KNOW

"I know who you are—the Holy One of God!"

MARK 1:24

FOR ALL GRANDPARENTS OR FUTURE GRANDPARENTS

She was in the bathroom, putting on her makeup, under the watchful eyes of her young granddaughter, as she had done many times before. After she applied her lipstick and started to leave, the little one said, "But Grandma, you forgot to kiss the toilet paper good-bye!" I will probably never put lipstick on again without thinking about kissing the toilet paper good-bye.

My young grandson called the other day to wish me Happy Birthday. He asked me how old I was and I told him 62. My grandson was quiet for a moment and then he asked, "Did you start at 1?"

After putting her grandchildren to bed, a grandmother changed into old slacks and a droopy blouse and proceeded to wash her hair. As she heard the children getting more and more rambunctious, her patience grew thin. Finally she threw a towel around her head and stormed into their room putting them back to bed with stern warnings. As she left the room, she heard the three-year-old say with a trembling voice, "Who was THAT?"

A grandmother was telling her little granddaughter what her own childhood was like. "We used to skate outside on a pond. I had a swing made from a tire; it hung from a tree in our front yard. We rode our pony. We picked wild raspberries in the woods."

The little girl was wide-eyed taking this all in. At last she said, "I sure wish I had gotten to know you sooner!"

My grandson was visiting one day when he asked, "Grandma, do you know how you and God are alike?" I mentally polished my halo and I said, "No, how are we alike?" "You are both old," he replied.

A little girl was diligently pounding away on her grandfather's word processor. She told him she was writing a story. "What is it about?" he asked. "I do not know," she replied. "I cannot read."

I did not know if my granddaughter had learned her colors yet, so I decided to test her. I would point out something and ask what color it was. She would tell me and was always correct. It was fun for me, so I continued. At last, she headed for the door saying, "Grandma, I think you should try to figure out some of these colors yourself!"

My deepest thanks to all parishioners of St. Timothy parish for all you do to increase charity and to take on sacrifice.

CELEBRATION OF ASH WEDNESDAY

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 17, 2021

While Ash Wednesday is not a holyday of obligation and there is no requirement for the clergy and faithful to receive the imposition of ashes, it is rightly observed as a celebration of high importance.

Imposition of ashes is not mandatory; however, it is a traditional exterior sign of our interior conversion. The interior spirit in which the holy season of Lent is entered is what is most important.

MANNER IN WHICH ASHES WILL BE DISTRIBUTED ON ASH WEDNESDAY 2021.

The Priest says the prayer for blessing the ashes. He sprinkles the ashes with holy water, without saying anything. Then he addresses all those present and only once says the formula as it appears in the Roman Missal, applying it to all in general: "Repent, and believe in the Gospel", or "Remember that you are dust, and to dust you shall return".

The Priest (or minister) takes the ashes and sprinkles them on the head of each one without saying anything.

THE SECRET TO EVERYTHING

We have photos of her. Maybe you, like me, were even in her presence.

Mother Teresa holds nothing back. And she tells us how to do the same.

My secret is quite simple. I pray.

It was the Apostles who asked Jesus: "Jesus, teach us to pray," because they saw him so often pray and they knew that he was talking to his Father. What those hours of prayer must have been we know only from the continual love of Jesus for his Father, "My Father!" And he taught his disciples a very simple way of talking to God himself.

Before Jesus came, God was great in his majesty, great in his creation. And then when Jesus came, he became one of us, because his Father and he wanted us to learn to pray by loving one another as the Father has loved him.

"I love you," he kept on saying; "as the Father loved you; love him." And his love was the Bread of Life. And he wants us to pray with a clean heart. "Unless you become little children, you cannot learn to pray, you cannot enter heaven, you cannot see God." To become a little child means to be at peace with the Father, Our Father.

Prayer is nothing but being in the family, being one with the Father in the Son and the Holy Spirit - the love of the Father for his Son and the Holy Spirit. And the love - our love for the Father, through Jesus, his Son, filled with the Holy Spirit - is our union with God and the fruit of that union with God, the fruit of that prayer, what we call prayer. We have given it that name but actually prayer is nothing but that oneness with Christ.

-Saint Teresa of Calcutta, talk on prayer, June 8, 1980

In God's presence, consider . . .

In this world, full of wounds, noise, distraction, temptation, the least-tried strategy is the solution. Is there any doubt Mother Teresa loved? Loved radically? Loved, seemingly, impossibly? Do I want to love like her? Do I want to imitate Jesus? This is how to begin to grow in love.

Closing prayer

Father, help me. Help me see. Help me love like you love me. Completely.

Mother Teresa pray for me!

(Source: "A Year With The Mystics . . .," Kathryn Jean Lopez, St Benedict Press, 2019)

MINUTE MEDITATION

I have loved you with an everlasting love, so I have kept my faithfulness toward you.
-Jer 31:3

REFLECTION.

