JESUS' RESURRECTION, THE EUCHARIST AND OUR BELIEF IN THE RESURRECTION OF THE BODY

All through this wonderful season of Easter we hear so many accounts of the appearances of Jesus to his disciples after he has risen from the dead. They are always very touching and human encounters, such as the meeting of Jesus with the two disciples on the road to Emmaus (Luke 24: 13-35), or with Mary Magdalene as she tries to cling to our Lord (John 20: 11-18). In these encounters, Jesus always speaks to his disciples and gives them that special "resurrection" gift of peace: an inner tranquility of spirit that also gives strength and perspective (John 20: 19-21).

Have you also noticed though that these encounters also frequently involve Jesus eating with his disciples...? This is no coincidence, for it also helps us to make a connection between the resurrection and the Eucharist. After all, in the Eucharist, we receive the body and blood of the risen Lord and the Eucharist is sometimes referred to as "the foretaste and promise of the paschal feast of heaven." In every Eucharistic prayer we pray for all those who have gone before us and this helps us to recall that whenever we celebrate the Eucharist, we are joined not only with those around us in the church, or those in our parish community or Diocese, or even with all Christian around the world. No, we are also joined with those who have passed from this life to the next: the Eucharist is very much about the resurrection and the life to come.

But perhaps there is another reason why the risen Jesus so often eats with his disciples. It is to show that he is not a ghost or a spirit, but rather that he appears in his risen body. He tells his disciples this in the Gospel today. "Why are you troubled...? Why do questions arise in your hearts? Touch me and see, because a ghost does not have flesh and bones as you can see I have." Then, as if to make the point further, Jesus asks them if they have anything to eat and he eats a piece of fish in front of them. A ghost or spirit would not do this presumably!

Jesus indeed rises from the dead and in this form: not just as some sort of phantasm or spirit, but bodily. This is the foundation of our faith in the resurrection of the body and not just in some sort of spiritual resurrection. As we say in the last part of the Apostles' Creed: "I believe in the resurrection of the body and life everlasting." We do not know exactly what sort of form this resurrected body will be, but we do believe in the resurrection of the body. When we think about it, this also makes a great deal of sense. After all, our bodies are so much part of how we experience life and people, how we react to things, and how we act. Our body is very much part of being human and we are indeed both body and spirit. We might also add that how we use our bodies here and now in this life, will certainly affect things in the life to come. For example, do I use my hands to help and welcome or to hurt or push away? Do I use my eyes to see the good and to see as Jesus sees, or do I use them to see in a bad way?

So, as we celebrate Mass, let us remember that we too not only encounter the risen Lord, but we actually receive him too under those physical appearances of bread and wine. Let us also renew our faith in the resurrection of the body and pray for our loved ones who have gone before us. Finally, let us remember that our body is indeed a "temple of the Holy Spirit" (1 Corinthians 6: 19) and so let us always use our bodies and our senses well and for the good; that is in love and service of God and our neighbor.

Fr. Anthony

THE BISHOP'S APPEAL

ROMAN CATHOLIC DIOCESE OF ALBANY, NY

Next weekend is the 2015 BISHOP'S APPEAL COMMITMENT WEEKEND. This is our opportunity to unite together as one Catholic family, to answer the challenge given to us by Jesus Christ to feed the hungry, clothe the naked, comfort the afflicted, and to promote justice for every person. This Appeal supports all of the vital ministries and programs throughout the Diocese of Albany. It is our one opportunity during the year to reach out in support of all the people of God beyond the boundaries of St. Ambrose.

Over the next week please take the time to prayerfully reflect on the gifts that you have been given by God and respond to the Bishop's Appeal as generously as you possibly can, by making a pledge that you can pay throughout the year. Please join other Catholics from throughout the 14 counties of the diocese in supporting this very important collection. Your gift directly helps St. Ambrose pay its share of the important work of the diocese. Let us strive for 100% participation: not equal gifts, but equal sacrifice!

CHURCH HEATING SYSTEM

APPEAL UPDATE AND

GENERAL MAINTENANCE UPDATE

Just a brief update on the project...

