CONCERT – “NEVER FORGET”

TRIUMPH OF THE AMERICAN SPIRIT
SEPTEMBER 11, 2001 – 20TH ANNIVERSARY TRIBUTE

Red, white, and blue reaches a musical pinnacle in this moving ALL-AMERICAN show. The best of American composers, this stirring show is laced with patriotic songs and inspiring melodies from across the homeland sung by St. Timothy Catholic Church Choir along with special guests Sam Reynolds, Debbie Garrett, Heather Ard, Devin Eatmon, and other guest performers from the Central Florida Lyric Opera – all under the direction of Maestro Bill Doherty. This performance tells the story of the history of our great country and celebrates everything that defines us as American. It will also include a special musical dedication to the men and women who have served and are serving in our country's Armed Forces as well as a moving tribute to those who lost their lives and to all the front-line heroes who came to the rescue in the horrific attack on September 11, 2001. This is as American as it gets with all the bells and whistles to make hearts pound and flags wave. Bring tissues. This program has been known to bring audiences to tears. Sentimental and meaningful, anyone who calls himself American will never forget this rousing performance! There will be two performances on Thursday, September 9 at St. Timothy Catholic Church – 4:00 PM and 7:00 PM.

Tickets are $20 and are on sale during regular business hours in the Parish Office beginning August 2, 2021. Anyone who is still holding tickets or vouchers for the Broadway Stars Concert which was cancelled in March 2020 due to the pandemic may use them for admittance to this concert.

My deepest thanks to all parishioners of St. Timothy parish for all you do to increase charity and to take on sacrifice.

Fr. Ed

BOX TOPS FOR EDUCATION

St. Vincent de Paul Society in conjunction with the Back Pack Program has begun to collect "Box Tops for Education." These coupons may be found on many items, especially General Mills cereals, Progresso Soups, etc. For a complete list of products, go to www.boxtops4education.com/earn/participating-products. All you have to do is clip the coupons and bring them to church to be dropped in the bags attached to the food collection boxes. Dollars raised from these box tops will support the Fruitland Park Elementary School. Your support of this program is appreciated.

Consult not your fears but your hopes and your dreams. Think not about your frustrations, but about your unfulfilled potential. Concern yourself not with what you tried and failed in, but with what it is still possible for you to do.

RCIA NOOK

HOW DOES THE WHOLE COMMUNITY GET INVOLVED IN THE RCIA?

Everyone in the Catholic Church shares the responsibility of handing on and faith. Through:

- Evangelization: Catholics can share their faith with acquaintances and invite those seeking to experience more. We need to invite people personally and directly.
- Catechesis: In casual conversation throughout our day with neighbors, co-workers and strangers we have many opportunities to explain what we believe.
- Worship: On many occasions we pray for the catechumens and candidates and model our commitment to worship.
- Service: By living our faith in service we give example to the world. By personally inviting catechumens and candidates to our homes, our meetings and our services we integrate them into the Catholic family.
- We join as a body of believers to pray and serve. We use what personal gifts we have to welcome challenge and rejoice with catechumens.

DID YOU KNOW?

Conversion is turning one's heart, mind, soul and strength toward Christ. Catechumens and candidates experience conversion when they decide to let their faith in Christ lead their lives. It changes their attitudes, their understanding, their prayer and their behavior. Conversion is not a once in a lifetime experience. As we grow and deepen in our journey as a Christian we constantly experience conversion – change of heart, mind, soul and strength.

Want to learn more about how to get involved with the RCIA process, contact Anna-Marie Wright in the parish office.

HANDBELL CHOIR

The handbell choir will begin rehearsals again in July. We meet every Wednesday, from 12:30 PM until 2:30 PM in the church. As we were gathering our things together after a 16-month COVID break, we found that a couple of members will no longer be available to play with us.

If you have the desire to ring in our handbell choir, we would love to have you join us. We've found that the ability to read music is necessary. While we can't teach you how to read music, we can teach you how to ring bells if they would be new to you. Call our director, Melanie O'Donnell, at 352-753-0989 to make your interest known.

GRIEF SUPPORT GROUP

"We heal by putting to prayer, what we want to experience."

