THE PINETREE CROSSES

Last April on a Sunday we took one of our "nowhere" drives, my husband was quietly driving a back road. I was occupied in the front passenger seat watching the scenery.

I noticed out of the corner of my eye that my husband was straining to look out my window. This startled me, since his eyes should be on the road in front of him. I asked him what he was looking at out the windows, and he quietly replied, "Nothing." His eyes went back to the road in front of him.

After a few minutes, I looked over at my husband and noticed a tear running down his cheek. I asked him what was wrong. This time he told me, "I was just thinking about Pop and a story he had once told me." Of course, because it had to do with his Pop I wanted to know the story, so I asked him to share it with me.

He said, "When I was about 8 years old, Pop and I were out fishing and that's when he told me that the Pine trees know when it is Easter."

I had no idea what he meant by that, so I pressed him for more information.

He continued on... "The Pine trees start their new growth in the weeks before Easter -- if you look at the tops of the Pine trees two weeks before, you will see the yellow shoots. As the days get closer to Easter Sunday, the tallest shoot will branch off and form a cross. By the time Easter Sunday comes around, you will see that most of the Pine trees will have small yellow crosses on all of the tallest shoots."

I turned to look out the window and I couldn't believe my eyes. It was a week before Easter, and you could see all of the trees with the tall yellow shoots stretching to Heaven.

The tallest ones shone in the sunlight like rows of tiny golden crosses.

My deepest thanks to all parishioners of St. Timothy parish for all you do to increase charity and to take on sacrifice.

Fr. Ed

Palm Sunday of the Lord's Passion

As we celebrate Palm Sunday of the Lord's Passion, we are reminded that Lent is coming to close and the Resurrection is nearing. In one week, we will celebrate Easter Sunday. Pray that the Lord allow you to accompany him serenely during these Easter mysteries and you may emerge from them renewed in faith, hope and charity.

Meet Me in the Desert

Lord of Lent, Lord of Easter, As you went into the desert So do I follow Putting aside that which distracts me Grabs at me Falsely claims me. To search inside To confront myself My best, my worst My good works and my sins.

And each time, I find you there To call to me again With words of challenge and words of mercy.

And as I fall to my knees, in prayer, in fasting In sacrifice and penitence Somehow, you have it in yourself to reach out and gently lift me To renew me To claim me as nothing of this world can claim me.

Meet me in the desert, Lord. Claim me anew.

Amen.

The Easter Triduum

The summit of the Liturgical Year is the Easter Triduum–from the evening of Holy Thursday to the evening of Easter Sunday. Though chronologically three days, they are liturgically one day unfolding for us the unity of Christ's Paschal Mystery.

The single celebration of the Triduum marks the end of the Lenten season, and leads to the Mass of the Resurrection of the Lord at the Easter Vigil.

Holy Thursday–April 1, 2021	Mass of the Lord's Supper
Good Friday–April 2, 2021	Good Friday of the Lord's Passion
Easter Sunday–April 4, 2021	Mass of the Resurrection of the Lord

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT

Beginning Palm Sunday weekend, March 27/28, the Church seating will increase to 50% of capacity. Please follow the Usher's guidance in seating. Mask wearing is required.

They clothed him in purple and, weaving a crown of thorns, placed it on him. They began to salute him with, "Hail, King of the Jews!" and kept striking his head with a reed and spitting upon him.

are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love You above all things,
and I desire to receive You into my soul.

MY SINS INJURED CHRIST

We can't imagine being among those who struck Jesus' face during his passion. But Blessed John Henry Newman insists that by our sins, we've caused him terrible pain all the same. Our hope lies in gazing on his injured face and beholding his forgiveness.

A hand was lifted against the face of Christ during his passion. Whose hand was that? My conscience tells me: "You are the man."

I trust it is not so with me now. But, O my soul, contemplate the awful fact. Imagine Christ standing before you, and imagine yourself lifting up your hand and striking him!

You will say, "It is impossible: I could not do that." But yes, you have done that. When you have sinned willfully, then you have done that.

He is beyond pain now: Still, you have struck him, and had it been in the days of his flesh, he would have felt pain. Turn back in memory, and recall the time, the day, the hour, when by willful mortal sin, or by scoffing at sacred things, or by profane behavior, or by dark hatred of this your Brother, or by the acts of impurity, or deliberate rejection of God's voice, or in any other devilish way you know, you have struck the all-holy one.

Injured Lord, what can I say? I am very guilty concerning you my Brother; and I will sink in sullen despair if you do not raise me up. I cannot look on you; I shrink from you; I throw my arms around my face; I crouch to the earth. Satan will pull me down. If you do not take pity on me. It is terrifying to turn to you. But if you turn to me, I will be turned.

