LENT AS A TIME OF TRANSFIGURATION... A PROJECT SUGGESTED BY BISHOP SCHARFENBERGER

We are already beginning our second week of our journey through Lent and our wonderful readings this weekend invite us to focus on transformation and transfiguration. At every second Sunday in Lent, we hear about the transfiguration of Jesus before his disciples Peter, James and John on Mount Tabor. Jesus is transfigured or transformed in front of his closest disciples: His inner beauty and awesome power as Son of God and Son of Man shines out. The disciples are both afraid and awe-struck at the sight. And yet, just a short time after this they see Jesus transformed again, this time in his suffering as He carries His cross and is crucified, before they then see the risen Lord transformed again in His glorified body at Easter. There is so much to think about as we are given this Gospel to help us in our journey through Lent to Easter.

So, we are given this Gospel to remind us about how God's love and mercy can transfigure or transform us: our inner beauty as sons and daughters of God can shine out! It is also a reminder that the Lord asks us to be His agents of that same transformation and transfiguration; to share the good news of what we have received. In other words, we are to be evangelizers and disciple-makers. Peter thought that it was wonderful to be present at Jesus' transfiguration and perhaps wanted to stay on the mountain, making a shrine there. Instead, Jesus takes Peter and the other two disciples back down the mountain: they cannot stay there for He must continue His mission and ministry (and so must they!).

Thinking of all this, Bishop Scharfenberger has shared with us a way that we can focus on this transformation and transfiguration, both for ourselves and our families and friends, but also so that we can be better examples and disciple-makers. Here are some excerpts from the letter in which he puts forward this suggestion...

"This Holy Year of Mercy is a grace that keeps giving. I would like to offer you a gift that you can share with your family, parishioners and loved ones, which has touched my heart deeply: an Act of Consecration to the Immaculate Heart of Mary....The process I used was an updated version developed by Fr. Michael Gaitley MIC. May I invite you to share this experience with me, which will culminate in a celebration of the Solemnity of the Annunciation of the Lord on Monday, April 4th, at 6:30 P.M. in our Cathedral? This year's feast, which I think of as the Dawn of Mercy, falls the day after Divine Mercy Sunday. It recalls the moment of Mary's free and total "yes" to be the Mother of our Savior, Jesus Christ. It can also be our "yes" this Holy Year to let Mary's heart be our personal holy door to the heart of Jesus Christ, who is Mercy Incarnate. Here's how we can do it together...

Beginning on March 1st, Tuesday of the Third Week of Lent, you and those with whom you share the experience can enter into an easy-to-follow daily prayer and reflection process that fits perfectly into the culmination of Lent with the Easter Season. It's called 33 Days to Morning Glory. As a good retreat-master, Fr. Michael leads us step-by-step to the Consecration in his very personal and readable book. For all of the resources you need, please visit www.rcda.org/Offices/parish_services/Marian%20Consecration.html, our dedicated web page, or call Renée, our Coordinator for Parish Services, at (518) 453-6609 http://www.rcda.org/Offices/parish_services/index.html).

After the Consecration, doing the Works of Mercy will engage everyone in the New Evangelization. For the graces of the Consecration do not end with the ritual! To learn more, Fr. Michael will generously offer free presentations around our diocese from February 8th to 16th. Become a regional site for his talks! Just contact Dan and Katie Offsay, his Marian Missionaries, at (860) 887-2694, or go to littleflowerbug513@yahoo.com. Fr. Michael's speaking schedule will be posted on our dedicated website for the Consecration."

Prayer Warrior Ministry

P Do you know a parishioner who is homebound and is looking for community interaction? Then this is the ministry for them! The Prayer Warrior Ministry is a group of parishioners who, due to short or long-term conditions, can no longer attend mass with the community, but long for community interaction. We are a group who will pray daily for the intentions of our parish and the world, using scripture readings combined with intentions gathered from our Parish Intention Book. This ministry is open to all members of our community, as well as those who are homebound. Please join us for a brief 30 minute information gathering on Thursday, February 25th, at 6:30 pm in the Parish Center.

SPECIAL COLLECTION

The next weekend of February 27 & 28 Fr. Paul Wilderotter will be here on behalf of FOOD FOR THE POOR. As we are a tithing parish, a portion of our regular collection will be tithed toward this Special Collection. Envelopes will also be provided for those who wish to make an individual donation.

STATIONS OF THE CROSS

Please join us for the Stations of the Cross each Friday at 7 PM in the Church.
This week the stations will be led by Faith Formation Catechists.

"Behold the Lamb of God, who takes away the sins of the world"

Are you being called to share your faith?

We asked some of our catechists to share some thoughts on what they enjoy most about being a catechist:

- ♦ “keeps me connected to the church community”
- ♦ “sharing my faith with young people”
- ♦ “love the faith”
- ♦ “by sharing my faith with others, I continue growing in my own faith”

The faith formation team has a variety of programs and opportunities waiting for you:

- ♦ Pre-K thru 6 — Sunday mornings
- ♦ The Edge (grades 6–8) - Tuesday evenings
- ♦ Life Teen (high school) - Sunday evenings
- ♦ Confirmation (grades 10–12) - monthly
- ♦ Youth Ministry Core Team — Monday evenings
- ♦ RCIA — Sunday mornings
- ♦ Adult Formation — ongoing throughout the year

To learn more about joining the faith formation team as a classroom volunteer, catechist, leader, or guest speaker call us at 785-1351, ext. 307 or email us at faithformationaa@stambroselatham.com

Then Jesus approached and said to them, “All power in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, until the end of the age.” Matthew 28:18-20

Our Week in Review

Tuesday evening our 2nd grade students received the sacrament of First Reconciliation. Their little halos were beaming as well as their sweet little faces!

Wednesday morning the school and parish community gathered together to begin our Lenten Journey as we received ashes and prayed to 'repent and be faithful to the Gospel.'

Thursday morning our Odyssey of the Mind teams performed their long term problem. Their creativity, ingenuity and humor wowed the students, parents and teachers. Team No Cycle Recycle will represent St. Ambrose at the Region 7 competition on March 5th at Shenendehowa East High School. We are so proud of everyone's efforts!

The 100th day of school is celebrated in a hundred different ways. How would you celebrate?

Of course, we showed our love and care for our friends in a way that would make St. Valentine very proud!
