A NOTE FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

In today's Gospel, the seventy-two who had been sent out to proclaim the Kingdom return exuberant. You can feel their excitement in the reading. They had such wonderful experiences that they couldn't wait to tell the Lord all about them. Everybody was talking at once. Jesus Himself joined right in, "I saw Satan falling like lightning from the sky." Who were these seventy-two? We do not know even one of their names. And there is a reason for that. They are us. We are the seventy-two. We are the ones who have nursed on the Word of God and become strong. We are the ones who have become so strong that other's experience the Word of God within us. The Kingdom is proclaimed. Evil is destroyed. The devil falls from the sky.

The 5 p. m. Sunday Mass will be without music in July and August as a break for our music ministers for the summer. Full music will resume at that evening Mass in September.

GOSPEL MEDITATION—

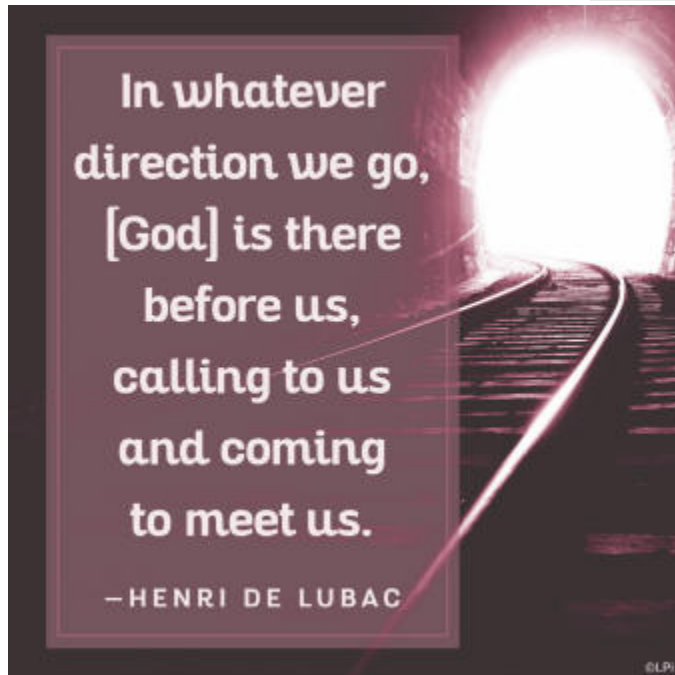

This Sunday, Jesus reminds us that "the harvest is abundant but the laborers are few." As Catholic disciples, we are the laborers that the Master is sending. All around us are opportunities to share the love and mercy of Jesus Christ - our homes, our workplaces, our neighborhoods, even our faith communities! Lest we feel unequipped for the task, Jesus gives us some advice.

"Carry no money bag, no sack, no sandals." We might not have a theology degree or training in public speaking, but that doesn't mean we can't share the Gospel. The power of God is at work in simplicity. The disciples went forth with nothing as a reminder to trust in the Providence of God. Say a little prayer that God will speak through you and has a need for your gifts, just as you are.

"Do not move about from one house to another." So much of the life of Jesus was about relationships. He modeled this attitude by journeying with his disciples. Here he makes the same recommendation to them, to remain with the same family for their entire stay in the town. Break bread with others. Invite them to coffee or a game night in your home. Sharing your faith isn't just about saying the right thing, but loving well over time.

"The dust of your town that clings to our feet, even that we shake off." Sometimes we want to help someone, but for whatever reason, they don't receive it well. Sometimes people aren't interested in our efforts to invite them deeper into faith. When rejection happens, don't carry it with you. Don't let it overburden your heart. Rejoice that you share in the mission of Christ, and keep on loving the next person he places in your path!

PARISH NEWS

Thank You!

A grateful note is extended to everyone who could and did support the 2019 Annual Catholic Appeal.

To date, $171,462 has been pledged toward our parish target of $179,000. Thank you to the 560 gifts that help us achieve our goal. Please continue fulfilling these pledges. We are some $7,000 short of our parish goal. If anyone has not done so, please consider making a contribution. Every donation is appreciated and not only will help us make our goal but continue to do the charitable work it is making possible in the Diocese of Wilmington. Thank you for your cooperation and dedication. God reward your generosity.

Guy Boniface, SJB volunteer and organizer, is retiring from coordinating the Ministry of Caring Sandwich Ministry. We thank Guy for his many years of outreach service through our parish sandwich ministry and pray for his continued blessings. The rotating sandwich donation scheduled that is in place will be put on hold through September.

Mr. Jamie Moulthrop, our Director of Parish Outreach, will be assuming this vital ministry as part of our Parish Outreach efforts. Mr. Moulthrop will be contacting the various groups involved with the ministry during summer to discuss the program and ongoing mission. Thank you to all for your contributions.