- Pope Francis

There are no stages to grief. We all experience loss in our own unique way. When we mourn, we outwardly express our internal thoughts and feelings. And it is through this process that we understand practical things we can do to help us heal our wounds and build our bridge to a new and different life. Christ is our role model. He wept. He prayed. He accepted His cross with great love and great hope. Join us on Thursday, August 5th @ 9:30 AM in Room 2 as we come together to learn the intentional process of mourning.

"Through the Cross of Christ the Evil One is overcome, death is defeated, life is given to us, hope is restored. This is important: through the Cross of Christ hope is restored to us."

Pope Francis, Angelus, 14th September 2014

CORONAVIRUS PRAYER

Merciful God, give the comfort of your presence to all those affected by the coronavirus. Protect and guide those who are seeking a cure. May this disease be conquered, and our communities restored. During this time may your Church be a sign of hope, comfort and love to all. Grant peace. Grant solace. Grant healing. Be with us, Lord.

Amen.

LIGHT AND DARKNESS

Genesis 1:4 says that God separated the light from the darkness"; St. Augustine suggests that it refers to the separation of the good angels from the evil angels. But even if that's not what the original author intended, he says, describing the one group as "light" and the other as "darkness" is still accurate.

"God opposes the proud but gives grace to the humble" (James 4:6). One group lives in the Heaven of heavens; the other is thrown out of there, and rages through the lower regions of the air. One is tranquil in the brightness of piety, the other tempest-tossed with desires that cloud the way. One at God's pleasure, tenderly helps and justly avenges; the other, attacked by its own pride boils with the lust of conquering and hurting. One is the minister of God's goodness; the other is kept back by God's power from doing the harm it wants to do. The first laughs at the second when it does good unwillingly by its persecutions; the second envies the first when it gathers in its pilgrims.

These two angelic communities, then, are different from and contrary to one another, the one both by nature good and by will upright, the other good by nature but by will depraved. We see them in other and more explicit passages of holy writ, but I think they are spoken in this book of Genesis under the names of light and darkness.

And even if the author might have had a different meaning, yet our discussion has not been wasted time; for, though we have not been able to discover his meaning, yet we have stuck to the rule of faith, which the faithful gather well enough from other passages of equal authority. For, though it is material-works of God that are spoken of here, they have certainly a resemblance to the spiritual, so that St. Paul can say, "For you are all sons of light and sons of the day; we are not of the night or of darkness"

(1 Thess. 5:5). -St. Augustine, City of God, 11.33

IN GOD'S PRESENCE, CONSIDER . . .

In St. Augustine's description, which most resembles my own inner life of the fallen angels, or the life of holy angels?

CLOSING PRAYER:

Holy angels, humble angels, may I desire what you desire - to serve - that I may be found in the city of God at the fulfillment of history.

BLESSED ARCHBISHOP FULTON J SHEEN ON "ANGELS":

"The decline of belief in angels does not prove that the world has gotten wiser, but rather that it has become materialistic. The principle reason why angels have lost their following is because angels are created substances of pure Intelligence, but devoid of all bodily qualities and characteristics. The modern mind lives in a closed universe in the sense that man is believed to be just an animal devoid of an immortal soul, and with no other purpose in life than to attain security and enjoy pleasure.

CATECHISM CORNER: HOW TO EAT AN ELEPHANT ONE BITE AT A TIME

Article 66 of the Catechism of the Catholic Church:
EVEN if revelation is already complete, it has not been made completely explicit; it remains for Christian faith gradually to grasp its full significance over the course of centuries.

REFLECTION.

The beauty of Christian life is that there is always more to it: more truth to be grasped, more richness to be experienced, more beauty to be enjoyed, and more love to give and receive.

PRAYER.

Lord, all that my faith is today is but a little compared to what it can be. Inspire me to set out into the deep.

THE TRANSFIGURATION OF THE LORD

AUGUST 6, 2021

In Year B, the reading for the Transfiguration comes from Mark's gospel. (The Transfiguration also appears in the other two synoptic gospels, Matthew and Luke.) In Mark, Jesus takes Peter, James, and John up a high mountain, apart from the other apostles and disciples.

There, Jesus is transfigured (changed in form and appearance) and appears in dazzling white clothes. Elijah, the great prophet, and Moses, through whom the Israelites were given the law, appear with Jesus. A cloud appears, overshadowing them, and a voice states, "This is my beloved Son. Listen to him." Jesus charges the three to not share with anyone what they had seen "except when the Son of Man had risen from the dead." They keep their experience to themselves, pondering what Jesus meant by rising from the dead.