God is essentially love. Therefore, everything He commands me to do is because he loves me whether it brings me joy or pain.

I must never forget this, especially in times of difficulty and trial.

PRAYER.

Beloved Father, grant me the assurance of Your love. Then even at the hour of my Gethsemani I shall never cease to have peace in my heart.

(Source: "Minute Meditations For Each Day," Fr Bede Naegel, O.C.D., Catholic Book Publishing, 1993, 1982)

Everything and everyone is won by the sweetness of our words and works.

CATECHISM CORNER: HOW TO EAT AN ELEPHANT
ONE BITE AT A TIME

Article 332 of the Catechism of the Catholic Church: ANGELS have been present since creation and throughout the history of salvation, announcing this salvation from afar or near and serving the accomplishment of the divine plan.

REFLECTION.

God could have saved the world with a word, but he chose mediators to accomplish the work. First and foremost he sent his Son Jesus Christ.

Next, he sees the prayers of Mary and all the saints. Nearest to us are his Angels who assist us on our way to him.

PRAYER.

Holy angels, come to our aid! Guardian angel protect me and lead me to Christ.

PRESENTATION OF THE LORD
SAINT OF THE DAY FOR FEBRUARY 2

THE STORY OF THE PRESENTATION OF THE LORD

At the end of the fourth century, a woman named Etheria made a pilgrimage to Jerusalem. Her journal, discovered in 1887, gives an unprecedented glimpse of liturgical life there. Among the celebrations she describes is the Epiphany, the observance of Christ's birth, and the gala procession in honor of his Presentation in the Temple 40 days later. Under the Mosaic Law, a woman was ritually "unclean" for 40 days after childbirth, when she was to present herself to the priests and offer sacrifice—her "purification." Contact with anyone who had brushed against mystery—birth or death—excluded a person from Jewish worship. This feast emphasizes Jesus' first appearance in the Temple more than Mary's purification.

The observance spread throughout the Western Church in the fifth and sixth centuries. Because the Church in the West celebrated Jesus' birth on December 25, the Presentation was moved to February 2, 40 days after Christmas.

At the beginning of the eighth century, Pope Sergius inaugurated a candlelight procession; at the end of the same century the blessing and distribution of candles which continues to this day became part of the celebration, giving the feast its popular name: Candlemas.

REFLECTION

In Luke's account, Jesus was welcomed in the temple by two elderly people, Simeon and the widow Anna. They embody Israel in their patient expectation; they acknowledge the infant Jesus as the long-awaited Messiah. Early references to the Roman feast dub it the feast of Saint Simeon, the old man who burst into a song of joy which the Church still sings at day's end.

SAINT BLAISE

SAINT OF THE DAY FOR FEBRUARY 3

SAINT BLAISE'S STORY

We know more about the devotion to Saint Blaise by Christians around the world than we know about the saint himself. His feast is observed as a holy day in some Eastern Churches. In 1222, the Council of Oxford prohibited servile labor in England on Blaise's feast day. The Germans and Slavs hold him in special honor, and for decades many United States Catholics have sought the annual Saint Blaise blessing for their throats.

We know that Bishop Blaise was martyred in his episcopal city of Sebastea, Armenia, in 316. The legendary Acts of St. Blaise were written 400 years later. According to them Blaise was a good bishop, working hard to encourage the spiritual and physical health of his people. Although the Edict of Toleration (311), granting freedom of worship in the Roman Empire, was already five years old, persecution still raged in Armenia. Blaise was apparently forced to flee to the back country. There he lived as a hermit in solitude and prayer, but he made friends with the wild animals. One day a group of hunters seeking wild animals for the amphitheater stumbled upon Blaise's cave. They were first surprised and then frightened. The bishop was kneeling in prayer surrounded by patiently waiting wolves, lions and bears.

The legend has it that as the hunters hauled Blaise off to prison, a mother came with her young son who had a fish bone lodged in his throat. At Blaise's command the child was able to cough up the bone.

Agricolaus, governor of Cappadocia, tried to persuade Blaise to sacrifice to pagan idols. The first time Blaise refused, he was beaten. The next time he was suspended from a tree and his flesh torn with iron combs or rakes. Finally, he was beheaded.

REFLECTION

Four centuries give ample opportunity for fiction to creep in with fact. Who can be sure how accurate Blaise's biographer was? But biographical details are not essential. Blaise is seen as one more example of the power those have who give themselves entirely to Jesus. As Jesus told his apostles at the Last Supper, "If you remain in me and my words remain in you, ask for whatever you want and it will be done for you" (John 15:7). With faith we can follow the lead of the Church in asking for Blaise's protection.
