about an hour or so, the woman had calmed down, and started to think:

Maybe there was something he really needed to buy with that $5.00 and he really didn't ask for money very often. The woman went to the door of the little boy's room and opened the door.

"Are you asleep, son?" she asked.

"No, Mummy, I'm awake," replied the boy.

"I've been thinking, maybe I was too hard on you earlier," said the woman. "It's been a long day and I took out my aggravation on you. Here's the $5.00 you asked for."

The little boy sat straight up, smiling. "Oh, thank you, Mummy!" he yelled. Then reaching under his pillow, he pulled out some crumpled up bills.

The woman saw that the boy already had money, she started to get angry again.

The little boy slowly counted out his money, and then looked up at his mother.

"Why do you want more money if you already have some?" the mother grumbled.

"Because I didn't have enough, but now I do," the little boy replied.

"Mummy, I have $20.00 now. Can I buy an hour of your time. Please come home early tomorrow. I would like to have dinner with you."

The mother was crushed. She put her arms around her little son, and she begged for his forgiveness.

It's just a short reminder to all of you working so hard in life. We should not let time slip through our fingers without having spent some time with those who really matter to us. Those close to our hearts. Do remember to share that $20.00 worth of your time with someone you love.

My deepest thanks to all parishioners of St. Timothy parish for all you do to increase charity and to take on sacrifice.

REOPENING CHURCH

Church is reopened with the regular daily and weekend Mass Schedule.

For those who have concerns about attending weekend Mass at this time:

"The obligation to attend Mass on Sunday is lifted until further notice." – Bishop John Noonan

If you have reservations about coming to church on the weekends, think about coming to daily mass to be able to receive the Blessed Sacrament.

A few items of importance:

- We ask all parishioners to wear a mask as an act of charity to one another.. Please remove mask when receiving communion.
- Entry will be through the Main Entrance to the church (off 441/27). Handicap entry is currently closed.
- When the number of parishioners equals the number of persons permitted, remaining parishioners will be directed to the Hall until that fills.
- Holy Water fonts are empty. Health safety restrictions will not allow the use of the sacramental of Holy Water in this way. However, it is most appropriate to continue the gesture of making the sign of the cross upon entering church.
- There will be no basket passed during the collection. Baskets will be available at the doors of the church to accept your donations.
- Sign of Peace—it will be appropriate to offer a reverent bow and or verbal greeting.
- Reception of Holy Communion will be in the form of the Sacred Host only and will be received on the hand.
- There will be no Hymnals or Missals available. If you wish to access the information on your phone, that will be acceptable at this time.
- When leaving church, please remember to maintain social distancing. Wave from afar and leave the church property to share fellowship.

Bishop Noonan has updated the video directed to parishioners regarding coming back to church. It can be found at <https://www.orlandodiocese.org/bishop-noonans-reopening-message/>. The updated print version can also be found at the above link.

SACRAMENT OF PENANCE

"In case of physical or moral impossibility in which a person cannot personally go to confession to a priest, according to the Catechism of the Catholic Church and the Code of Canon Law, a person is to make an Act of Contrition with a sincere desire to go to confession as soon as it is possible" (CCC 1484; CIC 960).

BELIEVE IN GOD WHO IS TRUTH

How many times have so many of us wished we could talk with Jesus, touch him, speak to him in person? Apparently, Christians earlier centuries had similar thoughts, as Saint John Chrysostom indicates here. even though our five senses are not satisfied with the externals of the Blessed Sacrament, Christ is present just as really now as he was at the Last Supper and on Easter night appearing to the apostles. Stir up your belief in God.

Then, let us believe God in everything, and contradict him in nothing, though what is said seems to be contrary to our thoughts and senses. Rather, let his word be of higher authority than both our thoughts and eyes. Thus let us do with the mysteries also, not looking at the things set before us, but keeping in mind Christ's sayings.

For his word cannot deceive, but our senses are easily beguiled. His word has never failed, but things go wrong with our senses. Since then the word says, "This is my body," let us both be persuaded and believe, and look at it with the eyes of the mind.

How many now say, I would wish to see his form, the mark, his clothes, his shoes. Behold! You see him, you touch him, you eat him. You desire to see his clothes, but he gives himself to you not to see only, but also to touch and eat and receive within you.

Let no one approach the sacraments with indifference, let no one be faint-hearted; rather let everyone have burning hearts, all fervent, all aroused. For if Jews at the first Passover stood, having their shoes on and their staffs in their hands, ate with haste, much more ought you be watchful. For they indeed were to go forth to Palestine, wherefore they had the garb of pilgrims, but you are on your way to heaven.

Saint John Chrysostom, Homily 82 on Matthew

In God's presence, consider. . . .

Do I doubt God's power at work in my life through the sacraments?

Do I make acts of faith and love so as to place trust in divine truth ahead of my feelings?

Closing Prayer

Lord God, with the apostles I pray: I believe, help my unbelief!

(Source: "A Year With The Eucharist," Paul Jerome Keller, O.P., Saint Benedict Press, 2018)

Mental prayer in my opinion is nothing else than an intimate sharing between friends; it means taking time frequently to be alone with Him who we know loves us. The important thing is not to think much but to love much and so do that which best stirs you to love. Love is not great delight but desire to please God in everything.

Teresa of Avila

MINUTE MEDITATIONS FOR EACH DAY

Those who sow in tears will reap with shouts of joy.

-Ps 126:5

REFLECTION:

How would I be able to endure this earthly life, heavy and burdensome as it is, if I did not know that it is just an instance compared with eternity! Now is the time to sow, and later the harvest will be gathered.

Through patient endurance of the sufferings of this life the eternal glory will be attained.

PRAYER.

God of love, do not abandon me in the midst of darkness. Grant that my troubles and needs enrich my soul and bring it safely to eternal life with You.

(Source: Minute Meditations For Each Day," Rev. Bede Naegel, O.C.D. Catholic Book Publishing, 1982)

AN ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus,
I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love You above all things,
and I desire to receive You into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment
receive You sacramentally,
come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.
Never permit me to be separated from You.
Amen

HOLY IS HIS NAME

CATECHISM CORNER: HOW TO EAT AN ELEPHANT
ONE BITE AT A TIME

Article 44 of the Catechism of the Catholic Church:

MAN is by nature and vocation a religious being. Coming from God, man lives a fully human life only if he freely lives by his bond with God.

REFLECTION:

There's a Zen-like irony to this: the only way to be fully human during our time on earth is to commit our lives to an unseen God who calls us to a reality beyond what we can know in the present road.

PRAYER:

Jesus, you promised that if we would seek first the kingdom of heaven, everything else would fall into place. Keep the promise you have made to your servants and supply all our needs.

AAG
Retire Better

Are you 62 or older?

Discover how homeowners, age 62 and older, have already taken advantage of an FHA insured Home Equity Conversion Mortgage (HECM) loan to enjoy a more secure and comfortable retirement.

Would you like to:

- ✓ Eliminate mortgage payments? (Borrower must continue to pay property taxes, homeowners insurance, and home maintenance costs.)
- ✓ Afford in-home care rather than age in a facility?
- ✓ Receive money monthly should a spouse pass?
- ✓ Travel, fix up your home, or enjoy life?

Applying is easy. Call today for a free consultation.
