EASTER AND THE YEAR OF MERCY: PART TWO

Last week we reflected on how the season of Easter is very much a season of mercy. In fact, the events of Easter are very much like the key that opens the door of God's mercy and love for us. This week, perhaps can explore a little bit further how this might be so. One way to do this is to look at what we might call the gifts of Easter and the resurrection of Jesus. Indeed, Easter brings with it so many wonderful resurrection gifts; but let us not forget that many of these gifts are also very much gifts of mercy.

Let us begin with the gift of forgiveness. A number of the resurrection appearances of Jesus are very much about forgiveness. On the Third Sunday of Easter, our Gospel at the Mass retells the moving account of Jesus meeting Peter (John 21: 1-19). Peter had denied Jesus three times, but now Peter responds to Jesus' three questions "do you love me?" by saying each time "yes Lord." We might say that Peter's forgiveness and restoration are sealed in this moment and he goes on to lead the Church. The previous Sunday we heard how the risen Jesus appeared to the apostles and then breathes on His disciples saying: "receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained" (John 20: 22-23). Through His death and resurrection, we now have that wonderful possibility of mercy and forgiveness that continues in the mission and ministry of the Church, especially through the sacrament of reconciliation.

Pope Francis has also reminded us that indulgences are also great gifts made possible and available as part of the fruits of Jesus' death and resurrection. He wrote: "a Jubilee also entails the granting of indulgences. God's forgiveness knows no bounds. In the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ, God makes even more evident his love and its power to destroy all human sin. Reconciliation with God is made possible through the paschal mystery and the mediation of the Church."

Jesus' death and resurrection also give another great gift of mercy, that is the possibility of new life for us here and now and, of course, our resurrection when our life's journey is complete. This gift of new life can be ours now, even in desperate situations, for the awful events of Good Friday became the new life of Easter. Billy Graham has put it well when he said: "sin's masterpiece of shame and hate became God's masterpiece of mercy and forgiveness. Through the death of Christ upon the cross, sin itself was crucified for those who believe in Him." Easter is such a wonderful sign then of God's mercy that brings new life and renewal here and now and the hope of our resurrection. To quote Saint John Paul II again: "The fact that Christ was raised the third day constitutes the final sign of the messianic mission, a sign that perfects the entire revelation of merciful love in a world that is subject to evil. At the same time it constitutes the sign that foretells 'a new heaven and a new earth', when God 'will wipe away every tear from their eyes, there will be no more death, or mourning, no crying, nor pain, for the former things have passed away' (Revelation 21:4)." Above all then, Easter is about God's love and mercy that is more powerful even than sin or death!

Another Easter gift of mercy is that of peace: a very practical and very necessary gift! When the risen Jesus appears to the disciples, His first words are "peace be with you" (John 20: 19). Hopefully, we have experienced that peace when we have received mercy or forgiveness, especially in the sacrament of reconciliation. After all, the words of absolution speak of two gifts: "may God give you pardon and peace." We can also experience a profound peace when we let go and show forgiveness and mercy to someone who has wronged us or our loved ones. Many of us live such busy and hectic lives and we can feel fragmented and pulled in every direction. That merciful resurrection gift of peace can help to restore our tranquility of spirit that also gives us a sense of focus and helps us to keep things in perspective.

So, as we continue this season of Easter, rejoicing in the Resurrection of Jesus, let us not forget that this is also very much a joy that celebrates God's mercy. Because of Holy Week and Easter, the door of mercy has been opened for us. The many gifts that the resurrection brings are very much gifts of mercy. Let us happily receive these gifts, let us live these gifts and let us also share them with all those around us. A final word should be from Pope Francis: "Before his Passion, Jesus prayed with this psalm of mercy. Matthew attests to this in his Gospel when he says that, 'when they had sung a hymn' (26:30), Jesus and his disciples went out to the Mount of Olives. Knowing that Jesus himself prayed this psalm makes it even more important for us as Christians, challenging us to take up the refrain in our daily lives by praying these words of praise: 'for his mercy endures forever.'"

