SCHOOL

Ms. Schaffer's Pre-K 4 class celebrates Halloween

In conjunction with our Halloween theme, we explored fiction and nonfiction. We read Go Away, Big Green Monster by Ed Emberley and created a work of art that taught us about symmetry. We also made monster slime.

We read about ghosts and created our own ghost by blowing paint, and we shared what we would do if we were invisible. A couple of favorites were that they would sneak in to the kitchen and steal some cookies. Another said they would sneak up and scare their Grandma and Grandpa. Our STEM activity was to build a house for a ghost. We read Room on the Broom by Julia Donaldson, and designed a broom for the witch out of Legos. The final task was to share who you would have on your broom. Most wanted to have their families.

On Halloween, we carved a scary face out of our pumpkin and then made it erupt. We learned about chemical reactions.

We also tried to build a tower out of candy corn and design a boat that could float with candy corn in it.

Our nonfiction part of our theme was about bats and spiders. As part of our STEM activities, we created two kinds of bats. One bat was designed as a paper airplane and we attached a straw to the second bat, inserted a smaller straw inside the larger straw and blew to launch the bat. We determined the bat with the straw flew the best, and we then learned about spiders and their life cycles. The majority of our class is not afraid of spiders.

HELP SUPPORT OUR CONFIRMATION CANDIDATES

We are looking to give each Confirmation Candidate in our program a Catholic Youth Bible. We are seeking your assistance in making this happen. Would you consider donating toward the purchase of a Bible? The costs of the bible on Amazon are $22.95. If you would be willing to donate, there are many ways. We can send you the link where you can order it from Amazon directly and have it shipped to us or you can donate on our website under the give tab on the top (just be sure to put "Confirmation Bible" in the comments). Thank you, in advance, for considering our request in supporting our teens preparing for the Sacrament of Confirmation.
