A Message From Our Pastor

Father's Formed.org Suggestion of the Week

PROGRAMS – YOUTH PROGRAMS

YDisciple - Called: Discover Your Vocation

We give thanks to almighty God and His wondrous grace for the ordination of two priests—Fr. Tran Dinh and Fr. Richard Barfield. May God's blessing be upon them every day of their priestly ministry.

During the Rite of Ordination, those to be ordained make six promises to the bishop before the Church—to be fellow workers with the bishop; to worthily exorcise the ministry of the Word by preaching the Gospel and teaching the Catholic Faith; to faithfully and reverently celebrate the mysteries of Christ for the glory of God and sanctification of the people; to pray without ceasing and call God's mercy upon the people; to be united more closely every day to Christ consecrating himself to God for the salvation of all; and respect and obedience to the bishop. In these promises is found the task of the priest namely, "...of representing Christ – Head of the Church – before the assembly of the faithful, [and] also of acting in the name of the whole Church when presenting to God the prayer of the Church, and above all when offering the Eucharistic sacrifice" (CCC ¶1552).

My favorite response comes after the hardest of the promises. When a priest-candidate is promising to be united to Christ more closely and consecrate himself to God, he answers, "I do, with the help of God." This Godly aid comes only by way of a special grace of the Holy Spirit that enables the priest to act in the person of Christ for the good of the body (CCC¶1581). In other words, without the grace of the Holy Spirit the Church would not have priests, because humanity does not merit nor is strong enough to do it alone. Please keep them and all the priests of the diocese in your prayers.

FIRST READING - Isaiah 62:1-5

For Zion's sake I will not be silent, for Jerusalem's sake I will not be quiet, until her vindication shines forth like the dawn and her victory like a burning torch. Nations shall behold your vindication, and all the kings your glory; you shall be called by a new name pronounced by the mouth of the LORD. You shall be a glorious crown in the hand of the LORD, a royal diadem held by your God. No more shall people call you "Forsaken," or your land "Desolate," but you shall be called "My Delight," and your land "Espoused." For the LORD delights in you and makes your land his spouse. As a young man marries a virgin, your Builder shall marry you; and as a bridegroom rejoices in his bride so shall your God rejoice in you.

SECOND READING - 1 Corinthians 12:4-11

Brothers and sisters: There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit; there are different forms of service but the same Lord; there are different workings but the same God who produces all of them in everyone. To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit. To one is given through the Spirit the expression of wisdom; to another, the expression of knowledge according to the same Spirit; to another, faith by the same Spirit; to another, gifts of healing by the one Spirit; to another, mighty deeds; to another, prophecy; to another, discernment of spirits; to another, varieties of tongues; to another, interpretation of tongues. But one and the same Spirit produces all of these, distributing them individually to each person as he wishes.

GOSPEL - John 2:1-11

There was a wedding at Cana in Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus and his disciples were also invited to the wedding. When the wine ran short, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine." And Jesus said to her, "Woman, how does your concern affect me? My hour has not yet come." His mother said to the servers, "Do whatever he tells you." Now there were six stone water jars there for Jewish ceremonial washings, each holding twenty to thirty gallons. Jesus told them, "Fill the jars with water." So they filled them to the brim. Then he told them, "Draw some out now and take it to the headwaiter." So they took it. And when the headwaiter tasted the water that had become wine, without knowing where it came from — although the servers who had drawn the water knew —, the headwaiter called the bridegroom and said to him, "Everyone serves good wine first, and then when people have drunk freely, an inferior one; but you have kept the good wine until now." Jesus did this as the beginning of his signs at Cana in Galilee and so revealed his glory, and his disciples began to believe in him.

Key Scriptural Passage:

And a voice came from heaven: "You are my Son, the Beloved; with you I am well pleased." (Luke 3:2)

Questions for Discussion:

Adult: Do you think that God was "well pleased" by your actions in recent weeks? Why?

Child: What good thing could you do this week that would be pleasing to God?

The idea of a natural right is to preserve life, not to kill it; and a so-called constitutional right to abortion cannot supersede the natural right to life.