SACRISTAN MINISTRY

Like altar serving, being a Sacristan is a very beneficial way to help out your church community, and an active way to participate in Mass. Sacristans perform the following duties:

- Setting up the church before Mass. Typically, sacristans arrive at church half hour before anyone else. They light the candles, arrange the books, ready the linens and basically perform a little simple organizing before Mass begins.
- Prepare the Holy Eucharist for the celebration of the Mass. This includes readying the wine, water and bread and putting them in place for the start of Mass.
- Coordinate all Mass participants make sure Lectors, Eucharistic Ministers and Altar Servers are ready.
- Cleaning the holy materials after Mass in the sacristy.
- Before the sacristan leaves the church everything is set back in its place and secured.

Decide if this is something you think you can do. Setting the table of the Lord is a ministry that is essential for the Mass. We are in need of sacristans for all Masses. Our schedules are flexible so after training you can let us know what Mass works for you. Our schedule is posted ahead several months at a time for your convenience. Please contact the Sacristan Coordinator Pat Rayball 708-9615 for more information.

The Food Pantry Garden is being planned and work crews assembled. As in the past we are looking for families who would be willing to manage a small area of the garden and keep it free of weeds so that the food we grow will be our best crop ever.

Everything from this garden goes into the hands of our brothers and sisters we serve through the food pantry. So we want this produce to be the absolute best it can be for our extended family. Please consider joining the team and caring for a small piece of the garden. Bring the whole family every once in a while to weed and maintain your spot. It takes maybe an hour a week for a few short months and then you start to see the fruit of your labor. If you are interested please contact the Lifeteen office for more information at 785-1351 x309. And if you have a green thumb we are always looking for planting advice.

IT'S SPRING BREAK NEXT WEEK!

A GREAT TIME TO START GARDENING. WE'RE GETTING TOGETHER ON TUESDAY, APRIL 26TH AT 10AM TO START WORKING THE FOOD PANTRY GARDEN. WE COULD USE ALL THE HANDS WE CAN GET SO PLEASE COME OUT WITH YOUR FAMILY AND FRIENDS AND LEND A HAND. WE'LL PROVIDE LUNCH AND WORK INTO THE AFTERNOON. PLEASE COME AND SPEND SOME TIME WITH US. CLAIM A PORTION OF THE GARDEN FOR YOUR OWN CARE AND BE THE KEEPERS OF THAT SPOT. THANK YOU SO MUCH FOR YOUR KINDNESS!

Principal for the Day

I am writing today on behalf of 5 year old Connor who was Principal for the Day on Friday 4/15. "As principal I enjoyed ringing the bell first in morning prayer and eating lunch outside. I did not want to take a nap in my office. My sister Ali was my assistant. We played on the computer, read books and unlocked a lot of doors with our "special" keys. Our expressions are priceless and look just like Mrs. McGraw on a Friday afternoon!"

Kids Culinary Challenge

Students are taking the challenge to prepare various culinary delights.

Aidan wowed us with his fresh zucchini salad, cheesy bread and tropical drink. Bon appetite!

Marissa's pasta salad was marvelous!

The Esteps treated us to top notch desserts!

Pope Francis stands for Justice

Part of living as Christians is the responsibility to stand for justice.

How courageous of Pope Francis to stand up for the truth concerning the Armenian Genocide which slaughtered about 1.5 million innocent Armenians. The Pope has a strong history of living and working amongst a large Christian Armenian population in Argentina. Pope Francis recently designated the late Gregory of Narek with the distinguished honor of being named a Doctor of the Church.

St. Blaise also was an Armenian Saint who we honor on February 3rd. My Armenian doctor husband fought fearlessly for the recognition of the Genocide in Washington, and all over the world. Our family visited Armenia many times, visiting the memorials and the museums. We saw the live footage of the death walks, the bones and the atrocities of this 20th Century crime against humanity that is solemnly remembered each April 24th.

I'm sure the heavens are dancing. The bloodshed and lives lost will never be forgotten.

"Getse Hayastan". Long live Christian Armenia, true loyal followers of Christ. Amen
