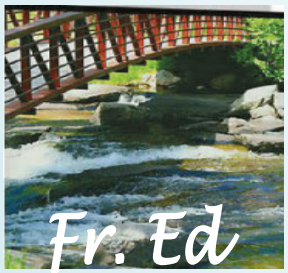
UNDER THE BRIDGE



"If you live without God, you die without hope."
Quote from Art dated 1956

MEET ME IN THE STAIRWELL

You say you will never forget where you were when you heard the news on September 11, 2001 Neither will I.

I was on the 110th floor in a smoke-filled room with a man who called his wife to say, "Goodbye." I held his fingers steady as he dialed. I gave him the peace to say, "Honey, I am not going to make it, but it is okay . . . I am ready to go."

I was with his wife when he called as she fed breakfast to their children. I held her up as she tried to understand his words and as she realized he wasn't coming home that night.

I was in the stairwell of the 23rd floor when a woman cried out to Me for help. "I have been knocking on the door of your heart for 50 years!" I said. "Of course I will show you the way home—only believe in Me now."

I was at the base of the building with the priest ministering to the injured and devastated souls. I took him home to tend to his flock in Heaven. He heard my voice and answered.

I was on all four of those planes, in every seat, with every prayer. I was with the crew as they were overtaken. I was in the very hearts of the believers there, comforting and assuring them that their faith has saved them.

I was in Texas, Kansas, London. I was standing next to you when you heard the terrible news. Did you sense Me?

I want you to know that I saw every face. I knew every name—though not all know Me. Some met Me for the first time on the 86th floor.

Some sought Me with their last breath.

Some couldn't hear Me calling to them through the smoke and flames; "Come to Me. . . This way. . . Take my hand." Some chose, for the final time, to ignore Me. But, I was there.

I did not place you in the Tower that day. You may not know why, but I do. However, if you were there in that explosive moment in time, would you have reached for Me?

September 11, 2001, was not the end of the journey for you. But someday your journey will end. And I will be there for you as well. Seek Me now while I may be found. Then, at any moment, you know you are "ready to go."

I will be in the stairwell of your final moments.

TWENTY-FOURTH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

Sunday Reflection

Today's readings remind us of God's loving desire to seek us out when we go astray. Wandering sheep, careless housewives, prodigal sons and self-righteous older brothers–all get offered a second chance. And as we begin our reading of the first of the Pastoral Epistles (letters sent to individuals to guide them and their communities in living out their commitment to the gospel), we even hear St. Paul describe how God gave him a second chance. Moses in the selection from Exodus is bold enough to demand that Yahweh give Israel another chance because that was what had been promised! When we stray far from the path of God's love, our Savior never forgets to show that His mercy is for all to have life eternal and that none perish.

- When did you first experience the loving call of Jesus to follow him on the Way?
- When you screw up, what makes you afraid that God will not forgive and support you?
- Which people have helped you believe in yourself as God's beloved child? And which have not?
- How might you bring God's loving forgiveness to others?

Practice: Find online the Prayer for Humility by William Barclay, and each day this week pray it slowly and reflectively.

Faith Formation

ASK YOURSELF...

- Do you want to learn more about the Catholic way of life?
- Are you interested in becoming a Catholic?
- Do you know someone who has expressed an interest in becoming Catholic?
- Were you baptized Catholic and want to complete the Sacraments of Initiation - Eucharist and Confirmation?
- Do you know anyone that has a child over the age of seven who has not been baptized?

We offer an opportunity to learn more about our faith. Sessions focus on the teachings and experience of Church and prepare individuals to celebrate the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist. There are separate sessions for children or youth. You are welcome to participate in the process with your questions, your insights, and your faith story in a warm accepting setting. There is no obligation or commitment.

For more information regarding becoming Catholic or receiving the Sacraments of Baptism, Eucharist, Confirmation, or Marriage; please contact the parish office or fill out the online form at: https://forms.gle/pXxnK5uu9z1FbnZz8

WHOLLY MEN: EWTN'S WOMEN OF GRACE

EWTN's Women of Grace Television Program, hosted by Johnette Williams, is scheduled to air a four-part series September 19-22, 1:00 pm on "Wholly Men," featuring Father John Bonavitacola and Dr. Monica Breaux. This four-part series will focus on their work to achieve and affirm healthy, holy chastity. Dr. Breaux, a new parishioner at St. Timothy's, appeared on EWTN's Women of Grace in 2013 for a five-part series on "Life Changing Strategies of a Catholic Therapist" and other series in 2010-2011. In advance of this EWTN Women of Grace programming, Dr. Breaux invites all parishioners – men and women - to visit the AriseForHim.com website and click on the "Wholly Men" tab.

MARIAN CONSECRATION: DOES THAT MEAN THAT WE'RE MAKING MARY MORE IMPORTANT THAN GOD HIMSELF?

One can see why it might seem that way, especially to someone who's new to the idea of consecration. But the answer is an emphatic no. Mary's goal, while alive, was simply to live in union with God, and now that she's in Heaven, she has the same goal for each of us. If we consecrate ourselves to Mary, it's not with the intention of replacing God but rather, of allowing Mary to bring us closer to him, as other servants of the Lord, committed to doing his will in the world.

