A NOTE FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

The agricultural theme of this week's Gospel coincides with my thoughts of my father on this Father's Day weekend. My father enjoyed planting a garden of tomatoes, eggplant, cucumbers, peppers, etc. From him, I learned the importance of rotating crops, fertilizing the ground, compost and hydration. He must have done something right because the tomatoes tasted better then. In whatever he planned to do or anticipated, my dad's favorite saying was "God willing."

The people who heard Jesus tell the parable of the farmer's life also shared the wonder of the soil. The farmer works hard during the day, but he can't make the seed grow into a plant. God causes the growth. Jesus' point is that like the plants the Kingdom of God is in God's hands. The workers in the Lord's fields must do their best to create the proper environment, but God causes the growth.

The Church lives on despite the initial persecution from the Romans, despite the internal dogmatic fights and debates of the earlier centuries, despite the Dark Ages and the conquest of the barbarians, despite the corruption from within and outside in the Middle Ages and the Renaissance, despite the Christian fratricide of the Reformation and the onslaught of rationalists in the last two centuries, despite the sex abuse scandal and the attacks on Christians by ISIS, and despite two thousand years of martyrdom aimed at destroying the faith, the Church still lives on, and grows. God gives the growth. He does wonders with our feeble efforts. He turns that which is insignificant into that which is substantial…because God is willing.

As we celebrate Father's Day, we honor those men who parent us by passing on life in loving fulfillment of duty. We honor those men who selflessly support and guide us, regardless of their own aspirations, hopes and hardships. Knowing that these men protect us, their children, is a great source of security. And to a higher level, are those fathers who inspire us in faith. Saint Joseph, guardian of Jesus, models the attributes of a good father. May St. Joseph hear the prayers of our fathers and those who imitate them in our lives. And for those men who left this world, may they have the reward of the just and honorable servants of God.

Fathers Piekarski, Coffiey & Martin; Deacons Wuebbels & Fontana; and our staff.

Thank you for your continued generosity to the parish as part of your gift to God for the good things God has given you.

FOR THE CHILDREN

In his second letter to the Corinthians (5:7),
Paul writes about walking in a certain way.
To find what that is, color the first footprint,
then every other one after that.
The remaining footprints will tell how we should all walk.

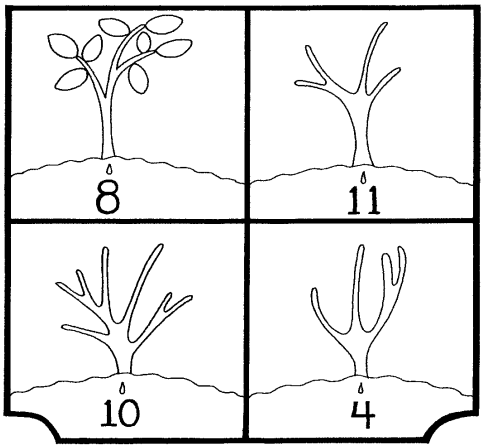
Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jesus compared the kingdom of God to a mustard seed.
Even though it is the smallest seed,
it grows to be the largest plant.
Let's remember to be good "gardeners"
and help God's kingdom grow!
Read the number under each seed.
Then draw that many leaves on the plant stem above it.
The first one is done for you.



The Little Ones

Jim Burrows

Thus says the Lord God: I, too, will take from the crest of the cedar, from its topmost branches tear off a tender shoot, and plant it on a high and lofty mountain; Birds of every kind shall dwell beneath it, every winged thing in the shade of its boughs. Ez 17:22,23

INSPIRE

Vocations:

The Gospel declares that Jesus preached to the people, using many such parables as the The Mustard Seed and the Mysterious Seed; few people understood what Jesus was saying. However in our Eucharist today, we have the opportunity to renew our Baptism and then to renew our commitment to furthering the reign of God, especially as a priest, deacon, or religious. Please call or write Father Norm Carroll, Diocesan Director of Priestly and Religious Vocations (302-573-3113, vocations@cdow.org). Be sure to visit our website: www.cdow.org/vocations!

General Intercessions:

That as the Gospel speaks of the Mustard Seed sprouting and becoming a huge plant, many fertile seeds will be planted in men seeking a fulfilling life in the priesthood, diaconate or religious life.

Priest: Let us pray for priestly and religious vocations.

All: O God, we earnestly beseech Thee to bless the Church with many priests, brothers, and sisters, who will love Thee with their whole hearts, be faithful to their vocations, and gladly spend their entire lives to teach Thy truths, serve Thy Church, and to make Thee known and loved.

Priest: Bless our families, bless our children.

All: Choose from our homes those who are needed for Thy work.

Priest: O Mary, Queen of priestly and religious vocations:

All: Pray for us. Pray for our priests, seminarians, and religious. Obtain for us the grace of many more. Amen. (please offer your reception of Holy Communion on the first Sunday of the month for vocations.)

Prayer for Parents for Priestly and Religious Vocations: O God, grant that at least one of our sons may become a priest or religious brother, and one of our daughters a religious sister. We ourselves want to live as good Christians, and to guide our children always to do what is right, so that we may receive the grace, O God, to be allowed to give Thee a holy priest, brother, or sister!

MARRIAGE MOMENTS

Summer officially begins June 21. Traditionally this is a time of rest and vacations. Have you planned a get-away for just the two of you? Even if you can't take a "real" vacation fantasize together about a dream vacation either at home or away.

PARENTING POINTERS

Remember your own father on June 17, but also remember those children whose father is absent, unemployed, deployed in a foreign land, abusive, or in some other way not present. Can you be like a father to someone who needs you?
