NOTES FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

In our first reading we hear of the mourning of Hadadrimmon in the plain of Megiddo. What was that about? For years the Kingdom of Judah had suffered under a tyrant called King Manassah. However, he was succeeded by his eight year old son, Josiah, who destroyed all the forms of pagan worship and immorality that his father had inflicted upon the people. Josiah was good. Josiah was kind. Then, in battle, Josiah was killed by the Egyptians on the plains of Megiddo near the city of Hadadrimmon; and there was weeping and mourning.

This reading gives us Zechariah's prophecy about the suffering and death of the Suffering Messiah. Today's Gospel explains the basis of our Christian faith as the acceptance of Jesus as the Christ, our Lord and Savior. It also tells us that Christ Jesus became our Savior by his suffering, death and Resurrection. It outlines the three requirements of Christian discipleship, namely, denying oneself, taking up one's cross and following Jesus.

A warm Welcome to Father Lance Martin, our new associate pastor. Father Martin is newly ordained for the Diocese of Wilmington. Many may still remember him, four years ago, when he spent a summer here at St. John the Beloved, as a seminarian. His warm personality, quick wit and many attributes will inspire us in the time ahead. Again, welcome Father Martin and may the road ahead be paved in countless graces.

As we celebrate Father's Day, we honor those men who parent us by passing on life in loving fulfillment of duty. We honor those men who selflessly support and guide us, regardless of their own aspirations, hopes and hardships. Knowing that these men protect us, their children, is a great source of security. And to a higher level, are those fathers who inspire us in faith. Saint Joseph, guardian of Jesus, models the attributes of a good father. Amid many worries of material life and soul, he was full of deep peace and true joy through his intimacy with God's Son entrusted to him. May St. Joseph hear the prayers of our fathers and those who imitate them in our lives. And for those men who left this world, may they have the reward of the just and honorable servants of God. Happy Father's Day!

A huge Thank you to everyone who directed and supported our Carnival. It was a great success because of the many people who pulled together, again, to create this parish event.

Being the 50th year of its existence, the Carnival had the challenge to prove what it is made of. A sudden wind storm destroyed local trees that severed utility lines and thus cut-off power to our parish campus for a whole day. Without hesitation, the leaders of the Carnival invoked generators from many sources, including parishioners, and continued the event in most of the area. The spaghetti-ravioli dinners had to be postponed unto Friday because the hall was in the dark. Yet, everyone rose to the occasion and proved their tenacity.

Therefore, a special, special thank you to the Carnival leaders and ALL workers, various committees and volunteers. Your many efforts made this year's Carnival a memorable one. May you get rest now and know our true appreciation from the Parish Athletic Association and the Parish itself.

Father Joe

SAINTS AND SPECIAL OBSERVANCES

Sunday: Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time; Father's Day; Julian Calendar Pentecost

Monday: Summer begins

Tuesday: St. Aloysius Gonzaga

Wednesday: St. Paulinus of Nola; Ss. John Fisher and Thomas More

Friday: The Nativity of St. John the Baptist

Saturday: Blessed Virgin Mary

Our summer program is full. We are so excited to begin this new model for our RE program. Our children are full of desire to learn and share about God's love. Our Tuesday and Sunday morning programs would love to welcome your children to their great year ahead. If you have not registered your child(ren) yet for Religious Education classes, please visit our website. All the information you need is listed there for you. If you have any questions about our program, please call the office at 302-994-7757 and we will be happy to help you.

Our catechists recently met with the textbook publisher to learn how to best utilize all the resources available to them to help our children capture and retain all the material that will be covered in class. The book publisher is Sadlier and they have a wealth of resources that our catechists will utilize to make next year a positive one. Thank you to all our catechists and aides for their dedication and hard work in this wonderful ministry. If you are interested in serving with this awesome community, please contact Mrs. Ballintyn at 302-994-7757 to discuss how we can welcome you.

You can sign up for ACH automatic debits for the amount you specify and it comes out of your bank account once a month. This is a fast and easy way to make sure your giving continues during summer time or during the year. Please visit the SJB website for our form to sign up or email Pat Kelly pkelly@sjbde.org for a form and more information.

Ministry Minute

"ROOTED IN FAITH; GROWING DISCIPLES."

FOLLOW IN THE FOOTSTEPS OF CHRIST

The great fifty-day celebration of Easter has concluded, as have the feasts honoring the Holy Trinity and the Body and Blood of Christ. Last week we began a long stretch of Ordinary Time that will bring us to late November. Saint Paul tells us today that those who are baptized "have clothed yourselves with Christ" (Galatians 3:27). This scripture is echoed in the Church's baptism ritual when we sing, "You have put on Christ, in him you have been baptized." This message is inspiring and sobering at the same time, for in today's Gospel, we get to the heart of what it means to be clothed in Christ. The Lord tells us, "If anyone wishes to come after me, he must deny himself and take up his cross daily and follow me" (Luke 9:23). For the next twenty-two weeks we are called to take up the cross and, with Saint Luke as our guide, follow in the footsteps of Christ.

Youth Ministry Volunteers Needed

Youth Ministry is looking for parishioners who are interested in ministering to the teens of our parish.

You do not need to have any special education, just a desire to share your faith with 6th -12th graders.

All training will be done this summer and in September (date will be set once we have a team in place).

