PARISH LIFE

"The Church draws her life from the Eucharist. This truth does not simply express a daily experience of faith, but recapitulates the heart of the mystery of the Church." (St. John Paul - On the Eucharist & Its Relationship to the Church). At the parish of St. Theresa, we strive to embody these words that describe the centrality of the Eucharist for the life and mission of the Church.

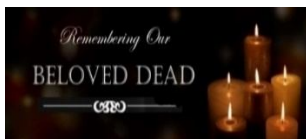

We welcome you to join us as we gather to celebrate our faith and worship God. Whatever your present status in the Catholic Church, whatever your current family or marital situation, whatever your past or present religious affiliation, whatever your personal history, age, background, or race, you are a Child of God and you are welcomed, accepted, loved, and respected at the Church of St. Theresa.

REGISTRATION: We invite you to officially register as a member of our parish community. By registering you declare your desire to be part of our Catholic community and you are able to stay closely connected with the life of the parish. In order to register, please call or stop by the Parish Office.

WE PRAY FOR OUR SICK

Please remember in your prayers all those members of our parish family and our friends who continuously suffer physically, emotionally, and/or spiritually, and those who tirelessly care for them. Let us especially remember those currently in need of our prayers: Kevin Brady, Amy Cisyk, Kim Coyle, Maureen Dwyer, Johnny Favro, Jace Gold, Chuck Griffin, Peter Hummel, John Lamberti, Valerie LaCava, Justin Marchese, Julia Matta, Peggy McDonnell, Ro McLaughlin, Art Midgley, Peter Mills, Rita Murray, Pasquale Musto, Rota O'Neill, Tricia Pelehach, Andrew Joseph Ragusa, Steven Repko, Samantha Saraceno, Valerie Schaffer, Nick Steiger.

WE PRAY FOR OUR RECENTLY DECEASED

We extend our prayers and sympathy to the family and friends of our recently deceased. May they find eternal rest in peace with God our Father.

WE PRAY FOR OUR MILITARY

Please remember in your prayers all those members of our parish family and our friends who are currently deployed and their families, especially: Sr. Boatswain Gabrielle Fest, LCP1 Christopher Hansen, Airman Staff Sgt. Worosz, USN. May the Lord protect them as they protect us.

WE PRAY FOR VOCATIONS

Heavenly Father, your harvest needs good and faithful men to tend to its many needs. Open their minds and hearts to respond to your call to be priests of and for the Diocese of Trenton, in imitation of your Son Jesus Christ, the Good Shepherd of your flock. Amen. Follow us on Instagram: TrentonMakesPriests

THE SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM

Baptisms are held the first and third Sunday of each month at 1:00 PM. Arrangements must be made in person at the Parish Office at least two months in advance. Parents and Godparents are required to attend a Baptismal Prep Class.

THE SACRAMENT OF MARRIAGE

Arrangements must be made at least one year in advance. Preparations include sessions with a member of the clergy and attendance at a Pre-Cana Conference. For more information, please call the Parish Office.

Anointing the sick

THE SACRAMENT OF THE SICK

The Catechism of the Catholic Church tells us there is no need to wait until a person is at the point of death to receive the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick. A careful judgment about the serious nature of an illness is sufficient. *"Hence, as soon as any of the faithful begins to be in danger of death from sickness or old age, the fitting time for him to receive this sacrament has certainly already arrived."*¹³⁰

We welcome anyone who has a physical condition, is anticipating entering the hospital for surgery or tests, or is under any emotional distress to avail themselves of this beautiful Sacrament. Please call the Parish Office to schedule the Sacrament with a priest. Please do not wait until the very last minute to call.

FIFTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

First Reading: Acts 6:1 7

During the early growth of the Church, the apostles realized that they needed more disciples to carry out the Church's ministry effectively. The community selected seven men, including Stephen.

Second Reading: 1 Peter 2:4 9

Citing many uses of the word "stone" in the sayings of Jesus and in the Old Testament, Peter urges the Christians to be "living stones...an edifice of spirit."

Gospel: John 14:1 12

In this beautiful passage from the words of Jesus at the Last Supper, Jesus promises that He is preparing a place for the apostles. He tells them, "I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through me." When Philip asks Jesus to show them the Father, Jesus answers, "Whoever has seen me has seen the Father."

