WE PRAY FOR VOCATIONS

Heavenly Father, your harvest needs good and faithful men to tend to its many needs. Open their minds and hearts to respond to your call to be priests of and for the Diocese of Trenton, in imitation of your Son Jesus Christ, the Good Shepherd of your flock. Amen. Follow us on Instagram: TrentonMakesPriests

WE PRAY FOR OUR RECENTLY DECEASED

We extend our prayers and sympathy to the family and friends of our recently deceased. May they find eternal rest in peace with God our Father.

THE SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM

Baptisms are held the 1st and 3rd Sunday of each month at 1:00 PM. Arrangements must be made in person at the Parish Office at least 2 months in advance. Parents and Godparents are required to attend a Baptismal Prep Class.

THE SACRAMENT OF MARRIAGE

Arrangements must be made at least 1 year in advance. Preparations include sessions with a member of the clergy and attendance at a Pre-Cana Conference. For more information, please call the Parish Office.

THE SACRAMENT OF THE SICK

The Catechism of the Catholic Church tells us there is no need to wait until a person is at the point of death to receive the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick. A careful judgment about the serious nature of an illness is sufficient. "Hence, as soon as anyone of the faithful begins to be in danger of death from sickness or old age, the fitting time for him to receive this sacrament has certainly already arrived."<sup>130</sup>

We welcome anyone who has a physical condition, is anticipating entering the hospital for surgery or tests, or under any emotional distress to avail them of this beautiful Sacrament. Please call the Parish Office to schedule the Sacrament with a priest. Please do not wait until the very last minute to call.

THE MOST HOLY BODY & BLOOD OF CHRIST (CORPUS CHRISTI)

First Reading: Genesis 14:18-20

Melchizedek, a priest of God, prayed that God would bless Abram. He also praised God for delivering Abram's foes into his hands.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 11:23-26

Paul describes Jesus' actions during the last supper. Jesus broke bread and said it was His body given for us, asking that we do the same in remembrance of Him. He then passed the cup and called it His blood. Jesus then asked us to break bread in this manner to remember His death until he returns.

Gospel: Luke 9:11b-17

Jesus spoke to a large crowd when His disciples asked that He dismiss the people so they could find food and lodging. Jesus asked the disciples to give the crowd something to eat, but they had only five loaves of bread and two fish. Jesus then blessed and distributed the food, which fed about 5,000 people. Twelve baskets were then collected from what was left over.

Consider & Reflect

“Brothers and sisters: I received from the Lord what I also handed on to you, that the Lord Jesus, on the night he was handed over, took bread, and after he had given thanks, broke it and said, ‘This is my body that is for you. Do this in remembrance of me.’... For as often as you eat this bread and drink this cup, you proclaim the death of the Lord until he comes.”

Do you know that these words of Saint Paul were written before the gospel account of the Last Supper? Paul handed on what was already the ‘tradition’ of the earliest Christian communities. I need to remember that Jesus gave me this holy sacrament to make me holy, to sustain me on my faith journey, and allow me to grow in union with Him. It is the Eucharist that makes us who we are. I ask that I be worthy to receive such a great gift.

I am summoned by the Lord. I need to be fed with this gift, which has been reserved and given for me. My faith asks me to meet the Lord in word and sacrament, as I do each Sunday. I ask that this gift not be received as routine but as a new meeting with my Savior, my special moment to go ‘one on one’ with Him.

JUBILEE 2025

Jubilee of Seminarians

June 23-24, 2025

In the Catholic Church, seminarians are men in formation to become priests in their diocese, eparchy or religious institute or society of apostolic life. A seminarian's formation takes place in a community where he receives not only intellectual formation, but also human, spiritual, and pastoral formation. Seminarians, through cooperating with God's grace, are prepared to serve the Church as priests upon ordination on through their formation in imitating Christ as the Good Shepherd (USCCB 2022, no. 14). In preparation for this vocation, seminarians strengthen their Baptismal identity through their participation in the life of the Church. By communing with Christ in the sacraments and engaging with the intellectual tradition of the Church, seminarians begin to slowly ground themselves in the mysteries of the Trinity. Seminarians engage with these mysteries not in isolation, but rather in union with their brothers in seminary, religious institute or society of apostolic life and with the wider Church community as a whole. By meeting Christ in prayer and in the people they meet, seminarians become another Christ: assuming Jesus' mission of serving the Father and healing his creation

- St. Charles Borromeo (1538–1584, feast day November 4), cardinal and archbishop remembered for his important role in the Council of Trent, and patron saint of seminarians.

Prayer for Seminarians

*O Lord Jesus Christ, great High Priest, I pray that You call many worthy souls to Your holy priesthood. Enlighten the Bishop in the choice of candidates, the Spiritual Director in molding them, and the professors in instructing them. Lead the seminarians daily in Your unerring footsteps;
so that they may become priests who are models of purity, possessors of wisdom and heroes of sacrifice; steeped in humility and aflame with love for God and man; apostles of Your glory and sanctifiers of souls. Amen.*

Update on Our Family Promise Ministry 2025

I would like to thank Eileen Dolan and Sue Eggert, my co-coordinators, for their help and ongoing support of this ministry and for providing so many sleep overnights. Also, to MJ Piechocki, Brian McCarthy, Sue Hughes, and Carleen McCaffrey for giving their time to sleep over and provide the feeling of security to our guests.

This year, for the full two weeks, we had two families; two hardworking moms and a total of five terrific children ranging in age from 2 to 10. This overall experience is truly rewarding knowing that we are helping families have a safe, happy place to call home if only for a short period of time.

We had many volunteers ready to provide a delicious dinner for our guests. They were: Maryann Meisen, Betty Ann O'Malley, Diane Tucker, Jane Innocenti, Barbara Amato, Linda Antignano, Carleen McCaffrey, Nancy & Pat Manganello, Betty Schmidt, Lorraine Holobowski, Ann Wilton, Erin Kopp and Lee Salaga. The families really enjoyed what was prepared for them. To those who were not contacted this year to provide a meal, please be assured your name is on our list and you will be contacted in the future. So many of our generous parishioners donated gift cards to local stores or restaurants, cash to use as needed, help in laundering bedding and set-up and breakdown of cots. To ALL of you, I am so very grateful. Please be assured that just offering to help us in any way means so much. We will hold on to all the gift cards/money left from this time for next time when we will again offer up our Faith Formation Center to accommodate the Family Promise Program. Thank you so very much to all who donated and helped in any way.

We are always in need of people to stay overnight (comfortable cots are provided and you are there from 7:30 pm to 7:30 am) during our host period. If you are interested in helping in the future, you must take some measures to be allowed to do so. It would involve being fingerprinted and taking a Virtus course (can be taken online). We do this for the safety of the children and for ourselves. Please contact me and I will get you set up for this.

Finally, I would like to give a "special thank you" to Father John for allowing us to utilize the Faith Formation Center for a two-week period and we wish him happiness in his sabbatical. And to Michael who made sure the FFC was clean and ready for our families. God bless all of you for offering to help this ministry in any way, including prayers for these families. We pray that one day there will not be a need for wonderful programs like Family Promise. But if there is, we will be ready to help.