An act of devotion, promoted by St. Louis de Montfort (1673-1716), that consists of the entire gift of self to Jesus through Mary. It is, moreover, a habitual attitude of complete dependence on Mary in one's whole life and activity. In making the act of consecration, a person gives himself or herself to Mary and through her to Jesus as her servant. This means that a person performs good works as one who labors without wages, trustfully hoping to receive food and shelter and have other needs satisfied by the master, to whom one gives all one is and does, and on whom one depends entirely in a spirit of love.

Okay, this sounds good, but where do I start?
Since there's a particular kind of preparation associated with making a consecration to Mary, you'll need some guidance through the process. If your parish hosts small groups for Marian consecration, you might find it helpful to join one, because of the benefit of being able to pray and process your reflections with others. But you can also make it by yourself!

"33 DAYS TO MORNING GLORY

Mark your Calendars for the "33 Days to Morning Glory" at St. Timothy Catholic Church starting on Tuesday, October 11th at 9:15 AM in rooms 5 & 6., and we will continue to meet each week on Tuesdays, 10/18, 10/25, 11/1, 11/8, and 11/15 with the day of consecration on 11/21 which is The Presentation of the Blessed Virgin Mary. If you have questions, please contact Anna-Marie Wright in the parish office.

The title, Our Lady of Sorrows, given to our Blessed Mother focuses on her intense suffering and grief during the passion and death of our Lord. Traditionally, this suffering was not limited to the passion and death event; rather, it comprised the seven dolors or seven sorrows of Mary, which were foretold by the Priest Simeon who proclaimed to Mary, This child [Jesus] is destined to be the downfall and the rise of many in Israel, a sign that will be opposed and you yourself shall be pierced with a sword so that the thoughts of many hearts may be laid bare (Luke 2:34-35). These seven sorrows of our Blessed Mother included the flight of the Holy Family into Egypt; the loss and finding of the child Jesus in the Temple; Mary's meeting of Jesus on His way to Calvary; Mary's standing at the foot of the cross when our Lord was crucified; her holding of Jesus when He was taken down from the cross; and then our Lord's burial. In all, the prophesy of Simeon that a sword would pierce our Blessed Mother's heart was fulfilled in these events. For this reason, Mary is sometimes depicted with her heart exposed and with seven swords piercing it. More importantly, each new suffering was received with the courage, love, and trust that echoed her fiat, let it be done unto me according to Thy word, first uttered at the Annunciation.

This Feast of Our Lady of Sorrows grew in popularity in the 12th century, although under various titles. Granted, some writings would place its roots in the eleventh century, especially among the Benedictine monks. By the fourteenth and fifteenth centuries, the feast and devotion were widespread throughout the Church.
Interestingly, in 1482, the feast was officially placed in the Roman Missal under the title of Our Lady of Compassion, highlighting the great love our Blessed Mother displayed in suffering with her Son. The word compassion derives from the Latin roots cum and patior which means to suffer with. Our Blessed Mother's sorrow exceeded anyone else's since she was the mother of Jesus, who was not only her Son but also her Lord and Savior; she truly suffered with her Son. In 1727, Pope Benedict XIII placed the Feast of Our Lady of Compassion in the Roman Calendar on Friday before Palm Sunday. This feast was suppressed with the revision of the calendar published in the Roman Missal of 1969.
In 1668 the feast in honor of the Seven Dolors was set for the Sunday after September 14, the Feast of the Holy Cross. The feast was inserted into the Roman calendar in 1814, and Pope Pius X fixed the permanent date of September 15 for the Feast of the Seven Sorrows of the Blessed Virgin Mary (now simply called the Feast of Our Lady of Sorrows). The key image here is our Blessed Mother standing faithfully at the foot of the cross with her dying Son: the Gospel of St. John recorded, Seeing His mother there with the disciple whom He loved, Jesus said to His mother, 'Woman, there is your son.' In turn He said to the disciple, 'There is your mother.' (John 19:26-27). The Second Vatican Council in its Dogmatic Constitution on the Church wrote, A...She stood in keeping with the divine plan, suffering grievously with her only-begotten Son. There she united herself, with a maternal heart, to His sacrifice, and lovingly consented to the immolation of this Victim which she herself had brought forth (#58).

St. Bernard (d. 1153) wrote, Truly, O Blessed Mother, a sword has pierced your heart.... He died in body through a love greater than anyone had known. She died in spirit through a love unlike any other since His (De duodecim praerogatativs BVM).
Focusing on the compassion of our Blessed Mother, our Holy Father, Pope John Paul II, reminded the faithful, Mary Most Holy goes on being the loving consoler of those touched by the many physical and moral sorrows which afflict and torment humanity. She knows our sorrows and our pains, because she too suffered, from Bethlehem to Calvary. 'And thy soul too a sword shall pierce.' Mary is our Spiritual Mother, and the mother always understands her children and consoles them in their troubles. Then, she has that specific mission to love us, received from Jesus on the Cross, to love us only and always, so as to save us! Mary consoles us above all by pointing out the Crucified One and Paradise to us! (1980).
Therefore, as we honor our Blessed Mother, our Lady of Sorrows, we honor her as the faithful disciple and exemplar of faith. Let us pray as we do in the opening prayer of the Mass for this feast day: Father, as your Son was raised on the cross, His Mother Mary stood by Him, sharing His sufferings. May your Church be united with Christ in His suffering and death and so come to share in His rising to new life. Looking to the example of Mary, may we too unite our sufferings to our Lord, facing them with courage, love, and trust.