We have collected the usual three estimates for the cost of this necessary and overdue work and we hope to carry it out in May or June. Again, as mentioned at Mass, we do budget for repairs and general maintenance and this is usually covered by our tithing and weekly offertory (many thanks, as ever for your amazing generosity), but, as you can imagine, this project would be well beyond the usual amount. Also, we have incurred a number of extra expenses due to the cold and prolonged winter such as snow plowing costs. Many thanks to all those who have responded to the Appeal: as of last weekend approximately $ 20,444 has been collected.

While thinking of routine and other maintenance and just to keep you in the picture, we have also had a number of other capital improvements recently: none of them very glamorous, but all were necessary to maintain our facilities! For example, we had to upgrade significantly the fire alarm system so as to meet code requirements and timers have been fitted to the parking lot floodlights. Also, there have been a number of roofing and siding repairs and the parish computer system has been renewed with the addition of proper data backup systems (that we did not have before). So, it has been a busy (and expensive!) time.

Many thanks again for your generosity and ongoing support,

Fr. Anthony

Prayer of a Disciple

Loving God, that you would think my heart capable of belonging to you! You have filled my life with your goodness in so many ways. I hear the call to give myself to your love in an ever deeper and more complete way. I long to follow you so totally that you are evident in every fiber in my life.

I pray for faith. That long lasting sense of You that weathers all storms, that comes across the waters bravely when you ask for me, that sinks into Your love and lets go of anxieties and worries, that looks long into the eyes of others' suffering, that takes care to be gentle with sinners and those whose lives are never free from intense pain of body or spirit.

I pray for love. That great and generous-enough love that looks compassionately upon all, that love which accepts others with their mystery, doubt, hesitation, that love which reaches out even though there is no response in return, that love which is patient and kind, that kind of love which is Your Love, never jealous, boastful or conceited, that love which is never rude or selfish but rather always ready to excuse, to trust, to hope and to endure whatever comes.

I yearn for You to be the intimate master, the One at whose feet I can sit and ponder the message, the One whose hand I can hold and walk with when I am afraid, the One at whose side I can sit as we taste the meal, the One who's robe I can touch, even in the crowd.

I will follow. I will rejoice in loving You and being loved by You. I need to hear your voice over and over and over again. I need to keep reclaiming all the intimacy that You hold out for me. I need to believe that You want to win over my heart completely.

O Jesus, Master, Sheppard, Lover, Leader! Here I am again. Please claim me as Your own.

St. Ambrose Kids with True Heart!

Students in fifth grade have been working diligently over the past month on a project that is near and dear to their hearts. Many of the students have family members who have gone through cardiac surgeries and complications. This is what made the heart shaped pillow project perfect for us. The pillows not only give something for recent patients of cardiac surgery to hold on to, but also something for them to clench when they painfully cough. The pillows also give them a way to protect the scar on their chests. Father Anthony explained to the students how he has seen the "power of the pillows," in action when he visits cardiac patients post heart surgery. They have already stuffed fifty of these that were graciously sewn by student's moms and aunts. In addition to stuffing the pillows, they have created uplifting cards to include with the pillows. They plan to stuff fifty more in the coming weeks.

Pope Francis stands for Justice

Part of living as Christians is the responsibility to stand for justice. How courageous of Pope Francis to stand up for the truth concerning the Armenian Genocide which slaughtered about 1.5 million innocent Armenians. The Pope has a strong history of living and working amongst a large Christian Armenian population in Argentina. Pope Francis recently appointed the late Gregory of Narek the distinguished honor of Doctor of the Church. St. Blaise also was an Armenian Saint who we honor on February 3rd. My Armenian doctor husband fought fearlessly for the recognition of the Genocide in Washington, and all over the world. Our family visited Armenia many times, visiting the memorials and the museums. We saw the live footage of the death walks, the bones and the atrocities of the 20th Century crime against humanity that is solemnly remembered each April 24th. I'm sure the heavens are dancing. The bloodshed and lives lost will never be forgotten. "Getse Hayastan". Long live Christian Armenia, true loyal followers of Christ. Amen