Consider & Reflect

"Brothers, select from among you seven reputable men, filled with the Spirit and wisdom, whom we shall appoint to this task, whereas we shall devote ourselves to prayer and to the ministry of the word. The proposal was acceptable to the whole community...They presented these men to the apostles, who prayed and laid hands upon them."

The Acts of the Apostles, the story of the life of the primitive church, discloses an important step in the growth and structure of the church. Here we discover the choice of the first deacons, part of the sacrament of Holy Orders. As we reflect on the inspiration of the Spirit and the response of the community, may we look to the needs of the church today.

How aware we are of the need for disciples to serve the church today and for tomorrow. It is a concern for all Catholics. May I take a moment and ask myself, when did I encourage a person to follow the Lord as a priest, deacon or the religious life of a brother or sister? Rather than lament the lack of vocations, may I pray for and encourage others to listen to the call of the Lord. May we pray that those whom the Lord is calling today - and He is - may hear and respond.

Daily Chapel Window Blinds

We are in need of blinds for the windows in the Daily Chapel.

We have been experiencing excessive sun glare, which makes it very bright and difficult to see. Blinds are an ideal solution because they are durable, easy to maintain and provide insulation from heat and cold. They will ensure a comfortable environment for both the Priests and all those attending daily Mass.

The cost for each blind is $125.00. We will need six. If anyone is interested in helping to pay for one or more, we would be extremely grateful. You can drop off a check at the Parish Office during office hours or mail it in. Please write "window blinds" in the memo section or on the envelope.

Once again, thank you so much for your continued support and generosity.
We truly appreciate it.

Family Promise

Hello,
My name is Sandi Johnson.
I am a coordinator for our Family Promise mission here at St. Theresa's Church.

We will once again be hosting families this year for the weeks of May 24th and May 31st. I am pleased to let you know that Ellen Luyster will be joining our mission as a coordinator this year. Thank you, Ellen.

We have a list of wonderful volunteers who have provided great dinner meals for our guests in the past. We will be calling on them sometime in May to help us once again. At this time, we are requesting your help in providing gift cards for Walmart, Acme, ShopRite, or any local restaurant. We use these gifts to purchase additional food items that are other than for dinners and/or miscellaneous items needed during their stay.

Since the families do not get to dine out often, the restaurant cards are a special treat. If you would like to donate, please drop the gift cards off at the parish office and mark the envelope "Family Promise."

Thank you all for supporting this wonderful mission and to Father Gerry for allowing us to continue hosting these special families. If you have any questions about this mission, please contact me at 609 432- 5064.

AL-ANON

AL-Anon is a mutual support group of peers who share their experience in applying the AL-Anon principles to problems related to the effects of a problem drinker in their lives. AL-Anon meets every Monday at 7:15 PM in the Faith Formation Center. Please visit www.al-anon.org for more information.

KNIGHT'S KORNER # 30

AM I A GOOD PERSON ?

A clinical definition of a “good” person might be an individual who embraces qualities that promote positive outcomes and well-being for humanity as a whole. Compassion, empathy, integrity, and kindness are just a few examples of what makes someone “good.” Goodness is shown through consistent, often small actions, even when no one is watching.

You know you’re a good person when you actively do your best to be mindful of your actions and decisions. For many of us, perhaps the hardest thing of all is to actually believe that “I am a good person.” We can climb mountains, work hard, acquire many skills, and act ethically, but truly feel deep down that we are good? Nope!

It’s as if your psyche has three parts to it: one part says, “you’re good”; another part says, “you’re not good”; and a third part, the one we identify with most, “listens”. The problem is that the critical, dismissive voice is usually much louder than the protecting, encouraging, and valuing voice.

When we are not disturbed by pain, loss or fear, the brain defaults to a basic equilibrium of calm, contentment, and caring. And in ways that feel mysterious, you can sense profound benevolence at your core. Could that be the Holy Spirit at work?

Jesus taught us that true goodness stems from a transformed heart, not just outward actions, stating that only God is ultimately good. He stated, “No one is good—except God alone” (Mark 10:18). He emphasized loving others, including enemies, producing good works from the heart, and bearing “fruit” such as kindness, gentleness, and self-control.

So let us heed the words of our Savior. Live as he wants us to live, and goodness will emanate from us.
