WE PRAY FOR OUR RECENTLY DECEASED

We extend our prayers and sympathy to the family and friends of Howard Michaelson and Katherine Mikolaczak. May they find eternal rest in peace with God our Father.

WE PRAY FOR OUR MILITARY

Please remember in your prayers all those members of our parish family and our friends who are currently deployed especially: Master Sgt. Jeffrey Peterson, Jr., Nicholas Roesch, Ensign Sarah Schenk, Capt. Amanda Southard, LCDR Christopher J. Worosz, USN, Lt. Matthew A. Worosz, USN. May the Lord protect them as they protect us.

THE SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM: Baptisms are held the 1st and 3rd Sunday of each month at 1:00 PM. Arrangements must be made in person at the Parish Office at least 2 months in advance. Parents and Godparents are required to attend a Baptismal Prep Class.

THE SACRAMENT OF MARRIAGE:

Arrangements must be made at least 1 year in advance. Preparations include sessions with a member of the clergy and attendance at a Pre-Cana Conference. For more information, please call the Parish Office.

THE SACRAMENT OF THE SICK:

The Catechism of the Catholic Church tells us there is no need to wait until a person is at the point of death to receive the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick. A careful judgment about the serious nature of an illness is sufficient. "Hence, as soon as anyone of the faithful begins to be in danger of death from sickness or old age, the fitting time for him to receive this sacrament has certainly already arrived."<sup>130</sup>

We welcome anyone who has a physical condition, is anticipating entering the hospital for surgery or tests, or under any emotional distress to avail them of this beautiful Sacrament. Please call the Parish Office to schedule the Sacrament with a priest. Please do not wait until the very last minute to call.

PENTECOST SUNDAY

First Reading: Acts 2:1-11

The disciples were celebrating Pentecost together when "tongues of fire appeared which parted, then came to rest on each of them." The disciples were filled with the Holy Spirit and began speaking in foreign tongues. Visitors from many different countries were amazed that each guest could hear his or her native language being spoken as the disciples proclaimed God's glory.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 12:3b-7, 12-13

Each person has received different manifestations of the same Spirit to contribute to the common good of all. All members of the Church have been baptized into one body because of our belief in the Holy Spirit, who was sent to us by God.

Gospel: John 20:19-23

Jesus appeared to the disciples even though they had locked the doors in fear. Jesus then showed the disciples His hands and His side; and they rejoiced at His presence. He breathed on them saying "Receive the Holy Spirit." He then gave the disciples the power to forgive others or hold them accountable for their sins.

Consider & Reflect

"Jesus stood up and exclaimed: 'Let anyone who thirsts come to me and drink. As Scripture says: Rivers of living water will flow from within him who believes in me.' He said this in reference to the Spirit that those who came to believe in him were to receive. There was, of course, no Spirit yet, because Jesus had not yet been glorified."

Pentecost – wind, noise, tongues of fire, signs with which we are familiar. The coming of the Spirit brought radical change. In the Acts of the Apostles, the question was asked, "have you received the Holy Spirit?" Did the advent of the Spirit produce radical change in living my faith?

Pentecost scripture readings are many and varied, but the underlying question is, "Am I being led by the Spirit?" If I am, I am a child of God and have been adopted, and so I can call God "Abba", Father. May the Holy Spirit and the gifts He brought direct me this day and every day.

A Sincere
Thank You

JUBILEE 2025

Jubilee of the Holy See
June 9, 2025

The Second Vatican Council defined the papacy as “the perpetual and visible source and foundation of the unity both of the bishops and the whole company of the faithful” (Lumen Gentium, no. 23). The Pope is the successor of Saint Peter, whom Jesus entrusted with “the keys to the kingdom of heaven” after telling him, “upon this rock I will build my church” (Mt 16:18,19).

For two millennia, Saint Peter and his successors have served as the Vicar of Christ on earth. To manage and support the temporal affairs of this incredible office, the Church established the Holy See, the governance structure of the Catholic Church based at the Vatican in Rome. Through this Jubilee moment, the Church invites us to pause and reflect on the men and women who directly aid the Holy Father and represent the Church’s interests in global affairs.

Much of the work of these people happen “behind the scenes.” We may never know their names, but we certainly see the fruits of their labor in the words, actions, and presence of the Pope as the head of the Vatican City State and Roman Pontiff. This includes people who work within the Vatican Secretariat of State and the Pontifical Swiss Guard, as well as the Roman Curia, which comprises the leadership and staff of the various offices (called “dicasteries”) that oversee the Vatican’s work regarding evangelization, culture and education, the doctrine of the faith, interreligious dialogue, integral human development, communications, laity, family, and life issues, and more.
The daily administrative work of the governance, diplomacy, writing, and management of the Catholic Church on the international level is unseen by most people. And yet, such efforts allow the Pope to lead effectively and decisively on a worldwide scale.

Take a moment to pray for the men and women who have served within the Holy See through the ages, who have surrounded the Pope with their skills, talents, creativity, and hard work, so that they may benefit the People of God. They fortify the “rock” upon which the Church is built.