WHAT IS A SMALL CHRISTIAN COMMUNITY (SCC)?

A group of 8 to 10 people meet weekly (or once a month) in someone's home to study Sunday's scripture readings. Each person discovers, at their own pace, how God has been actively loving them and helping them. In this environment, mutual trust grows, and members share their individual faith stories. The group becomes a small church in the large parish, so that everyone experiences the concern, prayer, and emotional support of the Body of Christ.

WHAT DOES IT MEAN TO BE PART OF A GROUP CALLED "COMMUNITY?"

This is more than a bunch of people gathering for a meeting every week. SCCs are people of similar beliefs meeting WITH ("com") UNITY. Oneness does not mean alikeness; rather it means agreeing to join in the journey of uniting ourselves to God and His love. Members feel connected to each other due to sharing their faith week after week, but it is more than that. Groups will occasionally gather outside the meetings for social events such as barbecues and pool parties, with all family members invited. During parish missions or retreats, they often attend together and go out for coffee afterward. Why? Because the love flowing between the members cannot be contained within a mere hour and a half meeting per week.

The following days and times still have spaces available to join:

- Wednesday, 6:30 PM - 8:00 PM (Winifred area)
- Thursday, 7:00 PM - 8:30 PM (Tierra Del Sol area)

If interested in joining a SCC group, please sign-up at:
https://forms.gle/mCjg12jti127V1VRA

If you aren't able to attend a SCC, please participate by joining us in prayer for all the SCCs beginning as well as future SCCs at St. Timothy Catholic Church. In addition to the SCCs listed above, we currently have SCCs meeting on Tuesday evening weekly, Wednesday afternoon monthly, Thursday mornings twice a month, and Sunday evening monthly.

We are looking for facilitators so that we can start new SCCs; training will be provided. To find out more about leading an SCC, please call the parish office.

While at prayer, please pray for an increase in the call to priesthood.

Candles

Six-day candles for the candle stands are available in the Church Office 9:00 AM-4:00 PM Monday to Thursday and 9:00 AM-3:00 PM Friday for $5.00 each (please bring exact amount). Other candles burn the red glass at the bottom requiring costly replacement. Please do not burn any candles other than the ones sold in the Gift Shop and Church Office.

If you wish to purchase a candle prior to Mass, please see the Sacristan.

Service Animals

While Service Animals are welcome in Church to accompany disabled individuals, anyone with a service animal should sit in the Narthex by the doors. Your assistance is greatly appreciated.

Please be Mindful!

When entering Church, please be mindful that many people are praying. If you wish to greet someone do so in quiet tones so as not to disturb another's prayer time.

Handicapped

The entry on the north side of the Church which is covered with a red awning is handicap accessible.

Handicapped seating is provided in the front pews. If you are unable to enter the lines for reception of Communion, please sit in the very first pews and the Priest/Deacon/Minister of Holy Communion will come to you with Holy Communion.

Thank you for your assistance.

Bulletin Submissions

Bulletin articles must be submitted to bulletin@sttimothycc.com by noon the Wednesday ten days prior to Bulletin publication.
Submissions must be approved by the Ministry Coordinator or Publicity Chairman. We reserve the right to edit any and all items or articles for the Bulletin.
Early submission dates are announced in the Bulletin.

Please be Considerate

Many parishioners are extremely sensitive to scented shampoos, perfumes, deodorants, laundry detergent and other scented products. Please do not wear them in Church. Thank you.

Payment By Credit Card

The Church Office accepts payment for Masses and Candles by credit card. We accept MasterCard, Visa, Discover and American Express.

Notice from Orlando Diocese

It has come to our attention that individuals may be receiving texts or emails from clergy or leaders within our parish asking for gift cards or financial assistance with travel. Please know that the Diocese does not allow anyone to solicit financial contributions or assistance for an individual or approves of solicitation for personal business as a representative of the Church. If you are approached by a leader, whether clergy, employee or volunteer, within your parish for any cause regarding financial assistance and you choose to respond, always require a contract and receipt upon completion of the transaction.

Hearing Aids and Glasses

If you have unwanted hearing aids or glasses and would like to donate them to someone who could use them. You can drop them off in the Parish Office.

"I owned hearing aids already but didn't wear them because they didn't help. That all changed with Angelo at RHC. What a tremendous difference! I now wear them from morning til night. These aids have had a positive impact on my life. I can understand conversations and no longer ask people to repeat. Angelo is all about helping people and I can't thank him enough!"
