JUNE: THE MONTH OF THE SACRED HEART OF JESUS

We are racing through the month of June at high speed and the month is almost already gone. For many of us, June is usually one of those very mixed month and also often a very busy one! There is the transition from late spring to summer and all that this promises, a time perhaps of graduations, or of retirement from a job, or maybe there will be a significant family event such as a wedding or a special anniversary.

June has also been a busy month in our church calendar as it is crowded with many feast days and saints' days. It is also, by tradition, the month of the "Sacred Heart of Jesus" (as we are reminded by the statue of the Sacred Heart in the sanctuary of our church). Many Catholics have a great devotion to the Sacred Heart and many houses have either a statue or a picture of the Sacred Heart in them. Perhaps we might be puzzled or unsure about this devotion, or think that it might be a bit outdated, or perhaps we might just like to know more. So the reflection this week is a sort of reminder about the meaning of our devotion to the "Sacred Heart of Jesus" all about...?

Devotions to the Sacred Heart became more prominent after the visions of Saint Margaret Mary Alacoque: a saint who lived in France in the late seventeenth century. Devotions to the Sacred Heart invite us to focus on Jesus' immense love for us. The heart is not just that vital organ that pumps blood around our bodies. It is considered as the centre of what motivates us and it is the seat of our love for God and for others. We can also see this understanding of what we mean by "heart" in the Bible where the word heart is used hundreds of times, almost always as a symbol of the very soul of a person: literally what makes them tick or going to the very heart of things. So, the Sacred Heart of Jesus reminds us of His great love for us and His desire to fill our hearts with His love.

Perhaps we can also reflect that this devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus questions us and challenges us too: about my heart and where my heart really is. In other words, what really motivates me or makes me tick, and where do I put all my energies in life? After all, we have many expressions that involve the heart: warm/cold hearted, big hearted, broken hearted, a divided heart, half-hearted, our heart goes out to someone etc. etc. So, the challenge is about our spiritual heart: how would we describe it from that list above?

As we enter the summer months, perhaps our Lord asks two things of us. First of all, he asks us to open our hearts to His; that is to His immense love. Secondly, he might ask us to look into our hearts and to see what is there and then, with His help, to renew and to strengthen our heart: that is to create a pure heart within us. In all this, we will receive many gifts that we need in our often busy lives that can tug at our heart this way and that; not least we can receive that special gift of the risen Christ, the gift of a tranquility of heart.

Fr. Anthony

PARISH NURSE NANCY ACEMOGLU, RN

There's something special about simpler times.
Being out in the fresh air and appreciating the sun shining down.

It's a pleasant reminder of what life was like years before. Family gatherings, church centered activities and appreciating simplicity.

There is a little Church on the Lake that brings you back to that moment instantly, old wooden benches sparkling, little altar boys with crew cuts because it's summer, windows opened to catch the summer's breeze.

Usually there is no organ and some heartfelt, a little cranky off key singing, and the presence of God so clear as the crystal wavy lake that peeps out the front door. Present perhaps of a gentle reminder of how vast God is and the promise of eternity. It struck me recently during the kiss of peace when a young man, perhaps with some sort of disability or spectrum disorder, became over zealous during the handshake, his elderly mother scolded him and said "you don't have to give a handshake to the whole church."

I sat behind them in church with a bit of sadness thinking how different each one's perception is. I in fact had just thought to myself how wonderful and peaceful of this young man in such a slight and gentle way, to offer the simple gesture of Gods love.

So often in life something well intended can be misinterpreted. Well, as the saying goes, God knows. Have a beautiful, peaceful, simple summer's day.