A Prayer for the Whole Family...

Dear Lord, bless our family. Be so kind as to give us the unity, peace, and mutual love that You found in Your own family in the little town of Nazareth.

Saint Joseph, bless the head of our family, Obtain for him the strength, the wisdom, and the prudence he needs to support and direct those under his care.

Mother Mary, bless the mother of our family. Help her to be pure and kind, gentle and self-sacrificing. For the more she resembles you, the better will our family be.

Lord Jesus, bless the children of our family. Help them to be obedient and devoted to their parents. Make them more and more like You. Let them grow, as You did, in wisdom and age and grace before God and man.

Holy Family of Nazareth, make our family and home more and more like Yours, until we are all one family, happy, and at peace in our true home with You. Amen.

Growing in Faith...One Minute Meditations...

St. Francis de Sales... Born to a wealthy family in Savoy, near Switzerland. St. Francis became the Bishop of Geneva and worked to revive Catholicism in Chablais, Switzerland. Controversial for his day, he taught all Christians in whatever station in life could grow in holiness. He was known for his simple but profound sermons, and kindly spiritual wisdom. His famous work, Introduction to the Devout Life is still a popular read today as it was when he wrote it.

Grieving is a natural part of the healing process. The Be-reavement Ministry provides support to adults who have experienced the loss of a loved one within the past 5 years. Come listen, share and be with others who understand. Please allow 2 months after the passing of your loved one before attending. Registration is not required.

The next Bereavement Meeting will be Friday, January 28 from 6:00 p.m. - 8:00 p.m. in the St. Robert Church Parish hall.

Church Renovation Projects

Various needs of the parish have been in the planning for a few years. You may recall donating to these projects with your Gift of Christ donations as early as 2018. These donations along with past picnics and other donations, we project to have the renovations fully funded. We started planning for a few repairs or upgrades, and as we looked into the needs of the church, other things became evident that would make the parish more secure, function better, or update the style. The parish board decided to put them all into one building project, which will now get underway. The items that this renovation project will address are listed below with a short description of its need.

- Installing a new door to the Sacred Heart Chapel with a combination lock
 - * The chapel will be open to the public during the day, and secure late night adorers by locking automatically.
 - * The doorway will be solid with less see-through glass for added security.
- Soundproofing and reworking the Confessionals
 - * Soundproof materials will be added in the walls ensuring privacy for you as you receive the Sacrament.
 - * The priest's and penitent's areas will be swapped and the wall between them will extend the full width of the room.
 - * Penitents will enter through a door that will replace the window currently there and have the choice to go behind the screen or face-to-face by sliding the screen in the wall to the side.
- Adding a water softener
 - * This will remove the hard minerals to the water that leaves a calcium ring in the Baptismal font and damages appliances.
- Repairing the floor structure
 - * There are small areas throughout the church where the floor sags and needs repairing.
- Installing new flooring
 - * The carpet will be replaced with heavy-duty vinyl tile with a stone look.
 - * To add a design element to the aisle, a Jerusalem style cross similar to the cross on the Stations of the Cross plaques will be placed in the floor of the foyer and three up the center aisle.
- New Pews and kneelers
 - * New wooden pews will be installed and straightened to their original orientation in the church.
 - * The outside end of the pews will have a decorative engraving that is similar to the cross in the stained glass above the main entrance doors.
 - * Kneelers with aluminum structure will be lighter and quieter when used.
- Rekeying the doors to the buildings
 - * A structured and more secure key system will replace the current keys.
- Repair the Baptism Bowl
 - * The bowl portion of the Baptismal Font needs repairs because the bowl cracked and allowed water to leak compromising the wood structure.

The process will mean some short-term changes to our routine like being displaced for Mass and Adoration. Sunday Mass will be celebrated in the Gym starting January 22; Daily Mass, in the Mikeska Fellowship Center on January 17; and Adoration will be in the Sacred Heart Meeting Room January 17. Please be patient as these projects are being worked on. The parish board and I are happy that these projects are getting started, and we excitedly look forward to the day of their completion and we are celebrating in the updated spaces.