It is a purgatory to endure the sight of you, the sight of myself - I most vile, you most holy. Yet make me look once more on you whom I have so incomprehensibly offended, for your countenance is my only life; my only hope and health lies in looking on you whom I have pierced.

-Blessed John Henry Newman, Meditations on Christian Doctrine, II, 1,6

In God's presence, consider . . .

Dare I imagine myself punching Jesus in the face? If my sins have injured him, dare I hesitate to confess them and ask for forgiveness

Closing Prayer:

Lord Jesus, how can I bear to look you in the face - the same face that I've disfigured through my sins? Those who treated you cruelly were acting on my behalf. Have mercy!

BULLETIN EARLY SUBMISSIONS

Due to early submission requirements, items for the:

- April 4 bulletin must be submitted no later than Monday, March 22.

Thank you for your cooperation.

BLESSED ARCHBISHOP FULTON J. SHEEN ON "THE CRUCIFIXION":

- The Cross is not something that has happened; the Crucifixion is something that is happening. It can be found at any place and at any hour in the human race, it is the epic struggle of the forces of good and evil.
- The death of Our Lord on the Cross reveals that we are meant to be perpetually dissatisfied here below. If earth were meant to be a Paradise, then He Who made it would never have taken leave of it on Good Friday. The commending of the Spirit to the Father was at the same time the refusal to commend it to earth. The completion or fulfillment of life is in heaven, not on earth.
- - . . . the sun refused to shine on the crucifixion! The light that rules the day, probably for the first and last time in history, was snuffed out like a candle when, according to every human calculation, it should have continued to shine. The reason is that the crowning crime of man, the killing of nature's Lord, could not pass without a protest from nature itself.

CATECHISM CORNER: HOW TO EAT AN ELEPHANT ONE BITE AT A TIME

Article 478 of the Catechism of the Catholic Church:
Jesus knew and loved us each and all during his life, his agony, and his Passion and gave himself up for each one of us: "The Son of God . . . loved me and gave himself for me."
Reflection.
Despite the many corporate ways in which Christians relate to Christ, as his Body, as his Church, and as his Bride, there is, notwithstanding these realities, an intensely personal and uniquely individual element of our relationship with Jesus.
Prayer.
Jesus, may I always be mindful that you have chosen to call me friend.

He served at St. James for 15 years and was then appointed pastor of St Mary in Rockledge. Throughout the years Msgr. Farrelly served as Diocesan Director of Hospitals; diocesan Consultor; Dean of Clergy; and Director of Catholic Charites. In 1965, Pope Paul VI named him a papal chamberlain with the title of monsignor for his distinguished service to the Church. Msgr. Farrelly retired in 1993. Msgr. Farrelly died on April 29, 2014.

THE SIGNIFICANCE OF HOLY THURSDAY

Except for the resurrection on Easter, Holy Thursday is possibly one of the most important, complex, and profound days of celebration in the Catholic Church. Holy Thursday celebrates the institution of the Eucharist as the true body and blood of Jesus Christ and the institution of the sacrament of the priesthood.

During the Last Supper, Jesus offers himself as the Passover sacrifice, the sacrificial lamb, and teaches that every ordained priest is to follow the same sacrifice in the exact same way. Christ also bids farewell to his followers and prophesizes that one of them will betray him and hand him over to the Roman soldiers.

Around the world, Bishops and priests come together at their local Cathedrals on Holy Thursday morning to celebrate the institution of the priesthood. During the Mass, the bishop blesses the Oil of Chrism that will be used for Baptism, Confirmation, and Anointing of the sick or dying.

At this Mass, the bishop washes the feet of twelve priests to symbolize Christ’s washing of his twelve Apostles, our first bishops and priests.

Later that night, after sundown – because Passover began at sundown- the Holy Thursday Liturgy takes place, marking the end of Lent and the beginning of the sacred "Triduum," or three, of Holy Week. These days are the three holiest days in the Catholic Church.

This Mass stresses the importance Jesus puts on the humility of service, and the need for cleansing with water, a symbol of baptism. Also emphasized are the critical importance of the Eucharist and the sacrifice of Christ’s Body, which we now find present in the consecrated Host.

At the conclusion of the Mass, the faithful are invited to continue Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament throughout the night, just as the disciples were invited to stay up with the Lord during His agony in the garden before His betrayal by Judas.

After Holy Thursday, no Mass will be celebrated again in the Church until the Easter Vigil celebrates and proclaims the Resurrection of the Lord Jesus Christ.