HOSPITALITY TEAM SEARCH

We have around 3,200 families in our parish. Will you help find the next 3,200? The office of mission and ministry is creating a hospitality team. We will be seeking assistance in our new parishioner days, setting up events/breaking down, serving as parking coordinators for weekends, giving tours and information about our campus and much more. Email gboulden@sjbde.org for more information.

Family Promise Week

June 27 - July 1, 2016

St. John the Beloved will once again be supporting Limestone Presbyterian with their week of hosting Family Promise. Three times a year we assist by preparing the five weekday dinners. Kids Care Club, Knights of Columbus and Boy Scouts have graciously volunteered to do one night each. I am looking for donations of either a main course, salad, bread, a vegetable, a starch or a dessert for the other two nights. We prepare enough food for 18 - 20 people. Please contact me (Joann Paupe) at 302-239-4033 or 732-221-8501 for further details or email me at jpaupe@rci.rutgers.edu if you are able to help. Thank you in advance for helping those in need in our community. If you are interested in knowing more about Family Promise visit their website at: www.familypromisede.org

VOCATIONS

Elizabeth trusted in the Lord, who promised she would give birth even though she was advanced in age. Sometimes following God's call seems like it might be difficult or even dangerous. In Jesus Christ, though, we've learned that God always keeps His promises. Are you a young woman who believes she might be called to religious life? Does it seem strange, out of synch, risky, maybe even too difficult in today's world? If you'd like to explore the call, contact FatherNorm Carroll, Diocesan Director of Priestly and Religious Vocations (302-573- 3113, vocations@cdow.org). Visit our website: www.cdow.org/vocations!

Class Announcement:

"The Name of God is Mercy" is the first book written by Pope Francis as Pope. On Thursday evenings, we will meet at St. John the Beloved to discuss this book on Mercy, the subject closest to his heart. It is being re-emphasized during this Extraordinary Jubilee Year of Mercy. Pope Francis says that "Mercy is the first attribute of God."

Beginning June 16, we will meet Thursday evenings from 6:30 until 8:00 for10 sessions. Registering in advance will help us plan facilities and materials. For further information, to sign up for the meetings, and to order the book, contact Deacon Dennis at 302-981-4567 or wuebbelsdg@verizon.net.

TO VISIT THE IMPRISONED

"To visit the imprisoned" is a Corporal Work of Mercy often overlooked.We have a St. Vincent DePaul council dedicated to this Work of Mercy. It is now down to three members, and some of them are inactive. They do many things including:

-Support a St. Vincent DePaul counsel inside the Baylor CorrectionalInstitute for Women here at New Castle made up of 12 inmates, supplying them with toiletries and emotional and spiritual support. These 12 go on to help and support their fellow inmates.

-Help the women transition from prison life to the external world by locating housing, providing food, writing resumes, and preparing for interviews.

-Help the children and families whose mother is away.

A lot of work for a few volunteers. They need our help. Our Scriptures tell us "Do not fear" and "Do not be afraid". But it is easy and normal to fear and be afraid. Experience reduces or eliminates this fear. We are arranging an introductory visit to Baylor for volunteers who might be interested. For more information, contactDeacon Dennis at 302-981-4567 or wuebbelsdg@verizon.net. We can help these ladies overcome their fears, "Be Not Afraid."

PARENTING POINTERS

June 19: Father's Day. What qualities do you think make an ideal father? Did you learn any of these from your own father? Tell him in person or prayer. Identify one quality that you especially want to pass on to your own child. Take a step to do it today.

MARRIAGE MOMENTS

June 19: Use the light to do something outdoors to renew your love in the early morning or late evening.

"Spirit Wing", will bring its highly-acclaimed Native American music to St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Church in Bear, Delaware for a concert on Saturday, July 9, 2016 at 7:00 p.m. "Spirit Wing's" music comes from strong folk/acoustic roots, along with traditional Native songs that date back hundreds of years. Bring your lawn chairs for this exciting outdoor concert event. Come early for flute lessons at 5:00 p.m. Tickets are $10 (12 and under, free) and includes food, drink, and the concert. Native crafts will be on sale. Concert sponsored by the Journey with the Bear Kateri Circle of St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Church and Diocese of Wilmington Native American Ministry. For tickets or more information, call Sharon Ward at 302-545-3383.

Storytelling: Women of the Bible and The Women in Paul's Ministry

Tuesday, June 28th, 9:30am-3:30pm

Everyone likes to hear a story. Join us for this day of reflection and storytelling about the women of the Bible (Mary, Esther, Lydia and Miriam) and the women in Paul's ministry. Marie Gormley-Tarleton is a dramatic storyteller and religious, literary and historical impersonator. In the morning, Marie will present first-person narratives of the women of the Bible. In the afternoon session, she will point out the significant part women played in Paul's ministry in spreading Christianity.

Cost: $40, includes lunch. Use our online registration www.jesushousecenter.org or call the office: 302-650-0066

One out of every three adults over 65 falls every year.

A Matter of Balance is a free 8-week class offered at Christiana Care in Newark that will teach older adults how to avoid falls, reduce their fear of falling and exercises to improve balance. The class is offered one day per week for 2 hours from 1-3 over 8 weeks with the next one beginning Tuesday June 28. Two more classes will be offered through the end of 2016. For registration, or more information contact Kathy Boyer at 733-4250.