How are we to understand the Transfiguration? The story of the Transfiguration is also proclaimed on the second Sunday of Lent—a key part of Jesus' journey towards the Cross. The Catechism of the Catholic Church draws parallels between Jesus' Baptism and the Transfiguration. Jesus is baptized at the start of his public ministry. His baptism proclaims the mystery of our first regeneration—we die and rise again with Christ. The "Transfiguration 'is the sacrament of the second regeneration': our own Resurrection (St. Thomas Aquinas, STh III, 45, 4, ad 2). From now on we share in the Lord's Resurrection through the Spirit who acts in the sacraments of the Body of Christ.

The Transfiguration gives us a foretaste of Christ's glorious coming, when he 'will change our lowly body to be like his glorious body (Phil 3:21)' (Catechism of the Catholic Church, no. 556). During the Prayer after Communion, we pray that God might "transform us into the likeness of your [his] Son, / whose radiant splendor you willed to make manifest / in his glorious Transfiguration." The Collect, or opening prayer, tells us that the mystery of the Transfiguration "prefigures our full adoption to sonship." The Transfiguration, initially revealed to Peter, James, and John, reveals to all of us a taste of what is yet to come.

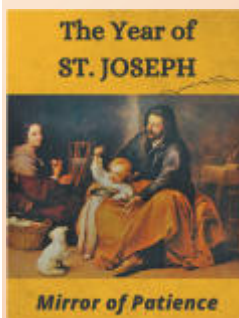

The Transfiguration is the fourth of the Luminous Mysteries of the Rosary.

POPE FRANCIS PROCLAIMS "YEAR OF ST. JOSEPH"

(DECEMBER 8, 2020 – DECEMBER 8, 2021)

On December 8, 2021, Pope Francis announced that the upcoming year would be dedicated to Saint Joseph, celebrating the 150th anniversary of the proclamation of Saint Joseph as Patron of the Universal Church. The Holy Father said the aim of our reflection on Saint Joseph this year is "to increase our love for this great saint, to encourage us to implore his intercession and to imitate his virtues and his zeal".

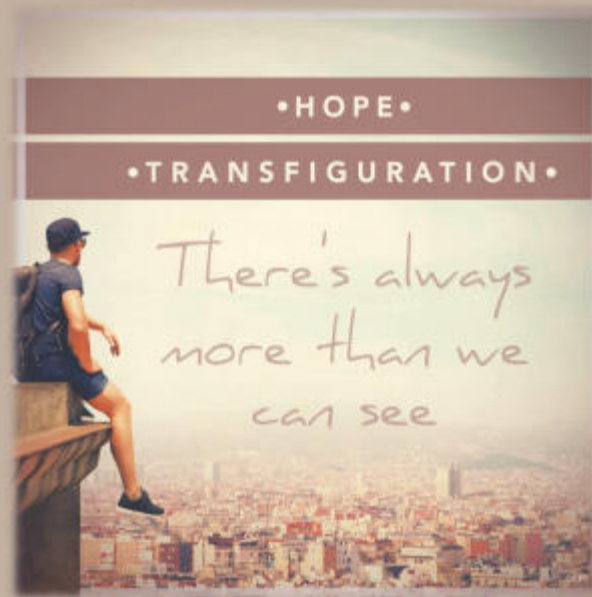

The virtue for the month of August is "Joseph, Mirror of Patience". Patience is willingness to suffer. A patient is one who suffers a malady not by choice whereas a patient man is one who suffers volitionally rather than relinquish the vocation given him. Joseph was patient because of his love. He was willing to suffer anything, even the loss of Our Lady and the Divine Child by being the first to die.

WEEKLY MEDITATION FOR THE WEEK OF AUGUST 1ST

Not only did Saint Joseph listen attentively to God, but he also listened attentively to other people. His willingness to listen to Mary his wife bore great fruit in his life. Even though he did not always fully understand what she said, her perspective helped deepen his understanding of God's plan over time. Listening to her helped him continually make Jesus a priority in his life.

Spend 10 minutes each day this week giving someone your undivided attention. Simply listen, trying to understand their perspective.

For more information about the Year of St. Joseph, please visit our parish website for more resources so that you can go deeper into veneration of St. Joseph and his role in the Holy Family.