Thank you again, Guy, for all of your hard work in providing food for those most in need in our community

Ministry of Caring Sandwich Donations will resume in September. Please consider making a donation to help stock our food pantry. A donation bin is located in the vestibule of the church. Donations are also accepted at Community of Christ Church, located at 1205 Milltown Rd. Wilmington, Monday, Wednesday and Friday between 9:00 a.m. and 10:30 a.m., or use our secure online giving program to contribute to Outreach.

SJB 5th Annual Athletic Association Golf Outing is Monday, September 30 at Hartefeld National Golf Club. Email Michael mgallmann@comcast.net with questions.

Traveling this summer, or spending the summer at the beach or shore? Please prayerfully consider making a one time monetary donation directly to Outreach via online giving > sjbde.org/connect-now-giving, or in the collection at Mass to help us offset our costs over the summer. Thank you.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION FORMATION

Our Vacation Bible School program traveled to Greece to learn Paul and his travels to share the good news of Jesus Christ with all the people. It was a wonderful and exciting adventure. They children sang with such joy and they made some awesome Grecian art. Our adventurers traveled as a house through the Marketplace, where they met Paul as he traveled through Greece. They also enjoyed delicious treats and participated in our Olympic games.

Our young travelers were accompanied by many friends who kept them sage through their travels.

Thank you to our merry band of travelers, our many helpers, and our music leader, Mrs. Papili. Thanks to all for making our VBS week one of much fun, excitement, and learning.

Looking forward to another great trip next year,
The Religious Education Office

ST. JOHN THE BELOVED SCHOOL NEWS

Catholic Charities taking application for energy assistance

The Low Income Home Energy Assistance Program (LIHEAP), administered in Delaware by Catholic Charities, is now taking applications for the 2019-2020 heating season. This federally-funded program assists low-income Delawareans who need help in meeting home energy costs. LIHEAP makes payments directly to home energy suppliers. The LIHEAP benefit is based on a household's income, size, and type of fuel.

You may be eligible for assistance if your total household income falls within income eligibility guidelines. For example, a household of 4 can have no more than $50,325 in annual household income (before taxes).

In order to qualify, you must make an appointment with a Catholic Charities office for a personal interview. Regular office hours are 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

- In Kent County, call (302) 674-1782.
- In New Castle County, call (302) 654-9295.

GROWING WITH THE GOSPEL

14TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

A JOURNEY TO THE HEART OF THE FAITH

RCIA The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults

THE JOURNEY BEGINS

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA), will begin at St. John the Beloved on Monday September 9th at 7:00 PM. What is RCIA? It is the process of instruction and preparation by which a person becomes a full member of the Catholic Church, through the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist.

Our Catholic faith is a treasure which takes a lifetime to fully appreciate. Yet for a variety of reasons many good people have turned away from the active practice of the faith in their daily lives. Some have bought into the secular message that the gospel is no longer relevant in a modern society. Or, others have lost a sense of God's presence in their lives.

KNOWING GOD IS EVERYTHING

In assisting past participants in the RCIA process we have seen firsthand how the deep longings of the human spirit cannot be satisfied only by what the world has to offer. Many of them recognized first and foremost a void in their lives that was not being filled. Other reasons they were drawn to RCIA include:

- A longing to become a part of a faith community
- The desire for family members to be united in their faith and worship together
- For parents of students in our school to become more familiar with the faith
- For couples planning marriage to be able to share together in the Eucharist

Do you see yourself in any of these situations? Do you know someone who might benefit from RCIA; someone close to you, a friend, a spouse, a neighbor, or a fiancée? If your answer is yes, then you are invited to respond to this invitation. More information can be obtained simply by calling the parish office at 302-999-0211, or contact Deacon Tom Bailey at 302-559-6458, or email, tmbailey1@comcast.net.

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK . . .

Jesus tells his disciples, "I am sending you like lambs among wolves." Getting people to see the truth about who they are is not always easy or welcomed. Some people want to believe that they have life under control and they do not need any further advice, direction, or challenge from others. Being heralds of the Gospel means doing precisely that. We come with a message that is not always welcome or desired by our sisters and brothers. Yet, it is desperately needed.

People need to be reminded of who they are, who God is, and the necessity of repentance for entering the Kingdom of God. It is not about what we want but what God wants. We are called to be peacemakers and laborers for justice and mercy. Are you willing to bring this challenging message to those who may be indifferent or even hostile to hearing it?

"IN WHATEVER DIRECTION WE GO, [GOD] IS THERE BEFORE US, CALLING TO US AND COMING TO MEET US."
