GOOD SHEPHERD SUNDAY: WORLD DAY OF PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS 2015

This Sunday is, of course, the Fourth Sunday in Eastertime and it is also known as “Good Shepherd Sunday”, since our Gospel is always about that favorite image of Jesus as the Good Shepherd. Today is also a world day of prayer for vocations. While deeply valuing and promoting the vocation that every person has to follow Jesus and to build up the Kingdom of God, the Church community focuses today on the particular vocations to the ordained ministries (priesthood and diaconate) and to the religious or consecrated life.

There are many reasons why we have this annual day of prayer. The first is to promote what we might call a culture of vocations to the ordained ministries and to the religious life. We know only too well how necessary this is from our own experience of the often called “shortage” of priests, deacons and religious. This shortage has many causes such as the secular culture in which we live, the terrible scandals of recent years and the questions that many might have about whether they (or a son or daughter) will be happy and fulfilled in such a life. The statistics for priests in our own Diocese are indeed deeply worrying. In 1980 there were 356 active priests, by 2000 this was down to 223 priests and by 2020 it is projected that there will be only around 59 active priests for the entire Diocese. Currently, there are a number of parishes “open” in the Diocese (that is still awaiting the appointment of priest), some have been so for over a year. Why? Because, sadly, there is no priest available to send there.

However, our World Day of Prayer for Vocations has a second, and perhaps more positive and optimistic reason. If God calls a person to the ordained ministry or to the religious life, then this will indeed be a truly wonderful, fulfilling and joy-filled life. I can only speak personally, but at the end of many days I find the words on Psalm 115 on my mind and in my heart: “how can I repay the Lord for goodness to me.” Certainly there are tough and trying days, but then who does not have these! Yet there are so many more great and exhilarating days. After nearly 30 years of being a priest, I still find wonder and awe in the fact that the Lord uses me to make a real difference in people’s lives...each and every day; that as a priest I am with people in key, special and personal moments of their lives and that I have been entrusted with the task of preaching God’s saving Word and of celebrating His life-giving sacraments, especially the Eucharist and Reconciliation.

So, as we keep this special day of prayer for vocations to the ordained ministries and to the religious and consecrated life, please do pray for vocations and please actively promote a positive culture of vocations in our parish, our school and in your home. Finally, if any of you are thinking about such a vocation, think on and pray on...and perhaps chat with someone who can help you and guide you. Also, do visit the Diocesan vocations website at www.albanyvocations.org or the section in the USCCB website on vocations.

A few final words from Pope Francis’ message for this world day of prayer for vocations...

“We Christians were not chosen by the Lord for small things; push onwards toward the highest principles. Stake your lives on noble ideals!”

“Every vocation... always requires an exodus from oneself in order to center one’s life on Christ and on his Gospel.”

“A vocation flows from the heart of God and blossoms in the good soil of faithful people.”

“I turn now to those who are well disposed to listen to the voice of Christ that rings out in the Church and to understand what their own vocation is. I invite you to listen to and follow Jesus, and to allow yourselves to be transformed interiorly by his words, which ‘are spirit and life’” (John 6:62).

Altar Server Lector Retreat for anyone in High School.

This is the perfect chance to grow closer to Christ while growing closer to understanding Jesus Veiled in the Eucharist. To know Jesus is to love Him. To love him is to serve Him. To serve Him is to know yourself.

Acts of the Apostles—Chapter 2

When the time for Pentecost was fulfilled, they were all in one place together. And suddenly there came from the sky a noise like a strong driving wind, and it filled the entire house in which they were. Then there appeared to them tongues as of fire, which parted and came to rest on each one of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in different tongues, as the Spirit enabled them to proclaim.

Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven staying in Jerusalem. At this sound, they gathered in a large crowd, but they were confused because each one heard them speaking in his own language. They were astounded, and in amazement they asked, "Are not all these people who are speaking Galileans? Then how does each of us hear them in his own native language? We are Parthians, Medes, and Elamites, inhabitants of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the districts of Libya near Cyrene, as well as travelers from Rome, both Jews and converts to Judaism, Cretans and Arabs, yet we hear them speaking in our own tongues of the mighty acts of God." They were all astounded and bewildered, and said to one another, "What does this mean?" But others said, scoffing, "They have had too much new wine."

Thirty-three teenagers have just experienced the sacrament of a life time. The moment in which God enkindles His Holy Spirit within them and sparks an ability to embrace His grace and empower a life of Fortitude, Wisdom, Prudence, Understanding, Counsel, Knowledge, Piety and Fear of the Lord. Will these young men and women be noticed? Will they blend into our Parish Family, disappear from the pews? Those it is to live a life full must now help our newest to live fully the grace they have been given. Now is our families chance to embrace the gifts given to a few to be shared with the many here at home and in their world. Let us, by God's grace witness the sort of life we profess and live out the will of God we so readily admit to be the first best choice. And they will follow.
